Chapter 208

MEDIA CONTROL & Robert Maxwell

For many years it has been suspected that much of America's media had fallen into the hands of foreign interests. In the absence of evidence - the "3 Proofs Of Media Control" was substituted. 1) Does the media print Christian Laws as in former days? 2) Does it carry horoscopes forbidden by the Christian religion? 3) Does it approve interracial marriage also condemned by the Christian religion?

The recent book The Samson Option has blown away the smoke and confirmed the worst scenario. Robert Maxwell, monopoly media mogul, was identified as working for the Israeli Mossad and the highest personages in the Israeli government.

The question now is - is it in the national interest to have vast segments of the media under the control of agents of foreign governments? This question must be addressed if America is not to continue a mere puppet of a foreign government - a puppet told what political opinions to hold, told what approved thoughts to think, told who her enemies are, when to fight them, and accept the outrageous moral behavior of foreigners as normal.

The Reason For It All

There is only one economic system forbidden to Christians - the Usury system.¹ Usury is when one lends $10 for $11 when $10 is all the money in the world. Since the 11th dollar does not exist - additional concessions must be made by the borrower. These concessions are couched in deceptive terms, but the end result is slavery.²

The Christian religion brands usury a capital crime.³ Periodically in history, usury-abused people have revolted and have driven out the usurers. Usury, while extremely profitable, can be dangerous.

To practice the usury trade safely it is necessary to:

1) Have friendly rulers. In a democracy, media ownership insures political rule. The media gives obedient politicians publicity and they are elected to office. Rebels are blacked-out or smeared as events dictate.

1 "Unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury." Deu 23:20

2 "The borrower is slave to the lender." Prov. 22:7

3 "Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13.

2) Usury must NOT be discussed. Discussion is prevented by: (a) paying Christian priests with tax-exemption to be silent. (b) erecting a paper curtain to deprive rebels a voice. This is accomplished using the usury monopoly to buy a media monopoly to protect it.

This monopoly consists of thousands upon thousands of newspapers because there ARE thousands upon thousands of newspapers. For management purposes this monopoly is broken down into divisions. Each division has a manager. Robert Maxwell was such a manager.

Robert Maxwell - Manager

Robert Maxwell, born Labji Hoch, son of Czech Orthodox Jewish peasants, arrived penniless in Britain in 1940. He told stories of saving nickels and dimes and in time he owned newspapers worth billions. Unlimited financing became available from the international usury banks. This enabled him to buy up media in Eastern Europe, Western Europe and the U.S.. He referred to himself as "a self-made man."

He was just one of several having a similar run of luck. Rupert Murdoch of Australia, the mysterious Mr. Kluge of Charlottesville, Virginia, and the newly rich owners of a dozen other media chains have also had the same run of "good luck". Their common denominator - they all present the same point of view, and this point of view is almost without exception - anti- Christian and anti-White.

A Whack in Time?

Mr. Maxwell was found dead - floating in the Atlantic. The first story said he had a heart attack. His doctor and family protested that he had no history of heart trouble. Murder was suspected. A Canadian TV announcer said he had been shot.

Since his death the media has had a field day by revealing that Mr. Maxwell had his fingers in the corporate till. He has been accused of transferring funds out of the newspaper empire he was managing into the coffers of his own private corporations. This is considered a business "no, no." It must have made the bankers who financed his media empire very upset with him.

Second: A new book, The Samson Option, by Semour Hersch, revealed that Maxwell was linked to the Mossad.

Israeli Media Network Uncovered

An article in Criminal Politics, p.2, November 1991,⁴ states, "The most serious accusation of the Hersch book was that Maxwell ... as an Israeli intelligence agent, used his worldwide media conglomerate and borrowing power to slant stories so as to place the nation of Israel and Zionism in a beneficial light. ... How many OTHER Mossad agents are working for the U.S. wire services, The New York Times, The Washington Post and, other Maxwell firms here in the U.S.??"

Those who have long wondered why newspapers in Britain, South Africa, Australia, New York, California, and Virginia all carry the same stories, use the same slogans, have the same editorial policy, and slant the news the same way may now be able to stop wondering. The media that looks alike, talks alike, carries the same articles by the same writers, and is uniformly anti- Christian, and anti-White, may logically be assumed to be influenced, if not owned, by an anti-Christian source.

If this is so, it also explains the increasing numbers of concerned and responsible Jews who are becoming alarmed over the militant and extreme positions taken by their zionist kinsmen and are exposing their activities. Hersch, the author of The Samson Option,⁵ is a Jew. The author of By Way of Deception, the book that disclosed that the Israeli Mossad is encouraging Jewish populations world-wide to arm against their host nations, is a Jew, and there are many others.

Municipal Newspapers - Municipal Banks

Vigilantes tells how the media dis-information caused past wars and how the past wars benefit usury banks. The evidence is conclusive and damning.

Something can be done about it. Information is not a private commodity, especially if spoken by a foreign agent - one who may choose to be your enemy on a whim. Unbiased "news" is needed by everyone to arrive at correct decisions. It affects all the people. "News" is no different from a water utility, a bus utility, or a gas or electric utility. As such, the media utility should be bought by local municipi-

5 The Samson Option is an analogy to Samson's pulling the temple down on himself and his enemies. The recently- exposed massive nuclear capability of the Israelis allows them the option of using it against anyone. The book relates that the USSR was targeted. Is the U.S.? Or Europe? Once again it must be asked why media-elected politicians refuse to provide their constituents with bomb shelters and anti-missile missiles.

palities and operated by them. A local municipality may be corrupt to the core, but corrupt opinions are preferable to opinions of a foreign power that may or may not have the interests of its host nation at heart.

The Banking Monopoly Cure

Money lending is a monopoly. One is forced to use the usury- banking monopoly in the same manner that one is forced to use the news media. Either that - or starve. Usury banks by the nature of lending $10 for $11, can never serve any interest other than their own. This irresponsible behavior can be corrected by the same solution used to correct media abuse.

Banks should be bought by the municipality. No-interest municipal banks are an ancient phenomenon in the West and have served the people handsomely. No-interest Arab banks are a present reality.⁶ They work! Municipal banks will work, too.

The above solution of municipal media and municipal banks is a good one. However, it must be acted on.

If it is not acted on, the present system should at least be made efficient. This can be done by abandoning the sham of public elections, and let the monopoly media managers appoint members of congress directly. It would save the taxpayers money, time, and effort. Nothing basic would be changed - it would simply be a public recognition of what actually is going on today.

6 War Cycles / Peace Cycles, Virginia Publishing Company, P.O. Box 997, Lynchburg, Virginia 24505, $28/copy, covers the history of no-interest municipal banks.

THE DAILY PROGRESS SMEAR

The Charlottesville Daily Progress took Lynchburg's News & Daily Advance article, which had been taken from the N.Y Times article, added a few wrinkles of their own, and printed a four page story which lumped me together with a "Grand-Dragon" of the KKK. Following is my answer - which they did not print:

* * * * *

The Daily Progress: Charlottesville, Virginia, November 21, 1991,

Dear Sir:

Your front page article attacking America's Christian movement for Law and Order took the twist that I thought it would take when I refused to give you an interview. Now that you have your pound of flesh, let me correct a few of your inaccuracies.

1- I do not "travel widely to promote the Christian Identity Movement." "Christian Identity" is not mentioned in any of my writings. I am not this thing you call "Christian Identity".

2- You quote the N.Y. Times as saying that I am linked to Byron de la Beckwith as a friend and associate. I have met Beckwith. I believe that trying a man 3 times on a 30-year-old charge is insane. I printed letters from him in my newsletter. I have also met the Queen, England's prime minister, and John D. Rockefeller, Jr. This doesn't make me their "friend and associate."

3- I met Pastor Butler of the Aryan Nations Teutonic Unity group from Hayden Lake one time. He came to hear my talk to a church group in Spokane. I spoke against the KKK and the Nazi Party - both organizations which I consider to be FBI fly-paper fronts designed to first incite and then entrap well- meaning patriotic Americans.

4- Your story lumps me with three others. Eustace Mullins, whom I know, having spoken on the same platform with him, Dr. William Pierce of W. Va, whom I don't know, and a Mr. Roy Lackey, Grand Dragon of the KKK, whom I have never heard of before. This is the old ploy of "guilt by association."

5 - You quote radical non-Christian sources in your attack against Christians:

"Ye shall not ... fight against your brethren the children of Israel." I Kings 12:24 "Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people." Lev 19:18.

This means that Yankee and Southern Saxons may not fight. British and S. African Saxons may not fight. German, Danish, Australian, or Swedish Saxons may not fight. Most certainly Christian newspapers should not attack Christians on the word of non- Christians. The violation of the Law results in wars among our own Christian kind. The reason I travel and talk is to present the Law to those with ears to hear.

If your readers would like to read for themselves what I actually say about what the N.Y. Times refers to as the "super- secret-terrorist Phineas priesthood", who are actually Christendom's God-appointed guardians of Law and Order, they may purchase a copy of my book, Vigilantes of Christendom, the Story of the Phineas Priesthood, from the Virginia Publishing Company, P.O. Box 997, Lynchburg, Virginia 24505, 472p. hb, $18/copy. Sincerely, Richard Kelly Hoskins,

DAN GAYMAN AGAIN

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: I have a booklet in my hand by Dan Gayman. It is another of his attacks on your book Vigilantes Of Christendom" and he is sending it everywhere. G. W. - Kansas

ED: The Gayman booklet is a standard establishment attack containing standard establishment doctrine. One can substitute "taxes", "tariffs", or "immigration", in place of "law enforcement" or whatever, and it will read the same. Write Gayman for a copy so that you can study it. Note that by changing a few words and names one can use the format in any age against any subject or anyone displeasing to the king. Basically, it is the establishment's standard guidelines of why the establishment can veto anything they wish to veto and say that their god says so. This booklet promotes the present king's position loud and clear - which is:

* Obey the ruling king, his principalities, and his judges, and all those he has placed over you - or face the consequences.⁷

The answering argument is also always the same - which is:

"True. But this assumes that the king's rulers are Godly men." If they are unGodly then one must still love the Word which is God.⁸

⁷ (1) "Be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work." Titus 3:1. (2) "Obey them that have rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account." Heb 13:17

The above argument is now clearly defined. One claims one thing - the other something else. Both quote scripture. Who then is to be obeyed - (1) the king and his tax-exempt priests, or (2) God the Word who is believed by his followers to be KING OF KINGS? The followers of this King say that it hard to serve two masters. One will be hated and the other loved. One king remains only if allowed to do so by the other. If the most powerful king objects, then the weaker king will be banished. The "banishment" process really draws the line and gets his followers up-tight. All parties now know what is at stake. Today, Christians believe their KING OF KINGS has been banished by the king of DC.

Now, with the sides drawn, the arguments used follow the same ancient ritual almost word for word, ie., "Who will determine what 'God's will' actually is?"

The king of DC says that he and his priests will determine God's will. The counter argument is that ALL MEN are kings and priests and that God the Word is revealed in the scriptures and the scriptures alone. They believe that ALL MEN, as "priests and kings", will read, decide, and take responsibility for deciding correctly.⁹

Many believe that this is the basic substance of the disagreement between Gayman and Vigilantes, the story of 8 "We must obey God rather than men." Acts 5:29. "If ye love me obey my commandments. John 14:15. "This is love, that we walk after his commandments. 2 Jno 5,6. "We know him, if we keep his commandments. 1 Jno 2:3. "Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man." Eccles. 3:1. "Not everyone shall enter into the kingdom of heaven but he that doeth the will of my Father." Matt 7:21

9 (1) "Ye shall be named the Priests of the Lord." Isaiah 61:6. (2) "And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests." Ex 19:6. (3) "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father." Rev 1:5,6. (4) "Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood." 1 Peter 9 the Phineas Priesthood. Should one obey the king? the KING OF KINGS? - or can they obey both? The supporters of one king present their argument - then the other side responds. It is a very important discussion. Everyone knows the consequences. If the king of DC becomes angered - the followers of the KING OF KINGS will face prison or death. And of course, it follows that if the followers of the KING OF KINGS prevail - the punishments written in the scriptures will be the rule.¹⁰

Since Gayman's position will receive abundant media support, the following arguments presented in Vigilantes will again be noted:

- * What will the people do when they believe, rightly or wrongly according to one's own religious persuasion, that the rule of the KING OF KINGS has been set aside? What will they do after appealing to the current king's principalities and judges and have received no redress? It is a fair question.
- * John Knox appealed to both church and king. Where did he get the authority to defy both?
- * Capt. John Smith fought the murdering Indians after being refused authority to do so by both king and church. Where did he get the authority?
- * Nathaniel Bacon gave his life to fight the Indians who murdered his friends. He did this after his petitions to do so were refused by the king, the governor, the priests. Where did he get his authority?

¹⁰ "When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the spirit of the Lord shall raise up a standard against him." Isaiah 59:19. "The enemy is eager to destroy all that call upon the Lord. For he knoweth that upon the day that Israel shall repent, the kingdom of the enemy shall be brought to an end." Book of Dan 2:16-17.

- * The Sons of Liberty punished those obeying the Navigation Acts after their countless petitions to the king and his government were refused. Where did they get this authority?
- * The Concord militia fought the king's soldiers. Patrick Henry defied king, governor, and priests and spoke treason. George Washington took up the sword. Where did they get their authority?
- * The Covenanters refused to say "God save the king" and give glory and honor to a man when they thought that glory and honor belongs to the KING OF KINGS alone. Where did they get their authority?

What is going on today is nothing new. The very same things went on yesterday and the day before. The king says it is his divine god given right to permit whatever conditions he desires to permit. The people who follow the KING OF KINGS protest. Will tomorrow be different?

As for Mr. Gayman's booklet. He says that Phineas, law enforcement's patron saint, was specially commissioned for his task by God. It is true that Phineas was a king and priest. It is also true that the scriptures say that ALL obedient followers of Jesus Christ are kings and priests (Ex 19:6) and are chosen by God .¹¹

Gayman infers that there is something special about Phineas being descended from a special priesthood and that this gave him permission to uphold God's Law. The answer to this is - after the passing of 100 generations - all Christian men are now descended from the ancient Levitical priesthood of Israel by blood diffusion that is inherent in the concept of nation. All are spiritual priests and physical priests by blood descent.

11 "Ye have not chosen me but I have chosen you and ordained you." John 15:16

The key thing that demolishes the Gayman argument - that Phineas had gotten some special authority to uphold God's Law - is that Phineas was chosen and rewarded AFTER he upheld God's Law - not before. The priesthood named after him was formed after he PROVED himself - Not before. His OBEDIENCE was rewarded - not his TALK.¹²

Vigilantes merely tells the history of those, who in times of lawlessness, made the choice to obey the KING OF KINGS, by what they believed to be the obedience that their God desired. It presents a theory that will be proved or disproved by time - not talk - . It projects that men will do again what they have done before if lawlessness continues to threaten them and their land.

The author of Vigilantes makes two further predictions - both predictions based on past history. 1) The world hasn't heard the last of the Gayman arguments, and, 2) that men will first try to reconcile the demands of this king and his priests with the demands of the KING OF KINGS for as long as they can, and then they may choose to do what their fathers chose before. Men have difficulty serving two masters (Luke 6:13), although some try.

"Dear Dick: I was distressed to read how the press

¹² Note that the Israelis seldom appoint a leader head of state who has not proven his devotion by his acts.

attacked you - even printing your address in the paper. What have been the repercussions?" B. P. - Pennsylvania

ED: I have been inundated with telephone calls from well wishers. People stop me on the street, shake my hand, then launch into a tirade against the newspaper. I received one single negative comment - from my employer of 33 years.

As for my address in the paper - nothing has happened. If it does - neither Robert Woodrum who wrote the article, or Robert Wimer, the editor who refused to carry my letter of explanation, will be expected to claim responsibility. They didn't do anything wrong - it will be "the crazy" who did!

FARM RALLY 1985: Dear Mr. Hoskins: Your Dec. issue reminded me of witnessing your baptism of fire by the media at the Kearney Farm Rally, Nebraska, Jan 24, 1986, and giving it back to them on the 25th. You tell it like it is. Praise God for not backing down and giving a solution in the right manner." P. H. - Missouri

DUKE FALLOUT: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: My name was printed in the local paper because I gave $5 to the Duke campaign. Already I have received death threats." F. C. - New Jersey

MORE DUKE FALLOUT: Dear Dick: My best friend was fired from a bank because he gave to the Duke campaign and his name was printed in the newspaper." G. R. - Virginia

ED: Ask yourself - why do the papers, everywhere, together, for the first time, carry lists of donors to conservative causes? Why risk a White backlash for the sake of such small return? - firing small people from jobs - making them desperate - unless workers for a political revolution are being given an incentive - a backlash is being purposely created? Could a N.Y. jury's finding the alleged slayer of Rabbi Kahani innocent of murder be a harbinger? Kahani was a symbol, the radical- extremist founder of the Jewish Defense League. The personification of violence himself. Could this played down third page story be the signal that the century-long Black/Jewish alliance has ended? Have Blacks once again become too independent to be controlled by Wall Street and need to be put in their place? Does the establishment once again expect us to do it for them? If this is what all this means - it is a replay of an old theme. Read Vigilantes, starting p. 257. "There is nothing new under the sun. It has all been said or done before."

"Dear Dick: What do you think of the Bo Gritz candai-dacy for president?" H. R. - Nebraska

ED: Bo Gritz, Populist Party candidate for president, to expand voter appeal just announced that the "alternate life style is not his choice", but that he fought for the right of freedom of choice for all people which includes homosexuals. In essence, the king asked him to eat swine so that the people would do the same - and he did. Let the Word judge.

Christian leaders must be like Mattathias - willing to die for the Word which is God. They are not free to commit blasphemy to please the king or to win votes because they are the lesser of the two evils. If they follow another god - they should get NO support at all.

HIGH SCHOOL OPINION: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Our high school class has your last newsletter about the Lynchburg newspaper attack on your books on the bulletin board. We all agreed that the newspaper wasn't fair." A. L.

- Lynchburg

MEDIA ATTACK: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: No one has ever exposed the media the way you did in your book. It was your expose' of their complicity in starting wars that caused them to jump Vigilantes and you. They printed your address in hopes that some unstable kook might take it on himself to kill you, someone who can't be traced to them. They fear that when people discover that husbands and sons were and are killed by wars started by media lies and dis-information, the owners, editors, and reporters will find themselves in the trenches with everyone else. So far as I know your book is the first one to hold them accountable." D. S. - Mississippi

MORAL SUPPORT: "Dear Dad: In the background you hear a medley of 'Onward Christian Soldiers' and 'Dixie': 'Congratulations, Sir! Now you may take your place among the honored and hallowed few who have taken a stand for Christendom.' Sent with love and enormous moral support. Your favorite eldest daughter." E. G. - Virginia

GENTILE: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Who is a gentile?" V. D. - Virginia

ED: A gentile is what you are not. Japanese are gentiles to the Chinese. The Chinese are gentiles to the Japanese. We are gentiles to Jews. Blacks and Jews are gentiles to us. Paul was sent to the gentiles because that's where the dispersed Israelites were. You are not allowed to mingle with gentiles lest you learn their ways (Ps. 106:35-36).

Chapter 209

UNSAVORY IMPORT Bribes & Kickbacks

"BCCI, a unit of BCCI Holdings (Luxembourg) S.A. is 77% owned by the ruler and government of Abu Dhabi. ... because of alleged widespread fraud, it isn't clear to what extent these assets and liabilities are genuine." WSJ, p3, July 7, 1991

"The recent collapse of the Bank of Credit and Commerce International (BCCI) and the allegations of unsavory or illegal practices that followed can have repercussions throughout the economic fabric of the U.S. ...

"The practices of BCCI that are of questionable legality in the U.S. are traditional in many other nations, including those which are major buyers of products made or grown in the U.S. Nowhere is this more true than in the Orient and the Middle East ...

Business Ethics

"From the beginning of mercantile history, the Bak-sheesh - payment of a kickback - has been a customary part of every major transaction, including the transfer of money from one place to another. For centuries when they were colonial rulers of such nations as India, Burma and Persia, the British tried to stamp out these practices, but eventually just began looking the other way - because they had no choice if commerce was not to be interrupted.

"The French, Dutch and Portuguese also discovered this painful fact and reluctantly made the necessary adjustments in their ethics of doing business. This is why branches of leading banks in London, Paris or Lisbon were not found in any of the major colonial cities. An entirely different form of audit of the books was required in the colonies because of entries that would lead to criminal prosecution at home!

"... If a bribe or kickback is required to close a deal or if funds must be moved to a secure neutral location, that's only part of the game.

"Likewise, the buying of public officials through use of a bribe - the baksheesh - is a customary cost of doing business, a necessary form of insurance against interference or unwelcome scrutiny. ..." Harold E. Wills, Acres U.S.A. 10008 - 60th Terrace, Kansas City, MO 64133.

America's Dilemma

Foreign money has bought our Congress. Japanese business considers it a business expense to earmark funds to American public relations firms to make the increasingly visible Japanese presence more palatable.

After proper laundering, money also finds its way to Political Action Committees (PACs) which aid "deserving (read corrupt) politicians".

The face of America is being changed. Its political system is being bought and paid for. It is being used by alien powers to advance their own selfish interests. Foreigners now have quicker and more effective access to our political system than Americans do.

Strangers are alien to Christian Law. They do not recognize it. A verbal agreement sufficient for business in the West is better than a signed agreement under the jurisdiction of strangers. Observe the following:

INDIA: "The Supreme Court on Thursday withdrew criminal immunity granted to Union Carbide in the 1984 Bhopal gas leak that killed nearly 4,000 people. ... Union Carbide agreed with the government of Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi to pay damages totaling $470 million ... The settlement called for all criminal cases against the U.S. based multinational to be canceled ... Gandhi's successor, Prime Minister V.P. Singh, challenged the settlement and said Union Carbide should pay far more ..." Lynchburg News, A3, 10-4-91

The above news article states that the signed and sealed, hard and fast official agreement between Union Carbide and the government of India, to drop all charges against U.C. in exchange for $470 million, has been nullified by a stroke of an Indian pen.¹

¹ "Make no league with the inhabitants of this land." Judges 2:2 "Thou shall make no covenant with them." Deut 7:2. "If thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger thou art snared." Prov 6:1-2.

Again. Strangers do not recognize the ancient unbreakable Christian Laws. Their statutes are whatever their latest ruler says they are. The plants and Indian trade of Union Carbide are now ransom for the payment of as much as India can milk from the company. History shows that Western business ventures in lands of the stranger can be only temporary. In time, they must be abandoned or they will be devoured by the host company.

This is why Christians are enjoined not to put themselves under the jurisdiction of strangers. Most don't if they can help it. Even aliens feel safer when doing business where business agreements can be enforced by Christian Law and force. Witness Hong Kong under British rule. (But British rule is soon to terminate there.)

Indian strangers who are now flooding America are bringing their business ethics to this country. Japanese businessmen are corrupting our politicians. All of them are corrupting our clergy by offering them exposure in the media they control, and sometimes outright cash contributions in exchange for finding nothing wrong with the presence of an alien god in America.² American employees, forced to work for them to keep from starving, quickly learn that they are expected to approach with hat in hand. Unfavorable comment is equated with disloyalty. Disloyalty is punished by dismissal. Dismissal results in extreme hardships for one's family. Ask those who are forced to deal with them if you would learn.

2 "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is anti-christ." 1 John 2:9. "For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an anti-christ." 2 John 7

In time, we may expect the complete withdrawal of all business ventures from foreign lands, and a backlash of resentment against alien presence in the West.

Before this happens we may also expect a very large proportion of business in America to come to a standstill due to the un-enforceability of contracts with aliens.

AMERICANS KILL 1 MILLION

Germans Murdered After Surrender

It's official. It was on national TV Sunday night, May 19, 1991. Channel A&E. The establishment says in effect that we can believe it now. Shown were aerial 1945 fly-over movie clips of PW camps stretching for miles. Extensive close-up footage of starving soldiers. Vast cemeteries practically unmarked. Close-up shots of nice looking German boys that look just like our boys - starving to death.

No shelter from the rain, no buildings, no tents; mud; stories of no sanitary facilities - the stench; stories of hundreds of bodies dragged out to be collected every morning of those who died of starvation and exposure during the night. Little German kids in uniform - said by the announcer to be thirteen or fourteen - though they looked younger, faces pinched from starvation, slowly dying, bravely smiling; no water, no food, eating grass, dying in the mud - all this - AFTER THE WAR WAS OVER. It was on national TV.

Accessory To The Fact

The establishment media knew about it, they knew from the first. They were the ones who took the pictures and they are the ones who have been sitting on them for over 40 years - ever since 1945. They took the pictures of the American death camps at the very time they took pictures of the German leaders at the Nuremberg trials being lynched by a kangaroo court. It was all done in cold blood. The media knew. They knew. They recorded both events at the same time. The one they showed - the other they concealed.

If the media had shown this footage to the American people, the American people would have sent Eisenhower to the gallows along with a thousand Washington politicians - instead of into the White House. The people would have known that he was bad instead of good. We would have been spared his selection of another like himself - Chief Justice Earl Warren - and the Warren decrees, the decrees that have torn the country apart. We would have been spared a second invasion of the South by federal troops at Alabama and Little Rock. America's cities being turned into Black Republics, and schools nothing more than racist propaganda mills.

Concealing information of this sort is the same thing as giving out false information. It is the work of a false witness. A false witness does much harm. This is why the Christian religion has a law dealing with false witnesses.³

Making The Documentary

Staging the TV documentary was easy. All the media had to do was go to their bulging archives, slap together a

3 "If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him that which is wrong ... Then shall ye to unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother ... And those which remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you. And thine eye shall not pity; but life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot." Deut 19:16- 21

quickie with clips selected from tens of thousands of feet of film of on-the-spot footage of the actual event. Then, interview middle aged German soldiers who survived, and back this with the testimony of American soldiers who were guards and saw it all - and there you have the basics.

The media - to try to retain their credentials as an impartial judge, the media showed the pro and the con. The side they want believed was given first. Next - the rebuttal. The individuals denying the event were close to the ones actually responsible to the ones actually ordering the holocaust. If anyone knew, they must have. This meant that they could be implicated.

We are talking about wholesale murder. One could almost see the hangman's noose swinging in the background - waiting for the murderers of the innocent - those who knew of the mass murder and concealed it - concealed it for half a century. Their testimony wasn't convincing. They had that "caught" look. They were aware of the situation and that they might be the next subject of an inquiry.

The book that initially publicized this, Other Losses, has gone through six printings in Germany. The Germans know. The establishment now permits the Germans to discreetly mention "the incident", as long as the mention is accompanied by confession that "they too did the same thing."

The probable cause for the release was not discussed - that the atrocity precludes U.S. interests from cutting in on the E. German plum.

AIDS IN AFRICA: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Our lecturer just returned from Uganda. He said that AIDS has wiped out the age group 16 to 30. It has disappeared. There are 30-year-olds and older but the younger group is gone. Coffin making is a thriving business. He also said that witchcraft works better for Blacks than the modern Western penal code." H. B. - Virginia

BO GRITZ REPLIES: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I do not support the homosexual alternate lifestyle. I do not support 'gay rights', I do not support their so-called lifestyle being taught in our schools and I will not defend them in any manner except one. As President of the U.S. it is my chief responsibility to safeguard our Constitution. To me, the Constitution was divinely inspired and we must, as a nation, return to the Constitution. Homosexuals, as American citizens, are entitled to the same rights as any other American, not additional rights, but the same rights. What two consenting adults do in the privacy of their own home is none of the federal government's business. Many states have laws against sodomy and those laws should be enforced and the Supreme court should allow those laws to be enforced as a matter of states rights. Those are state matters, not federal matters. If a community is in favor of homosexual activity and supports it with its laws then that community will be judged by God but the federal government via the Constitution has no right to interfere." Bo Gritz, Box 472 HCR 31, Sandy Valley, NV 89019

ED: Well said. However, getting back to the original quotes; if you will fight to the death for their right to practice their lifestyle, because it is protected by the "divinely inspired Constitution", and God made a divinely inspired Law that stated that he will destroy the nation that practices this homosexuality - we've still got a problem. Tell us, upon assuming the office of president, how will you use the prestige and power of that office to quickly root the sodomites out of the fabric of the nation before God destroys it. Or, can you root them out and still fight to the death for their right to practice their lifestyle? Or, if two things are "sacred" - which is to be considered the most "sacred"?

Your letter adds that if one does not support Gritz he will be forced to support an evil such as Bush.

One time I interviewed Sen. John Warner for Virginia's Conservative Voters League. He was running for re-election. I questioned one of his stands. He told me that if I didn't support him - our only alternative would then be to support his opponent who was extremely liberal. I believed John Warner and encouraged the League to support him, and he was elected. He now consistently votes the liberal line. If we had withdrawn support in the beginning and allowed his opponent to be elected, his opponent would quickly have worn out his welcome.

The lesson: With God's Law - there is no such thing as "lesser of the two evils". Better a blood-soaked Joseph Stalin than a smiling Ian Smith or congenial DeKlerk who opens the door to the barbarians. Only fools commit to the uncommitted. To survive it must be the Word Of God, or nothing. Compromise means death. Prove your commitment - irreversibly alienate the enemy so that he will hate you to the death - and the Faithful will love you.

POLITICAL SUPPORT: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Who should we support politically?" - R. S. - Washington

ED: Let the candidate tell us. A political candidate need take just 3 simple stands. 1) Abolish usury. 2) Root sodomists from the land. 3) Outlaw racial interbreeding. Such a stand will burn the bridges - and will win God's approval and the devil's enmity. There's nothing difficult about it. Let's see if any of today's candidates will step forward to grasp God's banner. If he burns his bridges - go to work for him. I wouldn't raise a finger to help a politician who promises anything less. God has already promised to destroy us for what we are now allowing to be done in this land of his. Utter destruction is about all we can stand right now. We don't need somebody else adding to it.

AUSTRALIAN FOOD POLICY: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: The government has just passed a law to restrict what we can grow in our own backyards. If you intend to sell what you grow you can't grow it. We are even forbidden to collect rainwater to force us to buy it. By Dec 31, 1991 we will not be allowed to own semi- automatic rifles, and all guns must be licensed. They are now pushing a law that all cars over 7 years old are to be taken off the road. How much longer will we have to wait!" S. J. - Queensland, Australia

HOSKINS NOT IDENTITY: "Dear Dick: In your answer to the Daily Progress you stated that you weren't this thing they call 'Christian Identity. If you aren't - what are you? K. D. - Indiana

ED: I asked the Lynchburg's News reporter, Robert Woodrum, what he meant when he asked me if I were "identity". He replied: "Someone who believes that the White people are the master race who hates everyone else because they are inferior; that colored people are not human, who believes that the Jews are the children of Satan, and that there was no Holocaust." This was his definition of "identity".

That's when I told them that I wasn't one of those. I am a "Covenanter". Of course I believe that people of color are human - "hued-men". I don't believe that one race should rule another. And, about the Jews, I only believe what Jesus said about them. When he asked me what that was, I told him to look it up. I also believe in the Christian Holocaust. Tens of millions of Christians have been brutally murdered in the wars started by international finance. I really don't know anyone who fits the media's definition of "identity". When I told him I approved of Christian Zionism - he didn't want to hear it. It was all I could do to get in that Christian Zionists want the same things for themselves as the Jewish Zionists want for themselves. But, of course, without all the bloodshed and misery.

IMMIGRANTS AS ASSETS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: What economic purpose do millions of penniless immigrants serve?" G. O. - Kansas

ED: From 1865 to 1885, the establishment foreclosed much of America. Foreclosed former owners, saddled with crushing debt, were unable to borrow more. Penniless but debt-free immigrants were imported and financed to buy foreclosed property. A penniless, debt-free immigrant is more valuable than many former owners saddled with debt. "There's nothing new under the sun." See Vigilantes, "Reconstruction."

ABORTION CLINIC CLOSES: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: A few weeks ago a man entered an abortion clinic here with a shotgun and shot several clinic personnel. He then left. The doctor has since moved away and the abortion clinic has shut down permanently. I don't know if your local media carried the news." R. P. -Missouri

ED: It hasn't. Another letter writer reports that the porno-parlor in N.C. where the homosexuals were shot closed down and has not reopened. The marxist media hasn't reported that either.

 MEDIA PROTECTING CRIMINALS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Why doesn't the media print the race of criminals?" - M. W. - Virginia

ED: The occasional isolated incidents of violence against the establishment or its agents is blown all out of proportion to "guilt-trip" continued anti-Christian legislation - just like the 1870s. Establishment-approved violence, on the other hand, is suppressed.

Drumfire media reports of anti-black discrimination incites Blacks to kill Whites. Because of this there are Black groups that require a White to be killed or raped before they will accept a recruit. N.Y. is only one place having an epidemic of anti-White crime.

Strangers murder hundreds of Whites throughout the West every day. Reports giving their race is suppressed. This information alienate public opinion. The establishment's media uses impressionable street strangers as their whip to gain political and social objectives. Statistics showing White murders, when lumped into overall crime statistics become meaningless. Mention of this holocaust is suppressed. To the Mossad-controlled Maxwell media types, comprising thousands of papers, the ongoing anti-Christian holocaust is treated as a non- event. To them - we are just meat.

On the other hand, when a drunk with a KKK card in his pocket shot into an empty building one night - it was widely reported. The media called this event - "terrorism", "prejudice", "religious intolerance", "intimidation", "anti-Semitism", and "conspiracy". All this to describe an event in which there was no victim and no injuries.

Our people are killed wholesale every week, their blood washes the streets - the alien media is ordered not to see. A man shoots into an empty building and it is reported as almost being an international incident. The media are false witnesses. One day they will be called before courts of justice to account for their anti-Christianism.

BIBLE INTEGRATION? "Dear Mr. Hoskins: We know the many quotes against racial integration. Please explain this one. "Neither let the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the Lord, speak, saying, The Lord hath utterly separated me from his people ... Even unto them will I give in mine house and within my walls a place ... Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the Lord, to serve him, and to love the name of the Lord, to be his servants ... and take hold of my covenant." Isaiah 6:3-6. J. L. - Oregon

ED: This verse was used to justify keeping Black slaves on plantations - where they were "within my wall", as vs. the Bible verses demanding complete separation - separation such as freeing them and placing them in their own nation of Liberia in Africa - under White Christian protection.

The key to correctly dividing what is said above is to know what is meant by certain phrases such as: "Love the name of the Lord." "Love" is defined "If ye love me obey my commandments." John 14:15. The "name of the Lord" is defined: "His name is called The Word of God." Rev 19:13-14. The verse "take hold of my covenant" is a wrapper. It repeats the command - to obey the Law.

Thus, the stranger who "loves" (obeys) the (Word of God) "name", is acceptable within the limitations of rest of the statement - "a special place". There, he is to be protected and allowed to enjoy the fruits of Law obedience, and there he will still love "obey" the Law prohibiting integration found throughout the rest of the scriptures - because the Word is God. John 1:1, John 1:14.

It is simple to determine if converted mulattos, Hispanics, Arabs, Jews, and other mixed race peoples really LOVE the Word which is Christ. They will obey the Word and not try to enter since the scriptures say: "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord." De 23:2. If they are just pretending to obey - they will try to enter. The margin note written by the reformers in Geneva Bible 1599 states; "This was to cause them (Christians) to live chastely, that their posterity might not be rejected."

A stranger demanding integration in the name of God is a false witness heralding death and destruction. God has always destroyed Israelite nations that integrated with strangers - as he promised he would. The list is long - India, Egypt, Babylon, Persia, Greece, Rome, Mexico, Carthage, and recently Constantinople, Portugal, most of the White nations in Africa, most of S. America, Haiti, Mexico & Central America, Rhodesia, S. W. Africa, Mozambique, and most recently - Russia. The faithful and fearful of Israel remember:

"Thou has forsaken thy people ... because they ... please themselves in the children of strangers." Isaiah 2:6. "Receive a stranger into thine house ... and will turn thee out of thine own." Ecclesiasticus II, 11:34. (Apocrypha), "There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers (Heb: "zûwr" - racial alien)." Jer 2:25. "I am not come to bring peace but a sword." Matthew 10:34. "If ye be ... obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: But if ye refuse ... ye shall be devoured with the sword." Is 1:19,20

Practically, strangers find it almost impossible to obey the Law over an extended period because of millennia of breeding their lawless with their lawless. When God's Law is universally enforced, strangers quickly remove themselves from its reaches - or suffer its punishments. If God's Law is not enforced, they take over and destroy. One way or the other - never both.

RUSSIA TODAY: "Dear Dick: Just returned from Russia. People talk openly now and the papers are very critical of the Soviet system. They were shocked to learn that there were more people in prison in the US than the USSR and that the US holds political prisoners." W. J. - Louisiana

SHARPSBURG BATTLEFIELD: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I was with your tour group this summer that toured the Sharpsburg battlefield. Did you say that most of the Confederate dead were not buried until 15 years after the war?" A. G. - Montana

ED: When the stench from the unburied dead got so bad it became a health menace - a thin layer of dirt was thrown over them. The next summer the farmers plowed them up planting crops. The next several years were spent collecting exposed bones and throwing them on the edge of the fields. Sharpsburg fields were ringed in white. Years after the war Virginia was allowed to crate up boxloads of these bones and take them home. The last bones weren't buried until 15 years after the war. The same thing happened at Gettysburg and other battlefields left in possession of Union forces. Union soldiers weren't responsible. They got on well with Johnny Reb. It was government policy. Those who rule the U.S. government hated us then - they hate us now. There are those who would celebrate to see our people all over the country - dead.

Chapter 210

WAR OF THE GODS

Separation - 20th Century Imperium

The gods are angry and no longer wish to share their people with other gods. Christian scriptures teach that in the last days the following will happen:

"They will each turn to his own people, and each one will flee to his own land. Anyone who is found will be thrust through, and anyone who is captured will fall by the sword. Their little ones will also be dashed to pieces." Isaiah 13:14-16

After WWII India ejected the Christian God and his peoples. Then, the seething masses of Hindus and Moslems launched a holocaust against each other, killing millions. India was divided - Muslim and the Hindu. Pakistan was born - ruled by Allah, and India - ruled by the Hindu gods.

We hear much of the Vietnamese boat people. The media conceal the fact that practically all are Chinese, settled in Vietnam centuries ago, who are now fleeing for their lives. Vietnam is separating.

Much of 5th century China was Christianized. Confucianism and other Chinese gods united and drove it away - killing the survivors. Christianity was strong in Japan in the 14th century. The Shinto god exterminated it. A nation's god does not willingly share his people with other gods.

In 1912, a few Westerners of Spanish descent living in Mexico fled to America. The rest were exterminated by dusky machete- wielding followers of the reincarnated Huitzilopochtli - the bloody Aztec god of war.¹ The Mexican god posing as "Christ", had been Huitzilopochtli all along disguised in a Christian mask. He now rules from Mexican churches and government offices. Westerners running afoul of Mexican law are not confronted with the Law of Christ - they are confronted with the law of Huitzilopochtli, suitably toned down to prevent intervention by irate foreign nations.

An alien god lurking beneath the surface of an otherwise Christian nation made his presence known in Russia in 1917. He allied himself with the ancient Slavic gods² to exterminate the followers of the Christian God. While shedding the blood of their ancient Western rulers, they also shed the "Christian" label. Their old gods felt comfortable with a new name and a new ritual - "communism". Today, the 1 Some of the bodies lying in the streets were dismembered Aztec style.

2 The many Slavic gods had been combined into one god and renamed "Christian" by the "Orthodox Church".

name "communism" has been shed, and the Slavic gods are considering re-adopting the name "Christian" - but "a horse by any other name is still a horse."

Following WWII, the Slav forced Westerners to flee from most of Poland, Rumania, Yugoslavia and the entire Slavic eastern Europe. In the Balkans the slav gods are now making their people separate from the peoples of Allah - the Mohammedan god.

In Egypt, Algeria, and the rest of North Africa, areas long settled by Western peoples, Allah has flexed his muscles. Western Christians fled to Europe. The few remaining are proscribed by Islamic law. Most cannot vote or own land.

In Black Africa Westerners have fled or have been exterminated. S. Africa is now separating into Christian and non-Christian. Even the Black nations within Black Africa are sub-dividing themselves, each with its own ancient gods, each with god having different laws. Law incompatible with those of other Black gods.

Christ The Word - the Western God, is shunned. Preachers tell us that in Korea he flourishes. But, missionary boards neglect to say that this Christ has been combined with Buddha, Confucianism, and Taoism and the new religion called "Christianity" has slanted eyes. Only the terminology and ritual can be recognized as Western.

The Zionist God

Like the other gods, the Jewish god,³ is unacceptable and his people proscribed. Scattered, they selected the Arab land, Palestine, for a homeland⁴ and place of refuge. The conflict between the Jewish "En Soph" and the Arab's "Allah" rages.

The leaders of this Jewish ingathering call themselves "Zionists". They consider themselves to be shepherds of World Jewry. They are armed and can defend themselves and the Jews under their command with tanks, planes, missiles, and hydrogen bombs. They have at their disposal the most powerful mercenary armies in the world. They are proof against any enemy on earth. To them, this is necessary for survival. They depend on no one except themselves.

The slavish gods of Russia, who first allied with the "En Soph" to destroy the Christian God, have now predictably turned on their former ally as they turn on all strangers. The Jewish god of the Babylonian Talmud is hated. His ways and his teachings are despised. Jews are fleeing to refuge - leaving ruins behind. The ruins are blamed on them.

The same is true in the vast domains of Allah. Few remain where once many lived. The Arabs feel that the Jews have abused the hospitality extended them and they are no longer welcome. Few remain in Slavic Poland. Few remain in

3 The essence of the Jewish god is the "En Soph" - the unknowable. Not based on Law - as is Christianity - Talmudic Judaism is forever being changed by their Rabbis and is thus adaptable - and unknowable. Thus, the Jews, when referring to Judaism mean the Jewish people themselves in their entirety.

4 "With every opportunity - cry ever more loudly: Jews, go home! ... when the dam bursts and the Western flood sweeps wildly over the nations, no one will save you. In the end, only Aliyah, only the haven of a Jewish homeland." Meir Kahn Meir Kahn Speaks, Feb, 1983.

Christian Germany. Japan, which once banished Christianity, is now in the process of attacking the Talmudic control of their finances. A flood of Japanese books attack what the Japanese god considers the evils perpetuated by the Jewish god.

The scattered Jews of the world living among alien peoples see the trend of the times. Their leaders have taken a land to receive the unwanted. They have prepared for what is happening. The handwriting is on the wall. Their rear guard Zionist defenders present a militant posture to those they consider potential enemies, but it is nothing more than that - an active rear guard action. "Separation" is the 20th century Imperium. Gods are at work. Scripture is being fulfilled. It is happening as prophesied. The gods are calling their people home - and they are fleeing to the protection of their own kind everywhere in the world.

Phineas Priesthood of Christendom

Christendom points to its leaders and defenders with pride - Jesus Christ, King Arthur, Sir William Wallace, Richard the Lion Hearted, John Knox, Captain John Smith, George Washington, Andy Jackson, and Robert E. Lee. All fill the Phineas role model as protector, leader, and example for Christendom. All followed the Word. All followed the Christian Law.

Other Gods Protect Their People

Other nations elect their hero types - "Father" Stalin ruled the Slavs. Begin ruled the Israelis.

Begin

Begin - a Zionist-type copy of a Christian Phineas is an interesting study. The Encyclopaedia Britannica states:

"Begin, Menachem, (Wolfovitch) b. Aug 16, 1913, Brest-Litovsk, Russia, ... Zionist leader and prime minister of Israel (1977-). ... law degree ... U. of Warsaw 1935. Active in the Zionist movement ... went to Palestine in 1942. Begin joined the militant Irgun Zvai Leumi and was a commander of that group from 1943 to 1948. ... Begin joined the National Unity government ... the Likud Party won ... and ... Begin formed a government as prime minister."

Begin's more outstanding terrorist accomplishments are listed as follows:

1946, April 25: Assassinated several sleeping British soldiers in a military car-park in Tel Aviv. July 22: The King David Hotel dynamited: 91 nurses, soldiers, and Arab civilian employees killed; more than 100 maimed or seriously injured; many crippled and blinded. Dec. 1946: Kidnaped and tortured three British soldiers. 1947: March 1: Plants bomb in office of the officers club in Jerusalem killing 10. April 18: Bombed Field Dressing Station, killing 1. April 20: Bombed Red Cross convalescent hospital. July 12: Kidnaped and torture-murdered by slow strangulation with wire, two sergeants, Mervyn Paice and Clifford Martin, both 19; he then boobytrapped the bodies. 1948, February: murdered three wounded police officers in their hospital beds in Jerusalem. April 10, 1948: The Deir Yassin Massacres. Begin organizes raid on Arab village of Deir Yassin; murdered 254 peaceful, unarmed villagers as a deliberate act aimed at driving Palestine Arabs out of their homeland. The victims included 25 pregnant women with their bellies ripped open, 52 mothers with young children, and sixty other women and girls. The Red Cross found the bodies of 150 women and children stuffed down a well.

In 1946 the Palestine Police Force offered $45,000 reward for Begin - DEAD OR ALIVE!

Ariel Sharon, also 'earned his spurs' for brutality as a terrorist when he 'was responsible for the October, 1953 massacre of 66 Palestinians in the attack by Israel's notorious Unit 101 on the border village of Kibya. (TCM, Jan 1983).

The vast majority of American Jews have absolutely no sympathy with such goings-on. They are safely, profitably, and peacefully ensconced in their host country. They don't like Zionist "crazys" rocking the boat. It is no wonder that so many of them are taking active stances to distance themselves from the Zionist role model.

On the other hand, radical Zionists, whose declared purpose is the "ingathering of Jewry", whether they like it or not, do all they can to turn the host nation against the quiet Jewish residents. By Way Of Deception the book written by the first Mossad agent ever to defect, reveals that the Mossad is helping to arm Jewish communities throughout the West. He describes it as a "win-win" situation. Local Jews can defend themselves if necessary in case of being attacked, or, if the arming is discovered and enrages the host nation - the surviving Jews will be deported to Palestine. And, that is the objective of Zionism in the first place.

The hotheaded radicals copy their hero, Begin, and Zionism becomes ever more militant to force Jewish people to ingather to Palestine. Articles pointing this out sometimes slip under the paper curtain.⁵

The Tulsa Tribune's - Thody Priesthood

A front page article from The Tulsa Tribune, dated 1-28-92 was sent in by a reader. The article headlined: "Robberies tied to supremacists - 'Priesthood' leader due sentencing today." It continued,

"A little-known white supremacist group is bankrolling a war against the U.S. government ... Thody said he adopted the Priesthood name after he read Richard Kelley Hoskins' 1990 book 'Vigilantes' ... He predicted ... the group would commit more bank robberies ... kidnappings and assassinations as part of its assault on conspirators - '90% Jewish' ... Thody said his concepts of war and the Priesthood were seeded well before he discovered Hoskins' book. ... Thody said his imprisonment has had no effect on the Priesthood's activities ..."

The above describes the Zionist-type organization of Begin rather than the Christian Phineas Priesthood of George Washington.⁵

The Thody statement states:

1) He is leading a war against the U.S. government. This brings forth the charge of sedition. If believed, it will bring down the wrath of government.

2) That his alleged "nationwide" organization planned (a) to kidnap and murder conspirators whom he identifies as being 90% Jewish.⁶ This statement of intended kidnappings and murders presents an ever present threat that will justify long-time surveillance of what will be called "hate-groups". (c) His threats will undoubtedly be used as justification for Zionist-written state and national "anti-hate laws", (d) And, his threats present sufficient reason for extremist Zionist groups to once again destabilize and frighten ordinary Jews so they can be hit for substantial contributions. The contribution part is how so many of these organizations became wealthy and their leaders multimillionaires - which by itself is reason to generate never-ending strife between Jews and their host nation.

2) That he alleges that his parents are Christian ministers. This should help instill the false idea that Thody's "Priesthood" is "Christian" and not a copy of a Begin-type terrorist group.

3) That he shares common views with the KKK. This smears the "Priesthood" with KKK comparison.

4) That he apparently is not aware that his statements would be used by a pro-Zionist media to compare the Thody kidnapping-assassination group (if such actually exists) with the Christian Phineas Priesthood depicted in Hoskins' Vigi-

6 The Christian God called the Assyrian king "His servant". He directed "First cast out the beam that is in thine own eye." Matt 7:5, then, Go ye ... and smite ... and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men (elders) which were before the house." Ezek 9:1-6. Christians believe that their tormentors are God's "Assyrians" - His servants. God Himself is leading them against his own people. Christians are ordered "... begin at my sanctuary." The problem is an internal problem - unlawful Christians - not the alien. The wolf is not blamed for being a wolf. The worthless watchman is blamed. He is the enemy.

lantes - a comparison that puts the Christian God on trial.⁷

Other Unbelievable Aspects

Other suspicious items are: (1) Thody, one of thousands of bankrobbers in the country, gave up a short prison stay with parole, for a lifetime in prison. He confessed to things not necessary. Does one injure himself without obtaining something in return? (2) The media kept Thody's operation "top-secret" from the nation's public for a long time. Why? (3) The government sources contacted by the N.Y. Times had no knowledge of such a Phineas Priesthood. Why not?

The Robert Maxwell Syndrome

The Robert Maxwell syndrome may help explain part of the mystery. Robert Maxwell was the owner/manager of an enormous worldwide chain of newspapers and related media. It was extremely biased in favor of Zionist causes. The bias was explained when it was recently discovered that Maxwell was an assumed name and that he was an agent of the Mossad - Israeli secret service.⁸

Is this same thing going on in America? Are events concealed behind a Maxwell-type paper screen, and viewed 7 Not even the Crusader heroes of yesteryear were bold, brash, and irreverent enough to add "Phineas" to the names of their battle-proven organizations. The protective neighborhood watches in the lawless post-war South didn't either. They were "no-name" organizations. Thody named his - The "Phineas Priesthood". This couldn't have been done to help the cause of which he alleged he championed. Why was it done then?

8 Maxwell was given a state funeral by the Israeli government as a reward for services rendered. He was buried there, and his funeral was attended by all the high Israeli government officials.

through the glasses of a foreign secret service? Has America caught the "Maxwell Plague"? Is it possible that the newspapers that report the same news, misspell the same words, have the same columns by the same extremist writers, all supporting the same policies, all with the same politics - are directed by the same source? - a Maxwell type source? If so, it means that a foreign someone is playing with America's mind - putting alien thoughts in its collective head, giving it politicians to vote for, recommending projects to undertake. This networking might explain how a picture of Hoskins in overcoat and hat, taken in a freezing steel barn at the Kansas Farm Rally in 1985, found its way easily into a "Hoskins bashing" article by the CDR in Atlanta in 1992.

"Kelley" - Zionist finger?

The reader may find the next item interesting. Hoskins middle name is "Kelly". It is always spelled Kelly - except when the "Center for Democratic Renewal" in Atlanta, Leonard Zeskind, research director, is quoted. In their never ending hunt for a bogeyman to frighten other Jews with, they often get the cart before the horse, so it might be expected that their articles would misspell it "Kelley". Kelly was never misspelled before - only in CDR releases. If an article about the Phineas priesthood spells it "Kelley" - chances are you are reading the "official opinion" from a CDR release.

Most mainstream American media admit up front that their description of the Christian Phineas Priesthood was not obtained from Christian sources, but a pro-Zionist source. They even name the source - the CDR. The CDR is a pro-Zionist organization which delights in attacking Christians.

Christian media, which are truly Christian, would not carry Zionist propaganda. It would carry Christian truth. If a newspaper insisted on carrying Zionist propaganda - would it not open itself to the charge of promoting alien propaganda? - much like the Maxwell media? The CDR Phineas description is very strident. One might say that it is so strident that it resembles Begin and Sharon more than the gentle Phineas role model presented by George Washington. If you were a Jew, and you were told that a Begin type organization confessed to murders, assassinations, and kidnappings was after you - would you worry? You bet you would! It might put you in the frame of mind to kick in big money to stop it.

Conclusion

The imperium of the 20th century is separation. The gods of the world are separating their peoples. The process is filled with conflict, accusations, misinformation and disinformation. Entire populations are being moved. That which is right with one god - is wrong to another. Peace will come when the gods banish the last rebel. Gods require obedience from their people. It is the White God and the Black ones that now direct the separation of their peoples living in the American cities - the separation that makes Black Republics and White countryside.

Each god has a Phineas type to enforce his will. The Black has his, the Hispanic - his, the Jew - his, and the Christian - his.

The Heroes of Christendom are its role models - its Phineas Priests. Zionism's heroes lead their state. They are awkward copies of the Christian Phineas. What they are is revealed by what they do. The god of the "Thody-Priesthood" is revealed by what they say their objectives are.

The imperium of the 20th century is separation.

The nations of the world do as they are told or "Desert Shield" gunships arrive to make them.

AGAINST CHRISTIAN LAW: The average time in prison for convicted U.S. murderers is 2.3 years; rapists 80.5 days; robbers 27 days; burglars 5.4 days. Hate crime, civil-rights violations, and gun control can produce penalties 5 to 10 years." American Way Features

Chapter 211

ZEUS - GOD OF GODS

Rome conquered many lands. Most conquered lands had their own god. Each god had laws for their people to live by.

Rome wished to win the good will of each nation they incorporated into the empire, so a great display was made of accepting their god into the ranks of existing Roman gods - as an equal. A new temple was built for each in Rome. Rome had many temples and many gods - all were treated as equal.¹

1 GOD: "In the specific Christian and monotheistic sense; the One object of supreme adoration; the creator and ruler of the universe." Oxford Eng. Dict., Vol I, Oxford Univ., 1971. POLYTHEISM: "Belonging to many gods. Belief in, or worship of, many gods (or more than one God)." Oxford Eng. Dict., Vol II, Oxford Univ., 1971

The Newly Conquered God

Upon the completion of the conquest of Palestine by the Roman army in 87 A.D., a great victory parade was held in Rome. The parade was many months in preparation. There were countless floats carrying miniature re-enactments of the sieges and battles that had occurred in the recent war. Tiny figures stormed walls that were exact duplications of the real event. Witnesses to the actual events were interviewed and the scenes were made as accurate as could be fashioned by the most expert craftsmen of the day. The displays were later placed in the temple built for the new god.

Marching along with the floats were hundreds of the finest specimens of the conquered warriors so that Romans could see for themselves the enemy their heroic soldiers had been fighting. Also paraded was loot gained in the fighting - gold, silver, and precious works of art. And:

*"At the last of all the spoils, was carried the Law of the Jews (Judeans). ... After these triumphs were over ... Vespasian resolved to build a temple he also laid up therein, as ensigns of his glory, those golden vessels and instruments that were taken out of the Jewish temple. But still he gave order that they should lay up their law ... in the royal palace itself."*²

The Romans believed that the most important capture of the entire campaign was the Law of Israel , naturally, it represented their God.

2 Josephus, Wars of the Jews: 7:5:5-7

Polytheism's Solution

Rome's religious system was designed to cope with the introduction of new gods. Each newly conquered god demanded obedience to its laws. This could not always be allowed. Many times the laws of one god violated the laws of another god. Chaos resulted if opposing laws were enforced - all at the same time.

The Greeks, confronted with squabbling gods, had Zeus³ to referee. "Jupiter" was the Roman Zeus. The Roman emperor was his representative on earth. He saw to it that each god received his fair share of justice - but no more. The gods were treated as fairly and equally as possibly under the circumstances. It wasn't a perfect arrangement - but with the help of Roman swords and lions - it worked.⁴

The Old Priests

The priests who served the old gods learned quickly. To insist on obedience to their old god was something that could put them at odds with the Roman emperor. That could be dangerous. They could be ridiculed, fined, imprisoned, maimed, crucified, assassinated, or fed to the lions. Disobedience could be serious.

To avoid unpleasantness, most priests like the Egyptian priest of Isis, quietly became "Zeus-priests"⁵ - avid supporters of the Emperor. The Emperor's most recent iconoclastic decision was eagerly acclaimed and immediately incorporated into their religious rituals. Retaining the name, robes, and terminology of their old gods, they discarded his laws and the spirit of the old god disappeared from their sermons. Instead they taught the Zeus-creed of "OPPA".⁶

3 ZEUS: The referee of gods - therefore, the chief god.

4 ZEUS ENFORCER: One who enforces Zeus-law.

5 ZEUS-PRIEST: In polytheism, any priest who accepts the ruling of Zeus which overrides the laws of the god he has proclaimed to represent.

The priests of Rome found no evil in the land to condemn for which the Emperor could be held responsible. When the Emperor ruled that child murder was acceptable (exposure of newborn girls to the elements to die - or given to the dogs to be eaten) - the priests agreed that it was all right. It had not been all right before - but it was all right after the Emperor said it was all right.

The Emperor did many other things that were formerly "unlawful". He decreed mutilation punishment; he decreed unbearable tax levels; he approved monopolies; he approved land confiscation; he approved the killing of hundreds at circuses at the Coliseum. When the circuses killed disobedient priests - the surviving priests found nothing wrong with that either. Rome's priests found the Emperor innocent of every evil visible anywhere in the empire. There was no evil to condemn - except the relatively insignificant transgressions committed by ordinary people in everyday life.

When the Emperor made his horse a god - they agreed that that too was a very wise thing to do and they incorporated worshiping the Emperor's horse into their dogma and worshiped it along with their own god.

These gelded creatures - these Zeus-priests - became 6 OPPIA: O - obey the laws. P - pay your taxes. P - pay your tithe. A - attend service every time the doors open. The strict Isis temples also forbade smoking, drinking, dancing, and carrying on with temple whores - a religious ritual with certain of the other gods.

useless to their parishioners. Isis and the other gods they represented were helpless and hopeless. The individual gods, bearing different names, became nothing more than a mirror image of the great Zeus man-god in Rome - the Emperor.

Congregations quietly drifted away. The gods of Rome gradually fell into disrespect and the temples gradually emptied - just like the "tall steeple few people" churches of America. Tourists to Rome noted that many great and marvelous, but empty temples, were covered with graffiti. Even the state scorned the useless priests as "has-beens", and in time they were forced to seek employment elsewhere in order to eat. They had stood by and allowed their old god to die. He was dead. His temple stood vacant as a monument to the fact. Zeus, the god-of-gods, had refereed the gods' disputes, ruled over them, and had taken their place. Zeus' representative on earth - the Roman emperor - now spoke for all the gods. He was god on earth.

The Christian God

The new god who had just been added - the Word - the God of Israel whose capture had been so prized by the Romans, caused problems from the first. He was the Word - he was the laws that he demanded his followers to obey. These laws were set in Roman concrete - they couldn't be changed by Zeus-court decree. This God demanded exclusive and absolute obedience from his people. He promised wonderful gifts to the obedient - and promised to kill them if they disobeyed. This was a nasty sort of choice. There was already Zeus in the background demanding the same thing - obedience to his ever-changing decrees - or death!

If the Emperor allowed the Christian God freedom to rule his people - it meant that other gods of Rome would demand freedom to rule their peoples. Then, the gods would once more be all powerful over their peoples and Zeus would be no longer needed to referee between them. He would have no reason for existence. He would become just another legend for the Roman history books. Even the world renowned Olympic games in his honor would cease.

Further, if all the gods ruled their people free from interference from other gods - it would require separation. Separation required separate living space for each group so that they could practice their own rituals and customs - the opposite of EMPIRE togetherness.⁷

Christians who loved (obeyed) their God - the WORD - and treated him as all powerful and above all other gods were naturally looked upon as traitors to the Roman Zeus. To protect himself the Emperor was forced to seize "the obedient" and feed them to the lions - for blasphemy against himself. Obedience to the Word Made Flesh resulted in disobedience to Zeus. The Romans complained:

"Our gods are common to all men, and yours ... belong to nobody else but yourselves." Antiquities: 4:6:8.

The Christians replied:

"There are many nations ... all are his, and over all has he appointed spirits to rule ... but over Israel ... he alone is their ruler." Jubilees 15:23⁸

⁷ Once the gods of a Roman type empire - USSR, Yugoslav, Chinese, or U.S. - reject "Zeus-rule", the empire fragments into its component parts - each part ruled by the laws of its own god.

⁸ "We must obey God rather than men." Acts 5:29

Zeus - America's Referee

America was founded by Christian people. Christians revered their God - the Word Made Flesh dwelt among them and directed their actions. The Word required that rapists and murderers be put to death. It was the Law and so they were. Sodomites were anathema - they were banned. Interracial marriage was forbidden - it was not tolerated. America's God of Israel repaid His people by favoring them and the land, and it flourished.

Then, evil men introduced other gods. Each god brought his laws. One of these evil laws was the forbidden "usury contract".⁹ The evil ones spent much gold to get important men to say it was all right. When challenged they took the dispute between their god's law and the Law of the Christian God to a Zeus-court. Zeus ruled that that the Christian Law was unlawful and that usury was lawful. This was now the legal Zeus-law of the land.

This done, the priests who followed Zeus instead of God the Word, immediately agreed that it was all right because Zeus said it was all right. In this way America was soon conquered and its Christian people brought into slavery.¹⁰

After conquering America, usury moved to other lands and used the same usury-contract to conquer them and their peoples. Each conquered land had its own god. Each god was recognized by Rome. They each demanded obedience

9 "Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon him." Ezek 18:13. "Unto a stranger thou mayest lend upon usury; but unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury." Deu 23:20 to their own laws. Most of their laws clashed with the Word of the Christians.

10 See War Cycles/Peace Cycles, the Biblical story of Usury. Virginia Pub. Co., P.O. Box 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505, $28/copy - and what happens when the Law is disobeyed.

Conflicts between the gods began to rage. The decisions of Zeus were desperately needed to maintain order. He judged these conflicts. His Zeus-judges wore black. Petitioners quietly stood with bared heads when they entered - something even Christian priests did not require. Zeus-judges were called "your honor". Disrespect of them or their Zeus-law was called "contempt" - and severely punished.

Zeus-police stood ready to enforce Zeus-law and were paid with Zeus-taxes. Zeus-priests blessed Zeus-judgments and added them to the commandments contained in the Word.¹¹

"Toleration" of Evil

Some Zeus-priests suffered condemnation by Christians who never ceased to remind them that they were violating Christian Law. It was an embarrassment. The scriptures said not to do a certain thing and they were doing the thing expressly forbidden. They defended themselves by quoting scripture out of context, and when that didn't work they said that the Word was done away, that the Word was something that one need no longer obey.

Then, having done away with the Law that condemned them, they were free to keep Zeus happy. To further justify themselves they again delved into the scriptures and located the "tolerance" that one Christian is commanded to show

another and applied it to unlawful laws.¹²

Many Christians, seeing the teachings of these zeus-priests as a way out of a dilemma, converted to Zeus-Christianity,¹³ as other religions had done. In this way Zeus-Christianity joined "Zeus- Judaism" with lip service claiming to worship "one god" - but actually giving obedience to Zeus - the ruler of gods. They saw God's promise to destroy them as being distant, and the terrible might of Olympus as something near, very visible, and immediately threatening.

Zeus, the arbiter of gods, decreed solutions unlawful according to the WORD. Zeus-law decrees that rapists and murderers may no longer be executed. Murderers serve 2.3 years, rapists 80.5 days, robbers 27 days, and burglars 5.4 days. The Christian God is treated as impotent. He is now less than the rest of the other gods who heap contempt and derision upon him.

Zeus Orders Open Borders

Zeus has un-barred the gates to hordes of other aliens and their gods. Aware Christians say that the anti- Christ¹⁴ planned for the West to be a melting-pot - a cauldron of 12 "Sin is the transgression of the law." 1 John 3:4, "He that committeth sin is of the Devil." 1 John 3:8. Vigilantes Of Christendom, page 176 relates the dispute with the English king who favored Black slavery. VPC, P.O. Box 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505, $18/copy.

13 ZEUS-CHRISTIANITY: Similar to today's "Judeo- Christianity", a recent media-created religion in which the Christian god, the WORD which is God, is given to those who deny Christ, to be their possession. Thus, the Christian God is given away - or - "The Law is done away" (See Censored Bible Teachings, (phamplet), P.O. Box 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505, 100/$10.

14 "For many ... confess not that Jesus Christ (The Word) is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an anti- Christ." 2 John 7 trouble. A planned disorder so the West will have many warring peoples and many warring gods and that Zeus will be required forever as a referee to keep a semblance of peace.

In this maelstrom of "toleration" - none is happy.

Zeus Planned Chaos

There is chaos in the land. The reason:

1) Integration - Many gods and their peoples forcibly integrated and forced to live in the closest proximity. The result:

2) Chaos - The gods and their peoples fight for living space - space in which the rights of their people and their god are protected from other peoples and their gods.

Integration is an irritant. It causes riots, revolutions, wars, and chaos. Those most offended become the most violent. "Integration", the thing used to cause dissension, is proclaimed by Zeus to be the "ideal" that will restore the peace banished by this same integration. In the meantime:

"A Man-God referee is needed to enforce Roman peace - to keep people made hostile from killing each other" -
 "Someone" must referee the world's integrated and now warring gods and their peoples.

Zeus, the god of gods sits firmly in the judgment seat. He has released the rest of the ancient gods from bondage and they now prowl the land. Hercules directs his thunderbolt when commanded against hapless lands and innocent peoples, and from under the sea "Poseiden" lurks. "Eros" exposes her bottom for all to see, and Mercury races to and fro mouthing disinformation. "Cupid" and "Apollo" meet with Bacchus and Pan in the very halls of Olympus. "Pan", especially is the new darling - with his pipes, hooves, horns and "rough sex".

The only law is the law of Zeus - it goes to the highest bidder and can be and is adjusted to suit any need whenever necessary. Ten thousand new statutes are issued each year - adding to the thousands passed last year - each adds fuel to the chaos. The law is what Zeus's latest interpretation says the law is, and that will be soon changed to cope with the next crisis.

Suffering Gods - Suffering Peoples

The wishes of the gods are never fully granted. None are happy with Zeus' decisions. All feel oppressed.

The African god¹⁵ demands that his people receive freedom from punishment when his children infringe the laws of other gods. Black peoples are ignored and suffer perhaps more than the rest. Zeus fills his prisons with them for offenses that their own god considers trivial. Black Voodoo¹⁶ demands blood sacrifice. Voodoo witch doctors and their kindred sects are forbidden to ritually sacrifice a rooster, but the Jew is given freedom to Kosher-kill live animals and slowly bleed them to death. Zeus allows the one and forbids the other - both at the same time.

15 The Black god has many names. Often, under a "Christian", "Mohammedan", or "Jewish" veneer he still controls his people through ancient customs and rituals unknown to outsiders. Generally, strong Black rulers have the support of, or are themselves, "holy men".

16 "The name given to certain magical practices, superstitions, and secret rites prevalent among the negroes of the W. Indies, notably in the republic of Haiti ... obscene rites involving the use of human blood, preferably that of a white child, were considered features of this religion." Voodoo E/B 14th Ed Vol 23, p254.

17 The ancient god of the American Indians, encountered by early Christian colonists, was a fearsome god who required pain to eat.

But, the Jewish god¹⁸ suffers differently because his people are unruly and scattered. This god requires that murderers be treated humanely.¹⁹ The Word of the Christians demands strict punishment²⁰ AND, promises to severely punish those who fail to carry out His commands.²¹ Selecting the Jewish law would please them, but would condemn Christians to death at the hand of their own God.

The American Indian needs the drug "piote" to worship his god.²² Zeus first denied, now approves its use for them, while denying it others who claim to need it. Thus, Zeus again denies it to one and approves it for others of his different subjects - both at the same time.

The gods of the Orient suffer - the Hindu has his "caste" system ignored - and the Buddhist demand to participate in and form part of government is ridiculed. The Shintoist with his many gods and holy places is scorned, as is the muslim. All feel oppressed and discriminated against - all suffer - all

18 The essence of the Jewish god is the "En Soph" - the unknowable. Not based on Law - as is Christianity - Talmudic Judaism is forever being changed by their Rabbis and is thus - unknowable.

19 "It clearly appears that there was a tendency to reduce capital punishment ... if not to abolish it altogether. That capital punishment ... was stigmatized as "murderous" if it condemned to death more than one human being in the course of seven years. ... Tryphon and Akiba ... saying, "Had we belonged to the Sanhedrin [during Judea's independence], no man would ever have been executed," as they would always have found some legal informalities by which to make a sentence of death impossible (Mak. i. 7a)." J/E p.558.

20 "Whoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death." Num. 35:29-30

21 "If thou forbear to deliver them ... that are ready to be slain ... behold ... doth not ... he render to every man according to his works?" Prov 24:11-12. "If thou wilt not ... do all the words of the law ... the Lord will make ... great plagues ... until thou be destroyed. ... because thou wouldest not obey." Deut 58:66, "Therefore will I number you to the sword ... because when I called ye did not answer." Isaiah 65:12 are angry. All the gods and their people blame each other.

Everyone must turn to Zeus for protection - unjust Zeus who manufactures conflicting laws by the thousands each year - and must manufacture thousands more to generate more "justice" the next year. Zeus is the only refuge now available to prevent each from being devoured by hostile gods and their hostile people. All must seek "Zeus-justice".

Zeus Law - Is It Legal?"

Is Zeus-law legal? Yes, it is legal. Un-Lawful, but legal. Zeus declared it legal. He has his police and soldiers to make it legal. A violation guarantees punishment. One either recants or he may be punished with prison or death.²³

Will Zeus-law last? It may last as long as it lasted before. When Zeus gives to one god - he takes from another. When all gods are angry and their people deprived of the staples of life - then will come the day of reckoning.

It requires no great mind to see why today's prophets predict the splintering and fragmenting of the house that Zeus built. The Soviet-Yugoslav solution is being predicted for America. Only loyal Zeus-priests and their Zeus-followers say that they believe that Zeus is strong enough to force both integration and the suppression needed to hold his world together.

The faithful of all religions see the empty churches. They see and fear the violence - the coming famine - the coming sword. They want to be free. They want to return to the ²³ "The enemy is eager to destroy all that call upon the Lord. For he knoweth that upon the day that Israel shall repent, the kingdom of the enemy shall be brought to an end." Testament of Dan 2:16-17. (Testament Of Dan - from the "Lost Books of The Bible & The Forgotten Books of Eden) worship of their own gods - to be again ruled by laws which are to them simple, just, and true. They want to worship in peace without fear of being killed, imprisoned, or abused.

The signs say they will get their desire. Robins and buzzards have arrived in Virginia - both at the same time. It is the nature of robins to stake out territories and fight for them. In more than half a century I have never seen more than 6 or 8 robins together at one time. Now, for the first time in the memory of living Virginians, five thousand robins at a time have arrived - in the middle of winter.

Never before have I beheld more than a dozen buzzards circling at a time. Now, circling Virginia skies are hundreds.

Never before have buzzards been seen in such number. Never before have robins been seen in such number. The sign of death and birth - the sign of the end of one thing and the beginning of something new. Both arrived at the same time. A new age has arrived for those who have eyes to see.²⁴

Stings

"There is nothing new under the sun - it has all be said or done before." Remember - the KKK was founded in 1867 and disbanded 18 months later. Reason - the media used it as a whipping boy to justify White-bashing laws. The KKK that continued in existence was a KKK manned by federal soldiers, political employees, and renegades who committing atrocities to blame on the South to justify continued occupation and looting. The visible KKK of the 1870s, by its very visibility and existence, was an admission that it was bogus. Actual KKK organizations were NEVER called KKK organizations.

²⁴ "If it seem evil unto you to serve the Lord, choose you this day whom you will serve ... but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." Josh 24:15

The same applies today. To justify anti-Western laws and looting there must be targets for the media to bash. It is my belief that today's KKK, Nazi, and lately - a Thody Phineas Priesthood - neatly fill the bill just as in the 1870s. It is my belief that these groups are set up to provide a media target to generate propaganda. Time may well prove most of them to be nothing but Federal sting operations set up to entrap the unwary who are fed up with the never-ending media-led assault on Western civilization and its Christian God.

S. African Referendum

White S. Africans went to the polls and voted 2-1 to allow DeKlerk to transfer rule to the Blacks who outnumber the Whites 10-1.

Disbelieving the results, I called a S. African active in conservative politics and asked the reason. He was stunned also. He said that from the people he had talked to at the polls he thought the reverse to be true.

He said that the upset must have resulted from the Black threats, the belligerent mass Black parades; the 100% establishment media support of Black rule; the threats of what would happen to the Whites if they dared anger the Blacks; the universal fear created by the media that permeated the country - and the absolute impossibility to answer media arguments that cascaded down in a torrent. This is what did it.

I have two observations. God the Word identifies the enemy:

A: 1- "The borrower is slave to the lender." Prov. 22:7. Therefore the lenders - the international banks - rule. 2- With their unlimited wealth they have bought a "Maxwell-Media" monopoly to advance their interests. 3- This "Maxwell-Media" shields the nation's true rulers from discovery, is a "false witness" to the people, and rules by giving exposure to compliant politicians. It is a false witness.²⁵

B: 1- "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Rom 10:13. Until Christians call upon the Lord - until they hold up his Word²⁶ - until this is done - there will be no victory against the enemy of Christendom. Christians must say with bumper-stickers, posters, letters, and every way they can:

"Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15, Jer 30:21

With the voice of the Lord spoken in the land - then - the following will happen:

"My sheep hear my voice ... and they follow me." John 10:26,27

But FIRST - Christians must "call upon the Lord". He requires it. It proclaims us - it proclaims Him.

Another says: 'The bookstore is believed to have been a gathering place for homosexuals, but the victim's families don't believe any of the men were gay.' To this day the bookstore killings remain unsolved and the bookstores remain closed. The incident resulted in 19 stores being closed - not just one as you reported." J. J. - North Carolina

HATE CRIME CAMPAIGN: "Dear Richard: Here in the N. West the papers talk about nothing but 'hate crimes'. For the first time they are even reporting crimes committed against Whites. They must be drumming up public support for anti-hate crime legislation. I can't think of any other reason the establishment media would tell the truth." W. P. - Oregon

PARIS IN SPRINGTIME: "Dear Richard: Just returned from France. I was told that 9% of the population in France is Black (This includes many N. African moslems of mixed ancestry). New "hate laws" arrest Whites in Paris for saying anything against Blacks. Well-to-do Whites are leaving Paris. Parts of Paris are already Black Republics. I counted the listings and there are 71 synagogues in Paris. Babylon on the Seine." C. K.

AUSTRALIA & N. ZEALAND: "Dear Dick: My friends in Australia and N. Zealand are very disgusted with the trend of things in both countries. Chapter 212

HATE LEGISLATION Prevents Victim Protest

Legitimate Protests Called "Hate"

Parade Magazine, on April 20, 1992, carried a story by Elie Wiesel (pronounced the way it looks), native of Transylvania, internationally known Nazi-hunting, Nobel Peace Prize winning, Boston University Professor of Humanities. The subject was "passion", and the article was illustrated with a picture of German skinheads, whose faces were said to be contorted with "passion". They appeared to be protesting something. But what?

Germany - 5000 Casualties A Day

Germany is in the throes of a crime wave - a massive crime wave. The figure repeated time and again by natives and visitors is that one in ten Germans became a victim last year of either murder, rape, robbery, or assault. Germans tell me that MOST of the crime is committed by alien immigrants. They are identified as Turks and North African moslems.

The media will not put a figure on the number of victims but, instead, they tell the Germans that while things might be a trifle bad - the immigrants have it worse - that half the crime they commit - they commit against themselves. Somehow, immigrants becoming victims of immigrant-crime are supposed to make the Germans feel guilty. They are blamed for having a country where people can be assaulted. While made to feel guilty, they are also made to feel grateful that while things are bad - they would be much worse if the entire weight of immigrant crime were directed exclusively against them.

Take a hand calculator and you will quickly get an idea of what "one person in ten is a victim" really means.¹

There are about 80,000,000 Germans in re-united Germany. The one in ten who are victimized represent 10%. Ten percent of 80,000,000 generates 8,000,000 victims. That's a lot of victims - especially when compared with pre-war Germany which had almost no crime. There are 7 million immigrants - mostly Turks and north African muslims, many of whom are Black. These, combined with other races already ensconced in Germany, constitute perhaps as many as 10 million. Perhaps more.

1 One in ten is the figure most frequently mentioned by people I consider knowledgeable.

If only half the crime is committed by them - instead of MOST as is charged - they are responsible for committing 4 million crimes. And, if half of the 4 million is directed against their own people (if the media can be believed), this would make them responsible for the other 2 million crimes committed against Germans.²

Simple Math

Pencil pushing reduces 2 million to a figure more easily understood. There are 365 days in the year. Two million divided by 365 days produces 5,479 Germans who are victims of the aliens each and every day. (Don't forget - there are three times that number of crimes being committed in Germany at the same time.)

Almost every time a Turk or a Black is beaten, or a foreign shelter is attacked by irate Germans, that incident is media- labeled in a front page extravaganza - "Outbreak of Neo-Nazi Hate!" "Hate!" "Hate!"

The newspapers are upset over the fact that skinheads and others are beginning to protest their own mistreatment and their protests are called - "hate". Could it be that the Germans are becoming upset that 5,479 of their people fall victim to the aliens each day and it is the Germans who are called "bigots" and "hate-mongers", and it is the immigrants who are called the "victims of hate"?

2 For the benefit of this article, the Germans themselves also theoretically commit 4 million crimes. This figure is highly suspect. My informants state that it is far more likely that the foreigners commit 6 million or more crimes instead of just 2 million crimes used as statistics for this article.

Truth In Media Law Needed

The law requires food and drink to be labeled as to its contents. It is time that the same laws be extended to cover the poisoned information dished out by the media. It should be compelled to tell the truth. If they can run stories and print pictures of almost every one of the two or three hundred Turks and North Africans who have fallen victim to irate Germans, they should also be required to print the pictures of the Germans who have fallen victim to these same infidels - some 164,383 every month.

The media should be compelled to label their poison just as cigarettes are labeled. Something to alert the reader that what they are about to read may be dangerous, such as:

"Reader Attention!"

"Believe at your own risk! This article may carry lies and mistruths. Fair media reporting is required by law to correct past media lies, distortions, discrimination, disinformation, racism, bigotry, and false information which has been believed and which has plunged the world into numerous wars and has had adverse affects on countless millions of readers."

Information on which one must base decisions that will determine life and death is at least as important as food and drink. Otherwise, an entire people may die just because they don't know that a crime-war is being waged against them.

European Victims - 14,000 Daily

"Maxwell-type" world media chains churn out daily lists of ten or twenty casualties resulting from the on- going Balkans "war". When this slow-motion skirmish begins to become stale, the papers churn out other stories of the hardships and discrimination bravely faced by more work-seeking foreigners arriving in Europe. Their criminal activities once they have been admitted are blacked out.

The German story is Europe's story. There are three hundred million people living in Europe - some 200 million of whom are Westerners. Using the same methodology - 10% or 20 million Westerners fall victim to criminal attacks a year. Half of the crimes, or 10 million, are committed by the strangers and half of the 10 million are committed against Westerners. Thus, the White Christian population of Europe suffers about 14,000 attacks daily at the hands of the stranger within.

America's Victims - 12,000 Daily

American newspapers and TV endlessly run clips of the regrettable incident where four White policemen beat a Black.

To do this the media has to step over hundreds and thousands of bodies of White men, women and children to find a flyspeck on an iceberg. Whites are virtually ignored to concentrate on an incident in which a Black is a victim.

It is media policy to conceal the criminal's race. But, in spite of their "paper curtain" - certain information still manages to slip through.

Truth At Last, #353, P.O. Box 1211, Marietta, Georgia 30061, carried Pat Buchanan's answer to the media's charge of White "Hate crimes". They reported Buchanan on May 7th as saying:

- 1) Blacks commit 8 times more assaults than do Whites
- 2) Blacks commit 9 times more rapes than Whites
- 3) Blacks commit 14 times more murders
- 4) Blacks commit 19 times more armed robberies
- 5) Black neighborhoods are 35 times more violent than White communities.

6) There were 629,000 interracial attacks committed in 1985. Some 9 out of every 10 attacks were committed by Blacks against Whites.³

Blacks make up 12% of the population. Still, Blacks make up 46% of the nation's prison population. Nearly 1/4 of all Negroes ages 20 to 29 are either in prison, on probation or on parole, which compares to 10% for Hispanics and 6% for Whites. Most interracial crime is overwhelmingly committed by Blacks against Whites.

These figures in themselves present a different picture from that the media would have us believe, and, Buchanan merely touched on Hispanic crime while leaving out Oriental and Indian crime entirely. If total "stranger-crime" were honestly reported, we might be dumbfounded to discover that as much as 85%-90% of all crime in the United States is committed by strangers, and much of it (if not most) is committed against Whites.

About 250,000,000 people live in the U.S. Some 180 million are Westerners. A one in ten victim rate produces 18 million crimes against them yearly. If strangers commit only half, this is 9,000,000. If half of them are committed against Whites it results in about 12,000 crimes committed against Whites by strangers each and every day.

Once again, the California incident where the Black was beaten by White policemen is regrettable, but, what about the more than 5 million Whites who have fallen victim to strangers since that incident occurred? Don't any of the rapes and cold blooded butcheries suffered by Whites merit the same careful tear-jerk treatment?

3 ED: The actual figure is many, many times this "official" figure. Most crime is underreported and un-reported - unless it is violent or involves a great deal of money. Rape is seldom reported because the media tries to print the victims name - to discourage reporting. Vandalism and petty theft is so commonplace as to not be newsworthy, and reporting seldom produce those guilty. The daily beatings and robbery practiced against White children in the public schools cannot be reported because there is no way to protect against retaliation.

S. Africa, Australia and New Zealand - 1,700 Each Day

Nelson Mandela continues front page. His wife has been accused of killing a Black. We are told of the suffering of that Black's family. That is front page. Blacks kill Blacks - 20 at a time, that is front page. What is not front page is the media- encouraged assault on Whites. This same media policy is true in Australia and New Zealand.

In these three nations reside some 25,000,000 of our people. Australians are being victimized by Orientals and Blacks, New Zealanders by Maoris and Orientals, and S. Africans by Blacks and Indians. The same methodology produces 625 thousand Westerners in these countries falling victim to crimes committed by strangers - about 1,700 per day - every day. The media exudes sympathy and support for the aliens who are responsible for the crimes, and conceals their race to protect them from public reaction caused by their crimes.

Our Tribute - 30-Thousand A Day!

Europe furnishes the infidels 5 million victims. America and Canada together furnish another five, and Australia, N. Zealand, and S. Africa more than a half-million: total - almost 11 million yearly.

Eleven million divided by 365 days in the year means that each day about 30 thousand of our people fall victim to the strangers in our midst, and this may understate the true

Thirty thousand men, women, and children - THIRTY THOUSAND A DAY. Either pay the tribute or suffer "media bashing" and the threat of armed intervention by armies suzerain to our enemies.

Media Complicity

The media refuse to recognize this Western suffering. They abuse those who protest the spilling of their own blood. They call them "bigots" and "racist". They smear anyone who dares protest his injury and hurt. It is almost usual for a mugging victim to find the editor has trashed his letter of protest. It was not "politically correct". A ruined blockbusted stab victim may be ridiculed as a "bigot" for complaining about immigrants. Rape- victims are often accused of "encouraging the act". A father of a murdered child who verbally protests and calls a stranger a name - may himself be convicted - the protest being called a "hate crime". If one writes a book decrying the breakdown of law and order - the media brand the author "extremist". If a father whose daughter has been gang-raped and whose attackers walk free after a few days in jail writes something on the sidewalk in protest - states like Florida will sentence him to double punishment.

The chains of Maxwell-type media - media which may be owned or controlled by agents of foreign nations - call Whites who protest the crimes committed by strangers against them - "racists". Their protest is called - "hate". They are "haters"! The media ignore the 30,000 daily victims. It is their scorecard of success for that day. Not verbalized, but obvious by their actions, the media treat the casualties as the tally one naturally expects from a WAR. They are winning and the Whites are losing. "Westerners are getting what they deserve!"

Conclusion

All things have an end. Either the Christian God has forsaken his people and doomed them to extermination at the hands of alien tormentors led and protected by the media - or the Christian West will call on its God and its God will hear and save it.⁴

The scriptures declare:

"Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Rom 10:13

The scripture says:

"His name is called The Word of God." Rev 19:13⁵

The Word says:

"If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him that which is wrong ... Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother ... And those which remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you. And thine eye shall not pity; but life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot." Deut19:16-21

4 "When thou art in tribulation ... even in the latter days, if thou turn to God and shall be obedient ... he will not forsake thee ... nor forget the covenant of thy fathers." Deut 4:30-31

5 "I will send My Word and save thee and thy seed." Adam & Eve 12:6. "In those days the hand of Pharaoh continued to be severe against the children of Israel, and he crushed and oppressed them until the time when God sent forth his word and took notice of them." Jasher 71:16

We hurt, we suffer, we call on our God for deliverance. God hears the cry of anguish. His Law is absolute. The "Word made flesh" rose from the dead and is alive - He walks the land.

The day will come when trials will be held for those guilty of committing crimes against God's people - those guilty of protecting criminals, those guilty of refusing to punish them, those who conceal their crimes - they all will be punished according to God's Law! He sees the 30,000 sacrifices heaped daily on the alter of Baal.

God has not forgotten. All our Christian duty requires us to do is to Love our enemies as well as our friends - as our God commands us to do.

"If ye love me obey my commandments." John 14:15

LETTERS

SELLING CARS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I would like to know how the Japanese can sell a car cheaper in the U.S. than in Japan?" - O.R.- Idaho

ED: Portfolios Investment Advisory, sister publication to HR, covered this recently. The Japanese don't think the way we think. Success is measured by the number of people a company employs and the low cost of their goods. They have dealers and subcontractors that are really unnecessary but are traditional - and they provide employment. In Japan the manufacturer will sell to a major distribution-dealer, who will ship his cars through a shipping-dealer, who will send the cars to a reconditioning and cosmetics grooming-dealer, who will send to another, and another, and another before the car reaches the Japanese showroom. Each stop raises the cost to the consumer. To sell in America they manufacture and ship directly to the American dealers - at half the Japanese cost. It's the Japanese way of doing things. They expect Americans to do business in Japan, step by step, the Japanese way. A confrontation between the two systems is guaranteed at some point. Unless one side or the other gives - the result will be chaos for the Japanese, or the complete draining of money from America.

HI-CRIME AREAS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Maryland is a high- crime state. I was driving through when I was pulled over for a license check. The officer saw a pistol in my car and put me in jail. I was required to post a $15,000 bail to get out. This is how high-crime states guarantee their criminal's protection and ensure that their areas remain 'high-crime.' Be warned." W. C. - South Carolina

SOVIET DEBT: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Could the collapse of the Soviet system be due to their inability to generate more debt?" G. T. - Washington

ED: Governments can generate unlimited amounts of debt - if they like. They can also create unlimited amounts of scrip (tallies). The communist system was right to provide scrip for internal use, but wrong in its inability to provide goods and services for the scrip they created. The good news is that the scrip is still useful for starting fires. More good news is that the starving ex-Soviets are not saddled with internal state- created debt - only their own. There is still something to be cheerful about - but you have to look to find it.

WELFARE: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Is it good for government to involve itself in welfare of ANY kind?" G. T. - Washington

ED: "The land shall be divided for an inheritance."
Num 26:53-55 "The land shall not be sold for ever." Lev
25:13-28 By use of forbidden taxes, usury, and monopoly - Christians have been robbed and herded into towns. The farm-kingdom given by God to his people now belongs to the establishment which holds them illegally. The city was established to stockpile plundered victims. It must feed and house them to keep them manageable. The Word is again being heard after 500 years of silence. We understand what is meant when we say - "Never forgive!" "Never forget!"
 "Never again!" Never again will we sit quietly by and not protest while our God is defamed and his people robbed.

THE S. AFRICAN FIX: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Note how the White S. African vote that turned the country over to the Blacks was set at 68% to 33%: 2:1 + 2%, enough to override any veto. If you've ever tried to assemble a 2:1 vote on any issue you'll know how hard it is - but easy if you fix the vote. One protest candidate in the U.S. received 50 to 100 votes in a number of precincts near the Canadian border, but never more than 9 votes from city precincts - an impossibility because that was where his strength was. The voting machines were simply set to not register the next cam if the vote went over 9. There is no way the establishment will allow itself to be voted out of power - not while they control the voting machines." S. R. - New York SWITCH HITTERS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Last week I watched both King Juan Carlos of Spain, and Governor Bill Clinton put Yarmulkes on their heads. Jews consider wearing the Yarmulke a sign of submission to their God. For a goy (non-Jew) to do it is a sign of submission to the special

Laws (Noahide law) that the Jews expect non-Jews to obey. These two are stupid, or they have ceded their Christianity in exchange for the laws of another god. I saw a picture of DeKlerk of S. Africa doing the same thing." R. H. - New York

KIDNAPING: "Dear Sir: Is imprisonment the same as kidnaping?" K. G. - North Carolina

ED: "He that stealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death."
Ex 21:16

"If a man ... (steal) any ... of the children of Israel, and maketh merchandise of him, or selleth him, then that thief shall die." Deut 24:7. "Let death be the punishment for stealing a man; but he that hath purloined gold or silver, let him pay double. If anyone kill a man that is stealing something out of his house, let him be esteemed guiltless, although the man were only breaking in at the wall. Let him that hath stolen cattle pay fourfold ... excepting the case of an ox, for which let the thief pay five fold. Let him that is so poor that he cannot pay ... be his servant to whom he was adjudged to pay it." Antiquities 4:8:27

"Is imprisonment the same as kidnaping?" Christian Law requires "restitution" or "death" - one or the other. It's cut and dried. The need for temporary "holding tanks" is limited, and for a full blown prison system - non-existent. To hold a person instead of the Lawful "restitution" or "death" is "man-stealing" or kidnaping. Those who rule over us must be aware of the possible consequences. The Law dealing with "man-stealing" is severe. Only the very brave or the very stupid fight God.

GOD WILL TAKE CARE OF IT: "Dear Mr. H.: What do you say when someone sees a wrong and washes his hands of responsibility by saying - 'God will take care of it.'" F. W. - W. Virginia

ED: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God and the Word was God." John 1:1. The Word which is God contains the solution to every problem, the punishment for every crime, and it tells who is to enforce the punishments. The scriptures say: "The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people." Deut 17:5-7

The anti-christ children of the evil one rule today.⁶ They will kill you if you enforce the Law and try to keep back God's vengeance from this disobedient land. So, until the suffering of the people forces a return to God's Law, verbally protesting when the establishment violates God's Law is the prudent course: "In case anyone of their own blood should attempt to confound or dissolve their constitution (laws), they should take vengeance on them, both all in general, and each person in particular ... if they were not able to take such vengeance, they should still demonstrate that what was done was contrary to their wills". Antiquities 4:8:45 God requires some sort of action from those of his people who witnesses evil. If all one can do is "speak" then one must speak to "demonstrate that what was done was contrary to their wills".

Hoskins: Didn't you once state that the presents given by the wise men had some special significance?" W. H. - Texas

ED: "(Adam) turned to ... Eve his wife and said ... preserve this gold, this incense, and this myrrh, that God has given us for a sign ... until the Word of God made man shall come." II Adam and Eve 10:17-18

This gold, frankincense, and myrrh, taken from the garden of Eden, preserved through the ages and presented by the wise men at the time of Jesus' birth, fulfilled prophecy and have special meaning. Their present location is unknown.

DEEP KISSING: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: A doctor told me that AIDS is most easily transferred by blood. Chapter 213

STRANGERS HATE "CHRISTIANITY"

"Christian" Charlatans Disobey God

"Christians" who violate the WORD are Christendom's great enemy. Great evils result from their trespasses.

Christianity promises health, healing, prosperity and plenty - to those who obey its teachings. Its head, Jesus Christ, the "Word made flesh", gave strict instructions to whom his teachings were to be taken and to whom they were not to be taken.

(1) "These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not unto the way of the Gentiles, and unto any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt

10:5,6., (2) "O children of Israel... You only have I known of all the families of the earth." Am 3:1-2, (3) "I was sent to the lost sheep of the house of Israel, and to them alone." Matt 15:24.

He warned of the consequences if they were shown to anyone else:

"Give not that which is holy unto the dogs ... lest they ... turn ... and rend you." Matt. 7:6, Matt 15:26

Anti-Christ promoters have from the earliest days taken Christianity for their own special thing - having fallen from heaven expressly to pave their road of life with gold. No sooner than Jesus was out of the way than they re-packaged the The WORD to re-sell to those that Jesus expressly said that it was not to be taken to. Promising blessings, healing, and riches, to those proscribed - they proclaimed their revised teachings throughout the Mideast and then into India. Saturating these areas, they sold it across Asia and on into China and Japan. By the 5th century most of the known world had been "Christianized". It was a phony Christianity, an unlawful counterfeit Christianity, but the "establishment church" insisted on attaching un-scriptural teachings to their brand of Christianity because it increased their power and wealth. They still do.

#1 Reason - Dangerous To Disobedient

Historians of ersatz Christianity feign mystification as to why - one by one - the nations of strangers which had enthusiastically embraced "Christianity" - turned their backs and walked away from it. Japan and China proscribed it, then the tribes that roamed the great Gobi, Iranian, and Arabian deserts turned away - one by one. Next, Indian Christianity withered as did the North African brand.

What happened? The truth leaked out! The counterfeit church, cloaked in robes, crowns, and impressive ritual, had broken the express commands of Jesus by taking Christ's teachings to strangers after he had told his disciples not to do so;

(1) "He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar and the truth is not in him." 1 John 2:4, (2) "Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God." 2 John 1:7,11, (3) "Not every one ... shall enter into the kingdom ... but he that doeth the will of my Father ... Many will say ... have we not prophesied in thy name? ... And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you." Matt 7:21-23.

The strangers had found out. Who wants to follow someone who claims that he has been authorized by God - while at the same time - he is breaking God's laws? Who wants to follow a religious leader who brings hurt and misery and not good?

Christianity - A Death Sentence

Christians accept the death penalty for murder, homosexuality, rape, and kidnaping as just and right. This is the punishment ordained when God created the world. That's the way things should be. This simple acceptance for genuine Christians is extreme for gentiles, to most of whom these acts are not crimes, but merely a way of life.

The anti-Christ missionaries promised much - but the rule book that they brought with them said that the looked-for promises were forthcoming - ONLY - if God's commandments were obeyed. This condemned a large number of the new converts to capital punishment. Even more distressing, certain of the new converts became "power happy" and started to enforce the death penalty for acts that earlier had been acceptable.

Christianity changed overnight from a blessing to a curse. Life became dangerous. The popularity of this new religion ebbed as fast as it had grown. The natural state of the genuine Christian became a life-threatening experience to the gentile.¹

#2 Reason - The Bible Says NO!

The Bible, Christianity's instruction manual, in addition to expressly forbidding its contents from being shown to strangers, also states that "God created man."

God Created Man

The new gentile converts who read the Christian Bible found that one of the first verses in the Bible stated "God created man".

Independent and intelligent gentiles seldom stay under the thumb of ersatz Christian priests whose job it is to explain away inconsistencies and make black look white. The establishment priests can be proved to be fakers and phonies by scriptures from their own Bible.

This knowledge produced outrage among Black nationalists such as Elija Mohammed and Malcolm X. Entire gentile nations - the Ottoman-Turks, Khazar-Turks, and Jews - had read the same verse years earlier. They know that they are not the "man" the Bible speaks of.

1 In this context, a Japanese is a "gentile" to a Chinese. An Arab is a gentile to a Jew. Arabs and Jews are gentiles to Christians.

"Christianity Is The White Man's Religion"

The accusation heard around the world and thrown at substitute Christianity every day is that "Christianity is the White man's religion". The following verse cannot be answered by counterfeit Christian priests. It can be considered one verse which permanently alienates the gentile from Christendom.²

"God created man." Gen 5:1

There are many gods. The God that made man is the one described in the Christian Bible in the following manner:

"In the beginning was the WORD, and the word was with God, and the WORD was God." John 1:1 and, "The WORD was made flesh, and dwelt among us." John 1:14

The scriptures say to all who read that The Word - the Laws, statutes, and judgments - is God. Jesus Christ is the Word made flesh who dwelt among us. The scriptures say it many different ways: "His name is called The Word of God." Rev 19:13."

In the verse "God created man", the connecting word "created" means just that. The last of the 3 words is - MAN. The word "man" is the Hebrew word "adam". Anyone who bothers to go to Strong's Concordance will find "man":

² The UN proclamation on race OPI151-63-27884, Jan 1964, is a condemnation of Christianity. If the UN proclamation is enforced, as appears likely, it will suppress the Christianity as taught by Jesus. The reason? If Christianity is allowed to develop free of alien heresy it will completely rule the world. Gentile rulers feel threatened. To protect themselves they have set up counterfeit Christian priests to be their spokesmen. These spokesmen attempt to nullify Christ's teachings by quoting a few scriptures out of context.

MAN: Heb: Adam - "to show blood(in the face), ie: to flush or turn rosy: - be (dyed, made) red (ruddy). Strong's Concordance. "Man" is the Hebrew word adam. Adam means to "blush red".

"God created man" means - God ("God the Word" - the laws, statutes, and judgments) created man (he who "blushes red"). Or: "The Laws, statutes and judgments created a being who blushes red."

Thus, it is obvious to those who will see just how God the Word made "adam-man" in his own image, fulfilling the following scripture:

"God said let us make man in our image. So God created man in his own image." Gen 1:26-27

The WORD Removes Deviants

God the Word forbids murder, rape, and kidnaping. God the Word directed that all adamic people who murdered, raped, or kidnaped - were to be put to death.

Man obeyed. For 1,000 generations all murderers, rapists, and kidnapers were put to death. Like breeds like. Today's adamic peoples are descended from 1,000 generations of those who have gone before who have put the "lawless" to death. They are the remnant - descended from the faithful - they are the "lawful".

In the army I had difficulty in training some men to shoot at man-like targets. Once taught - they did well - but they were reluctant. Ordered to shoot innocent people - most would protest. God the Word who made "men who blush red" made them "in his own image". Like God - "adam-man" will not willingly murder, rape, or kidnap. The Word made them that way - in his own image. Left to himself, adam-man ensures that only those of his own kind will remain to carry on in God's image for all time. To do this he merely enforces the Law by removing those who offend the Law. There are strict penalties levied against lawbreakers as well as those who refuse to enforce God's Law.

Of course, if the Law is not enforced and the lawbreaker does not receive the proscribed punishment - Mr. and Mrs. America Goody-Two-Shoes will be punished for tolerating lawlessness. "Toleration" of evil is violation of the Law - just as committing a crime is a violation of the Law.³

The two things that turn gentiles from Christianity are the "harsh" restrictions placed on their behavior, which they are seldom told about beforehand, and to add insult to injury - the clear Biblical instructions proscribing those who do not bear the "three proofs of Israel" - 1. God's name, 2. Isaac's name, 3. Adamic descent.

Breeding The Wolf

Most non-adamic peoples of the world are ruled by leaders who have killed many people, or, have stolen many horses, cattle and camels, and are able to buy many wives and have many children. Like breeds like. The result of this selective breeding is easy to find. Look in the prisons.

In Texas and California the prisons are full of Mexicans.

3 (1) "Let the saints be joyful ... and a two-edged sword in their hand, to execute ... the judgment written: this honor have all his saints." Ps 149:5- 9. (2) "Cursed be he that doeth the work of the Lord deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood." Jer 48:10. (3) "But if ye will not ... do all these commandments; ... I also will do this unto you; ... ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it ... they that hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you. ... I will break the pride of your power ... your land shall not yield her increase ... I will send wild beasts among you which shall rob you of your children ... and make you few in number ... I will bring a sword upon you ... I will send the pestilence among you; ... I will ... cast your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols ... And I will make your cities waste ... And I will bring the land into desolation." Lev 26:14-35

In New York, Washington and Chicago they are full of Blacks; in Washington state they are full of Indians. Like breeds like. It is the law.

The non-adamic world views "adam-man" as a harsh police force who are always interrupting and interfering in their business and their fun.

On the other hand - the world viewed by adam-man consists of "adam-man" - whom they consider relatively Lawful, and non adam- man, the hues-man (human), who commit most of the crime. The lawless are compared to wolves. They are clever, smart, skillful, and deceptive - they must be to survive. But, they are what they are. They are descended from a thousand generations of wolves - murderers and robbers.

One may go to the end of the world and find a wolf - and throw a sheepskin over him, and baptize him and call him a sheep.⁴ One may make him believe that he is a sheep and tell everyone that he is in fact a sheep. But, he remains what he is - a wolf. He may act like a sheep, but when the day comes and he smells blood, then - woe betide the flock.

The strangers of the world have no illusions. They know what they are. They know the difference between a wolf and a sheep and they don't apologize for being what they are. They would have it no other way. They are comfortable serving the purpose that they were put on earth to serve.

They also know who and what a "man" is. The educated among them understand the meaning of the words "In the image of God made he man (Adam)." Gen 9:6, that Adam-man is made in the image of HIS God - not THEIR god. They are wolves - man are the sheep. If the WORD - the laws, statutes and judgments of the sheep were forced on them - most of them would be condemned in short order. The Law would punish with death many of the things that wolves do every day.

4 "Gentiles shall ye take to wife purifying ... with an unlawful purification (baptism)." Testament of Levi 4:17

To avoid this threat, he must either flee the lands where the Christian God rules or fight Him on his own ground.

Sensing a showdown - an Armageddon in the making - the wolves have opened the gates to the sheep fold to the wolves of the world. The sheep are attempting to flee this way and that.

For the sheep - survival means that a new way to live must be found. The scriptures say:

"When thou are in tribulation ... even in the latter days, if thou turn to God and shall be obedient ... he will not forsake thee ... nor forget the covenant of thy fathers." Deut 4:30- 31⁵

SOUTH AFRICA REPORT by J.M.K.

DeKlerk had Saatchi & Saatchi, the internationally known London advertising firm, to plan his campaign.

The media onslaught was something to behold. Many large companies, banks, and the civil service told their workers what was expected of them.

Our side felt numb when the results became known. I just felt anger. We took the posters down the next day and the right wing parties held a main council meeting. Mr. Mariaas told us the struggle continues. The "NO" voters can be seen as the core of the nation, be they English or Afrikaans speaking. In many instances young people defied their bosses, like the young man who works for Toyota. When addressed by the management in the auditorium, he got up and walked out. It takes something when a job is so hard to come by if you are White.

⁵ "It rained fire and brimstone ... and destroyed them all (the sodomites). Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man (the Word made flesh) is revealed." Luke 17:29

Some places told their workers where and how to vote and the day after handed them their dismissal letters. The economy is getting worse.

Debt and the wishes of the lenders lie at the heart of the problem. Our trouble started when John Vorster borrowed from international banks to finance the upliftment of Blacks, and that story continues. Millions go down the drain with nothing to show for the expenditure.

The TV announced that a plane load of rich Russians had come to look at investments. I have been told that you had to be one of the favored few to get rich in Russia.

Blacks are coming over the borders daily. The murder of Whites continue at a frightening rate, and in the last three weeks the Zulus and Xhosas have squared off and have made war zones out entire areas of S. Africa.

Most churches here are establishment churches. They only preach what is "politically correct". Even a charismatic church like Rhema, which claims to have 15 thousand members, is a fully integrated business oriented church - a stepping stone to the New World Order.

South Africa is full of the descendants of Huguenots, and Scottish and English Covenanters, but few honor their forebears and speak of "God's Law". And, almost NO ONE has called on, or pledged, to obey the name of God (the Word). As a consequence, God's punishments - the AIDS plague and the sword - have descended on the land. It's fearful. No one knows what to do - they don't know what God requires of them. And, the preachers can't tell them. They have either been bought, or are too ignorant to know themselves.

We are being forced to study the Bible ourselves since there is no one else to turn to.

LETTERS

ONE BLOOD: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: What do you make of "And he has made of one blood every nation of men to dwell on the face of the earth." Acts 17:26." H. L. - Texas

ED: Esau has long used this verse. "In the beginning was the Word", "God made man", "I am not sent but to the lost sheep of the house of Israel," "No bastard (mixed-breed) shall enter the congregation of Israel forever." God does not fight himself. All scripture must be interpreted to harmonize with other scriptures. The Bible is adam-man's history book. The "every nation of man" refers to every nation of adam-man - Heb: "he who blushes red." It particularly refers to the descendants of Jacob- Israel because the Word (God) was given to Israel only, "He showed his word ... his statutes and his Judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation ... they have not known thee." Ps 147:19,20

Esau tries to make Israel believe that the blessing has been given to him. He gives media exposure to those who will say that Esau is Israel, that God the Word has been given to Esau. The "one blood" argument is one of his oldest red-herrings. He wants you to believe that "nations" mean EVERYONE and that his blood and yours are the same. It isn't.

PRAYER BOOK: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: What is wrong with using a prayer book?" E.S. - Louisiana

ED: Nothing - as long as you know what it represents. Remember, the king introduced the prayer book as a Bible replacement to keep his subjects from reading such things as * the land is to be divided; no monopolies; * no taxes; * no kings. His throne gets very unsteady when his subjects read such instructions from their God.

CAIN: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Who is a Canaanite? Can they be identified after the passage of all these years?" G.W. - Tennessee

ED: God cursed Cain in a manner so that everyone would know him:

"Be trembling and quaking.' Then Cain trembled and became terrified; and through this sign did God made him an example before all the creation." I Adam & Eve 74:24- 25⁶

Look around; Identify those who loudly protest that nobody loves them, that everyone is against them, that everybody disapproves of them, that everyone hates them

6 "Cain talked with Abel his brother, and it came to pass ... that Cain rose up and slew him. And the Lord said ... the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground. And now art thou cursed from the earth ... When thou tillest the ground, it shall not bring forth or yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shall thou be in the earth." Gen 4:8- 12. "The meaning of Cain is 'hater', because he hated his sister in their mothers womb ... Therefore did Adam name him Cain." I Adam & Eve 74:7. "Among the children of Cain, there was much robbery, murder, and sin." II A&E 13:2. "For Esau is the end of the world, and Jacob is the beginning of it that followeth." II Esdras 6:9. "I loved Jacob, and I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness." Malachi 1:1-3. "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and inveigled them ... and in the course of time went as usual to hunt; and he came as far as the field of Seir, the same is Edom. ... And Esau there saw in the land of Seir the daughter of a man of Canaan, and her name was Jehudith ... And Esau took her for a wife." Jasher 29:20-23 and will try to kill them the instant their back is turned.

Esau is a wolf. He has killed many and stolen much. To keep his loot he must keep never-ending guard against victims bent on revenge. Part of his loot is being constantly invested to broadcast to past and future enemies that the wolf is no wolf, but a lovable sheep, a different kind of lovable sheep, at worse - merely a wolf in sheep's clothing. "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and inveigled them." Feeding in the midst of the flock he forever directs the flocks' attention from himself to a distant, dangerous but imaginary enemy. It is Esau that leads the chase against shadows and away from himself. Victims devastated by Esau's contrivance often turn out to have been other sheep who have been lied about. Esau feels no remorse for inflicting injury on them. He ignores his victims and points his media at still other new enemies.

The Scriptures tell this ancient and ever continuing story. Esau is safe only when the scriptures remain closed. Open them, and - scripture upon scripture, precept upon precept, our understanding is built - and the solution disclosed.

ATLANTA CONFLICT: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Abortion supporters driving by in cars shot BB rifles and threw bottles at abortion protesters. Bands of Blacks hunt down single White girls and rape them. Bands of White boys retaliate by hunting down and beating Blacks who venture out by ones and twos. Blacks are wearing white t-shirts with a big X on the front - "X" for Malcolm-X. Many people say that there will be a race war - but they've been saying that for a long time." H. R. - Georgia

STATUES, PICTURES, & WINDOWS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: What is the difference between the Catholic statues and Protestant pictures and windows of Jesus?" A. K. - North Carolina

ED: None. The 2nd commandment forbids "likenesses" because any substitution for "the Word made flesh" will in time become the object of worship - and not the Word - the laws, statutes, and judgments.

UNFILTERED NEWS

GERMAN FREEDOM OF THE PRESS: Gerd Honsik, writer and publisher, was convicted and sentenced to 1 1/2 years in prison for writing an article that the judge claims defended Adolph Hitler. Meanwhile, another German judge fined the internationally acclaimed British historian David Irving $6,000 for making public his discovery that the Nazi gas chambers at Auschwitz concentration camp were built after WWII to draw tourists to the camp in Poland. Irving also stated that no one has presented any evidence that Adolph Hitler knew anything about an alleged "holocaust" that its promoters claim took 6 million lives.

AUSTRIA'S TOP ENGINEER DENIES GAS CHAMBERS: "... Walter Luftel, president of the Austrian Engineers and Architects Association, is said to have announced, after having conducted a professional study, that the Holocaust could not have happened. ..." Jerusalem Post International Ed. Apr 18, 1992.

DISCRIMINATION AGAINST WHITES CONTINUES: In Chicago, a black bus driver was called names by three white youths. She was awarded $1.75 million in damages by a jury. (Story in Detroit Free Press, Apr 29, 1992). In West Palm Beach - a judge ordered a 14 year old who is alleged to have painted slogans on a Jewish temple to read Diary of a Young Girl by Anne Frank, work 100 hours for Jewish organizations, pay $355 restitution, watch Holocaust-related dramas, and receive personal instruction in Judaism from Rabbi Steven Westman. An 11 year old faces the same charge. Both will be punished under Florida's Hate Crimes Act Of 1989, considered by many to be a flaming example of anti-White discriminatory legislation. (Story TIMES, Apr 22, 1992.)

ED: There are more than 30,000 incidents of murder, rape, robbery, and physical abuse directed against Whites DAILY world- wide. This doesn't count "threats" - a thing so common as to be a non-event. In America, there are 12,000 anti-Christian attacks DAILY. There are documented cases of Jews and Blacks writing on their own buildings and getting national media coverage, while almost nothing is done to advertise the plight of tens of thousands of defenseless White victims who have legitimate complaints, who are actual bleeding victims of assault. The holocaust against them is carefully hushed up by the national media, while at the same time, it pulls out all stops to bash Whites who have the nerve to protest their treatment. White- bashing is the national sport of both the media and communist- leaning politicians. Either the governments - local, state and federal - will protect the White citizens of America or the law- abiding citizens of America will be forced to protect themselves.

Chapter 214

THE SHEEP AND THE WOLF

There are sheep and there are wolves. A sheep is a sheep. A wolf is a wolf. Wolves eat sheep. That's what they do. Sheep try to keep from being eaten. That's what they do. Wolves think it is unreasonable for sheep to complain. But, of course, that, too, is what they do.

The Sheep

Sheep are predictable. They all act the same way because that's the way they are bred. They tend to congregate and follow a shepherd. The shepherd leads them to green pastures. The sheep graze, grow fat, and produce mutton, wool, milk, cheese, and skins.

Obedient sheep obey their shepherd and tend to live lives which are productive and plentiful. Sheep who disobey their shepherd may wander from the flock and be injured.

Many die in the teeth of the wolf.

The smell of sheep is distinctive. They possess scent glands between their cloven hooves and leave their scent wherever they walk. Their urine and droppings also leave a distinctive odor. Sheep ranges are distinctive because of this. Sheep scent alone is sufficient to frighten most predators away from the flock. It is the area protected by the Shepherd and his dogs who will attack predators.

The Shepherd has strict rules. For countless generations he ruthlessly culled his flock. Sheep showing aggressive traits permitting them to attack and kill other sheep have been quickly eliminated. The result is that today it is almost impossible to find a sheep who will kill another sheep. Like breeds like.

While predators have countless ailments, sheep have few, and NO hereditary diseases. Most serious diseases they catch are brought in by outsiders, and these have sometimes been known to almost wipe out a flock.

When in danger sheep are led into the sheep fold by the shepherd.¹

The Wolf

The best killer and the best fighter becomes leader of the wolf pack. Behaviorists call him the alpha wolf. He mates with a female who is the best fighter among the female

1 "Sheep of the pasture" bear the three proofs of Israel: (1) God's name - CHRISTIANS - "They shall put my name upon the children of Israel." Num 6:27 (2) Isaac's name, SONS OF ISAAC - ISAACSONS - SAXONS, "In Isaac shall thy name be called." Romans 9:7, and (3) Adamic descent. "Man" in Strong's Concordance is the Hebrew "Adam". "Adam" means to "blush red". "Show blood in the face." Genuine Israelites (or Christians) can produce all three proofs. "CHRISTIAN"-"SAXON"-"MAN".

wolves. She is called the alpha female. The alpha female rules the pack in the absence of the alpha male. Other members of the wolf pack do not breed. The male and female alpha wolves mate and have many pups. This is one way pack leaders can be identified.

The total pack usually numbers between two and 8, although they may number up to 36. Lone wolves may leave to seek a hunting ground of their own. If he can find an unoccupied hunting area and an unattached female, a new pack may form. If not, his life is hard. Wolf packs do not welcome other wolves in their territories and will fight to keep them out. These fights can be deadly.

Social status in the rigid wolf pecking order is revealed by observing smiles and bows when wolves meet - the subservient wolf makes more of both. After meeting - wolves look away and seldom look directly at each other again. A "direct look" means - "fight".

Wolves communicate within the pack, and communicate with other packs as prey is chased from one hunting area to another hunting area where they cannot be safely followed. Hunting tactics and strategy are sophisticated and individual members cooperate to "team chase" quarry. When the kill is made, the alpha wolf eats first. Wolves can be injured or killed in disputes over the remainder.

The leading cause of death among wolves is other wolves. The next most frequent cause of death is disease caught from contaminated diet since wolves are scavengers. Death from parasites is next. Last is death inflicted by the prey.

Sheep Types

Like the wolf - the Christian is the result of selective breeding. His shepherd is God the Word.² The Word tells him what to eat, what company to keep, and, demands that murderers, kidnapers, and rapists be put to death. For 1000 generations violators have been put to death. Like breeds like. Consequently, it is extremely difficult to find a Christian who will commit murder. Most Christians follow the wishes of their God and the result is that most are Law abiding, long lived, and have all they need in the way of worldly goods - neither too much nor too little.³

"Night Wolves"

"Wolves of the night" usually kill their prey in a climate of sheep-ignorance - their ignorance of what is safe and what is dangerous contained in the Word. "Night" is the Biblical expression for ignorance.

Alpha wolves become pack leaders because they kill many other wolves and kill much prey. "Human-wolves" become pack leaders when their killing ability justifies leadership. Most are also excellent thieves who steal many horses and cattle and are able to buy many wives and have many children. Like breeds like. An inspection of the jails of the west show them loaded with red- wolves. An inspection of the jails of the east show them to be filled with black-wolves. Wall street jails are full of tan trade-wolves. Wolves invariably run afoul of the law contained in the Word. That law was made for sheep. Sheep are sheep, Wolves are wolves. Sheep Law was made for sheep - wolves

2 "His name is called The Word of God." Re 19:13

3 Give me neither poverty nor riches ... lest I be full, and deny thee ... or lest I be poor, and steal, and thus take the name of my God in vain." Prov 30:8-9 obey their pack leader. Like breeds like.

Wolf Lifestyle - Diseases

Wolves are riddled with diseases. In addition to all usual diseases they often have their own exotic diseases. The black-wolf has a distinctive blood disease and is susceptible to TB, the tan trade-wolf has up to 30 diseases of the nervous system peculiar to him alone. Sheep, contacting wolves, have brought plagues back to their flock that have been disastrous.⁴ AIDS is the most recent disaster. Testing disclosed that wolves are almost the sole plague carriers. To prevent alarming the flocks of sheep to the fact that wolf contact is dangerous, carrier-testing and identity- disclosure was outlawed. Doctors insisting on mandatory testing and quarantine risk being labeled - "anti-wolf".

Wolves are predators. Predators are hunters. Hunters travel light. Most seldom own anything that will hamper their chase from place to place. Their possessions usually are things that can quickly be converted into items easily portable. They tend to live in temporary apartments rather than home-folds, and keep their wealth in T-bills, cash, or corporate stock which can be instantly converted to cash, deposited in the back pocket, and off they go again! The "stock certificate" is their contribution to economics.

Sheep, having become used to associating with strangers not of adamic descent, often continue to try to place the stranger by identifying his place of birth. Sheep can usually give lengthy personal histories. On the other hand, a wolf's background can seldom be verified. Most say they come from distant places and tell stories that can't be confirmed. "My family was in the military - we came from all over." Seldom can cover stories be verified. "I am an independent entrepreneur and manage my own affairs." "I am a retired builder." "I am a dentist from Milwaukee." The recently invented "lie detector" created havoc with wolf cover-stories. An anti "wolf-hate" law had to be passed to severely restrict its use. The lie detector was a wolf disaster. Until its advent the sheep had no idea that the harmless wolves wandering on the sheep's range were anything other than harmless. The lie detector removed the sheep-spoor and revealed the wolf. The cover had been stripped away.

4 Non- venereal syphilis contracted in Mexico killed upwards of 50% of the population of Europe. Bubonic plague brought in from the near east killed 2/3s in many areas. The Black Death from the far east did the same. AIDS, the latest brought by integrationists from Africa is expected to match the others in total casualties.

Wolves are seldom successful farmers. Farming is against his nature. It is a discipline that chains him to the soil, forces him to conserve and ration, and deprives him of the freedom to rest in the sun and run with the pack at night.

When they do farm - which is infrequently, their bushel per acre production is far below that of sheep.⁵ Most times they are forced to hire sheep to do it. Their idea of hell is farming. On their own they can take a productive farm and reduce it to a desert in a remarkably short time before abandoning it. Their antipathy to the soil is a trademark of the wolf.

5 "And the Lord said ... the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground. And now art thou cursed from the earth ... When thou tillest the ground, it shall not bring forth or yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shall thou be in the earth." Gen 4:8-12

Wolf Mercy

Wolves often toy with prey like a cat with a mouse. "Mercy" or compassion is not in the vocabulary of a predator. Prey may be kept alive for a purpose. If no purpose can be found - they are liquidated.

Sheep ranges invaded and then abandoned by wolves are discovered to contain innumerable sheep mass graves. The allied wolves of the east are supposed to have liquidated 35,000,000 of their own kind in their Gulags, in addition to killing most of the remaining sheep who still lived there, and great numbers in the lands they occupied for relatively short periods.

POWs in sheep camps suffered the normal attrition of prison life - about 3%. POWs in wolf prisons suffered between 50% and 100% deaths. In Afghanistan the wolves lost 14,000 men in combat, AND, over 300,000 casualties suffered in training and physical abuse over the same period. Wolves themselves cause most wolf casualties. This is the way wolves live.

Wolf Greetings

Sheep greet others as equals.⁶ They make quiet requests and seldom blow car horns to demand right of way. Female sheep are honored and permitted to go first; doors are opened for them. Sheep even help wolves when they hunger or suffer disaster. All of these acts are pronounced "commendable" by the Shepherd, BUT, these very same acts are seen as signs of subservience in the eyes of wolves.

6 "Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation." 1 Pet. 2:9

A wolf covered with sheep scent may act as a sheep while among sheep, but he reverts to wolf behavior when among wolves. In the wolf community - car horns blare demanding right- of-way, arguments rage over a price charged, people shove and try to break in line, and, females must definitely help themselves. An opened door elicits no "thank you" from the female wolf who stalks through. It is her due from an "inferior" who admits he is inferior by opening the door in the first place.

A car with a flat tire stopped on the roadside is signal for a "sheep-in-armor" to offer help, but, to a wolf - it signals possible "prey".

Wolf Intelligence System

Wolves post sentinels. They insist on having at least one of their member in every club, school, and church. Every tentative plan discussed by the sheep is instantly known to the wolf pack before most sheep know them. Political organizations for the sheep are supplied with funds through wolf donations. Sheep who "dance with wolves" are elected by the "wolf-talk" monopoly. It is the job of those who dance with wolves to open sheep-fold doors for the wolves and to keep them open.

Where the wolf-economics reigns supreme,⁷ the wolf's media also reigns supreme. It would be stupid of them to air

7 Usury is a contract considered fraudulent from its conception - where the victim promises to repay 11 when only 10 exists. Repayment can only be made by taking from another victim - but a victim is required. "Usury", the ultimate monopoly - empties the countryside, creates the city and super-state, and demands taxes, socialism, and communism to protect the monopoly - a capital crime under Biblical law. (Ezek 18:13) any other opinion than their own wolf-howl. Wolf monopoly media ensure that individual sheep data banks receive nothing anti-wolfish. Media monopoly creates a political monopoly ruled by the media⁸ in place of the rulers required by the Shepherd.⁹ Sheep may vote for anyone they like, but, the only ones they know about are the candidates who dance with wolves - the ones given media publicity. The sheep complain that "there is no difference between political parties." Surprise!

The wolf knows exactly what sheep say about him. Self assured, he doesn't bother to deny the charges. Instead, he repeats them and charges the speaker with "wolf-hate", a serious charge when wolves are judge and jury and also levy punishment. Wolf mercy is a proverb.

Anti-Wolfism

To keep the pack from wandering and in hunting condition, pack-leaders continuously regale their packs with stories of the awful fate of the wolf who was betrayed by Little Red Riding Hood. Wolves are kept paranoid. All they can think of is that the woodsman may believe Little Red Riding Hood and take his ax and cut the wolf open so that the previously eaten grandmother can escape. This cheerful bedtime story for sheep is a reoccurring nightmare to wolves who see nothing at all amusing about it.

Wolves know EVERYTHING about the prey. They

8 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zūwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

9 "Thou shalt set him king over thee ... from among thy brethren ... thou mayest not set a stranger over thee who is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

spend a lifetime learning his strengths and weaknesses and gathering information. They know his history. Pack leaders almost all have law degrees. They study his religion. Many know scripture better than most preachers. For the wolf, it's a question of life or death - to the preacher it is just a job. They know the sheep prophecy of the time when the rams will unite and emerge from their sheepfold shoulder to shoulder. This is another reason for the "fear" that identifies wolves.¹⁰

To avoid the woodsman's ax, wolf scouts are always testing the water. "Who do you think is responsible for the L.A. riots?" "Who do you think is responsible for rise of red communism?" "Who do you think is responsible for the recent war in the middle east?" To relieve the tremendous pent-up tension they almost "beg" the sheep to cry "WOLF"! If someone does - their worst suspicions are confirmed. They run to spread the dreaded news, "Someone has spotted a WOLF! They know! They know! All is lost!!!" Chaos reigns temporarily as wolfdom goes to "red alert". Eerie howls rise into the night - warning howls - howls calling "strays" and "stragglers", calls that trigger wolfdom's well rehearsed damage control. It is a wolf ritual practiced again and again, over and over. Every Saturday "wolf-howl", and countless wolf periodicals carry clips of past "prey uprisings" and warn wolves - "never again!" The story of Little Red Riding Hood has lost none of its horror. The self-righteous wolf howl complains to the world that wolves are oppressed - "ANTI-WOLFISM must be stamped out!"

Converting Wolves Into Sheep

Wolves must get close to sheep to eat them. To do this they roll in sheep urine and droppings to disguise their odor and then calmly approach the sheep as if one of them. The sheep, seeing a strange visitor¹¹ are alarmed for a bit until they become used to the new arrival. Then the wolf may walk safely into the sheep fold¹² and take his time choosing his prey.

The easiest method to get into the sheepfold is for the wolf to become a sheep. This difficult feat is performed by having one who dances with wolves throw a sheepskin over the wolf, repeat magic words, and sprinkle water on him. It is then pronounced to the world that the wolf has become a sheep and is entitled to all rights and privileges associated with becoming a sheep. He may now come and go in the sheepfold as he likes.¹³

A minister recently told me this story. A friend of his took a wild orphaned wolf pup and raised him in his home like a dog. He ran and frolicked, and grew up like any other 11 "Stranger" has two meanings. Strong's Concordance lists the word in the Hebrew usually under "gêr" (1616), "zûwr" (2111), and sometimes "nokriy" (5237). The "zûwr" (2111) stranger is the enemy, he is confrontational, one to be avoided. (1) "There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers (Heb: "zûwr - racial alien), and after them I will go." Jer 2:25. (2) "Receive a stranger into thine house, and he will disturb thee, and turn thee out of thine own." Ecclesiasticus II, 11:34. The "gêr" (1616) stranger is the kinsman from afar. The one from a different political subdivision, but one to be accepted with open arms.

12 Wolves smell differently from sheep. Those who have worked or served with them in the army can tell you. The lack of deodorants reveals a difference that is VERY noticeable.

13 "Gentiles shall ye take to wife purifying ... with an unlawful purification (baptism)." Testament of Levi 4:17

normal dog. One day the man cut his hand chopping wood. It bled. He went into his house and fell asleep in his chair. While asleep the wolf licked his bleeding hand and tasted blood. The man was awakened to growls - "wolf growls". Opening his eyes he found his 100 pounds of grown puppy-dog-wolf standing directly in front of him with his teeth bared, and looking directly at him. His blood ran cold. He slowly slipped his hand into a nearby drawer, withdrew a pistol, and killed the wolf.

A wolf is a wolf. A wolf pup raised as a dog is a wolf. A part wolf dog is a wolf.¹⁴ A baptized wolf is a wet wolf. Magic words said over a wolf can only make a magical wolf - not a dog. Like breeds like. God made the sheep and God made the wolf. He who dances with wolves is paid to fool the sheep, but God is not mocked.¹⁵

Evil Eye

The old sheep-rule is this; "Never trust someone who will not look you in the eye." It is a way of identifying a wolf. This is not foolproof. Some sheep are shy, and wolf pack leaders will look ANYONE in the eye. But, it is a good rule-of-thumb.

But if two wolves stand eye-to-eye, one may end up lying on the sidewalk outside a N.Y. restaurant with bullet holes

14 "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." De 23:2

15 (1) "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." Matt. 28:18-20, (2) "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature" Mark 16:15 This refers to the scattered sheep. The Law still holds: (3) "Go not unto the way of the Gentiles ... But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Math 10:5,6." (4) "I was sent to the lost sheep of the house of Israel, and to them alone." Matt 15:24 in him. Among both dogs and wolves, the eye-to-eye look means - "fight". Black-wolves do it regularly in boxing matches to "psych" their opponents. Different strokes for different folks.

The "evil eye" is virtually unknown among sheep, but it is part of wolf-life. The "eye-to-eye" look of a pack leader or someone else important can bring disaster - a physical, economic, or social disaster. A compliment from one with the "evil-eye" about a baby may cause its death. To avoid these unpleasant effects many wolves will not look a person in the eye.¹⁶ Many, even most, wolves wear charms that resemble a half moon, a hand with 4 fingers and the two middle ones retracted, crosses, or simple pieces of iron. It keeps away the "evil eye".¹⁷

Wolf Religions

Sheep look to their "Shepherd". The wolf looks to his pack leader. The pack leader leads the hunt and the pack downs its prey. The ultimate provider is thus - the wolfpack. They are their own messiah - their own savior. The wolf's god is a combination of pack leader, whose word is law, the pack, and the wolf himself. It could be no other way.¹⁸

"Hollywood" is a glimpse into wolf-heaven. The never ending delightful story of wolves forever killing opponents, pulling down prey, wolves copulating, or passing gas - "Oh what fun - what rapture"! Dirty filthy talk! No sheep laws - no sheep rules. Wolf heaven! This is as good as it gets! It's what people want!" The wolf can't imagine anyone wanting to waste time watching a flock of sheep eating grass and going "baaa"!

Every sheep household must listen to the wolves' nightly "wolf-howl". It is all that is available. Wolves use it to promote their wolf-approved brand of sheep-dip religion. Sheep-televangelists who "dance with wolves" are selected and they are given prime time. The wealth they receive is payment for persuading the flock to open the sheepfold so wolves can come in. With straight faces they admit that grandma has said that she has big teeth - "the better to eat you with", and a big nose "the better to smell you with", but the reason for that is because she is a "sinner". The wolf is really grandma and not a wolf. "She just needs to be saved."¹⁹

Coming from a televangelist it tends to set sheep-minds at ease. Certain sheep, the one not tightly wrapped, believe these fairy tales and open the doors to turn the sheepfold into a smelly wolf's den and pig's sty with sheep-bones scattered about. The televangelists coldly say whatever is required to stay on the air. They are well paid and content. The sheep pay the price. It is some small comfort to watch the false shepherds led to jail one by one.²⁰

Wolf Training

Wolf pack leaders, deal with sheep-law, so almost all have law degrees. They have to know sheep rules so that they can know where to go and what to do and what not to do. Wolves don't use this training for their own use since most have no law but obey "policy" - the policy of their next level up pack leader.

Wolf Strategy

The wolf must gain entry into the sheepfold if he is to eat sheep. This obstacle is the first to be surmounted. To pass gate-watching rams they can either don a sheepskin to fool the gatewatchers, or pay the gatewatchers to let him pass.

The protective Word of the Shepherd must be driven from sheep schools, courts, and wolves must be planted in the seminaries to teach the sheep. Confusion is the object.

Then the gates must be opened to allow the wolf packs to be recruited from outside, more wolves make it easier to deal with the flock. Any type of wolf is suitable for this work, white, yellow, or red, since all are united to hunt sheep. Electing sheep who dance with wolves guarantees the open gate.

All that is then needed is to keep the sheep occupied until all is complete and it is too late to stop matters. This is accomplished by paying black robed legal and religious sheep to mesmerize the flock until time to slaughter them.

In all this it never occurs to the wolves that if the sheep die they too will be doomed. There will be nothing left to eat and the wolves will inherit a desolate continent the way it was before the sheep arrived and cleared pastures.

Imperium

The great commission given the sheep is to go into all the world and tell the sheep that obeying the Word of the Shepherd saves them from being eaten by wolves. The next is to learn the ways of the wolf to keep from being eaten.

Wolves kill, rend, eat and destroy. Sheep build, create, gather, and help. Sheep do one thing - wolves another. A sheep is a sheep. A wolf is a wolf. Sheep do not wish the wolf ill, they just don't want to be eaten. But, in spite of sheep wishing wolves the best - the fact is that wolves eat sheep. That is what they do - and those sheep taught by the Shepherd are acutely aware that that is what they do.

HELP! - STOCKHOLDER LIST NEEDED

In 1841 the 2nd Bank of the U.S. failed. The list of stockholders was made public and it was discovered that most of the stock had British owners.

Does any reader have, or know of the location of the list of names of those stockholders? A historian, whose credentials I respect, believes that those stock holders were not Rothschild agents as has so often been suggested, but agents of the Church of England.

Chapter 215

BATTLE OF THE CATALONIAN FIELDS

The year was 451 AD. A million men faced each other. The opposing lines stretched into the distance as far as the eye could see, and on and on for miles and miles. Still there was not enough room for them all. In places, companies and regiments stood behind other companies and regiments, a hundred men deep, waiting for a place in the fighting line. In other places they waited five-hundred deep.

This was the heart of France - The Catalonian Fields. The destiny of Christendom lay in the balance. If the Hun invaders won, Europe was theirs - and the Huns always won.

Sitting on their horses beneath horse-tail banners, the Huns and their subject-allies the Ostrogoths, Gepidae, the recently allied Franks and Vandals, and many other Teutonic tribes, awaited orders from their unconquerable leader - Attila.

Catalonian Fields

Atilla, his Huns and allies were stopped by the allied Visigoth and Roman armies. A million men fought and perhaps half died on this one day. In places men fought on piles of bodies 30 feet high.

Opposite, beneath their eagles and behind locked shields, the Roman infantry awaited the commands of their leader, Aëtius. Today, when facing the Hunnic cavalry, they would have cavalry themselves, the absence of which had earlier severely curtailed their warfare against the illusive Hun. A treaty with their long -time enemies, the Visigoths, commanded by their bold leader Theodoric, brought these formidable warriors to the field and provided the Romans with a mobile guard for their vulnerable flanks. The long lines of these mounted Gothic northmen waited, the pennants on their upraised long-lances fluttered in the breeze.

Both armies inched closer and closer together as newly-arriving units of the Hunnic army jostled and crowded for places in the front line - contingents that never seemed to stop arriving. Men were crowded shoulder to shoulder, front to back. The quick flashing maneuvers of the Hunnic cavalry were unthinkable in this crush of humanity - there was no room for their famed lightning maneuvers.

The Huns

The Huns themselves were described as having a yellowish skin, long arms, large chests, and narrow, slanting eyes. Many of their warriors had skulls deformed in childhood by a wooden board fastened tightly to their heads.¹ Other Huns were European types that could only be distinguished by their clothing and weapons. They were not European, however, their ancestry usually contained Hunnic ancestors.

Their arms consisted of bow, lance, lariat, sword and whip. There were three types of arrows - arrows for long, medium, and short ranges. The short-range arrows were the heavy armor piercing type. The traditional Hunnic tactic against an enemy was to shoot arrows at him until he fell into disarray, or was fretted into an ill-advised charge. Once his solid lines were broken, with small groups lured away from the protection of their fellows, the Huns quickly closed on them. Mounted foes were lassoed and pulled from their horses, or his horse was made to fall by locking his horse's legs together with a Hunnic whip. When the main body of an enemy was thoroughly demoralized and disorganized, the Huns charged with lance and sword to administer the coup-de-gras. The Hun style of combat appeared to be a wide open melee - but was in fact carefully thought-out and disciplined.

Hunnic chariots were like the chariots of other nations. They had vanquished their enemies on scores of battlefields. Javelin throwers, standing next to drivers, used the wild 30-mile-an-hour sling-shot chariot charge to heave javelins long distances into a massed enemy. The chariots then quickly circled back and repeated the performance. The enemy, without the advantage of the 30-mile-an-hour javelin boost, had to patiently endure the attack without being able to reply. At best, they could try to hit these rapidly moving armored targets with bow and arrow - which was like trying to hit an American Indian on horseback. Today, there were no traditional chariot maneuvers. There was no room. The sky grew black with arrows loosed ten thousand at a time, one after another, for almost ten minutes, until each Hunnic archer had fired off his supply of 60 arrows. Then the chariots were ordered forward. Wheel to wheel, with no room for maneuver, they dashed straight at the Roman lines - closer and closer. Unable to maneuver left or right, they careened wildly until the horses impaled themselves on the spears the Romans had implanted in the ground in front of their lines as protection from such attacks. Following in the chariots' wake, the Hunnic cavalry thundered down on the Romans - thousands upon thousands of horses and men - to pile up on the wreckage of the chariots.

Down went horses and men. Stumbling to their feet, the smaller Hunnic warriors, clad in leather armor, wielding spears and stone axes, now without their quick little horses to take them out of danger, or shields to protect them from sword cuts, climbed over piles of their own horses and dead to get at the Romans.

The Romans

The Roman soldiers were Roman in name only. They were Germans recruited into the Roman service and trained to fight as Roman infantry. Shoulder to shoulder - rectangular shields held at eye level - short swords darting out at the faces of the shield-less attackers, they fought in lines three deep. The front line fought only five minutes before being replaced by the second line, which was replaced five minutes later by the third line.² The Huns, unable to fight their traditional battle of maneuver, or being able to retreat because of the press of bodies, were forced to fight the Roman infantry in the type of battle the Roman legions were trained to fight best - in an infantry line that rotated ever-fresh fighters to the front. The individual Huns fought until exhaustion prevented them from raising their arms, and then they were cut down to be instantly replaced by another Hun, who suffered the same fate a few minutes later.

The Visigoths & Ostrogoths

Visigoths were faced by the Ostrogoths. The Visigoths were allied to the Romans - their enemy for the last 70 years. On the other side the Ostrogoths were allied to the Huns. The Goths, both Visigoth and Ostrogoth were East Germans - the same people as the West Germans who served in the Roman-Germanic army.

The newly-developed Visigothic cavalry was the ancestor of Western chivalry. Events had forced them to develop their own style of armor, armament, and tactics that became the standard of Western Chivalry. They were protected with steel helmet, leather armor reinforced with steel plates, and shields. They were mounted and armed with long-handled throwing axes, long steel-bladed swords, and long lances. Physically larger than the Hun, they achieved their best results when they charged boot-to-boot en masse against an enemy which had gotten into a position where they could not quickly retreat. Such a charge created rubble and consternation in its wake. As quickly as they had charged, they turned and executed quick retreats to safety behind islands of their own heavily-armed infantry whose rear ranks doubled as archers - archers who gave as good as they took. There, they were safe from entangling lariats and endless flights of armor-piercing Hunnic arrows.

Their cousins in the service of the Huns, the Ostrogoths, were armed in Hunnic style - light leather armor and helmet, lance, curved sword, lariat, and whip.

The Battle

Neither army retreated. What followed was described by the Gothic historian Jodanes simply as "ruthless, manifold, immense, obstinate."³ The opponents stood toe-to-toe all day long. There was no retreat. The piles of slain grew - five, ten, twenty deep in places. The armies struggled back and forth on hills of human bodies - at the bottom were the horses, chariots, and riders of the first attack. These had disappeared from sight - covered with the bodies of the slain. When the sun set Attila had lost 300,000 men of the horde.⁴ Other estimates of the number of dead start at 162,000. Attila had lost the first and only battle of his career. It was a decisive loss. The Goths lost their king, Theodoric, but the West hung on to the victory. The next day Attila took the remnant of his army across the Rhine to his base in Pannonia - but it wasn't over.

Attila's End

Attila's battle losses in France were heavy. Withdrawing across the Rhine River, he returned to his Pannonian home. In the spring of 452, he sallied forth to sack Italy. Famine and epidemic forced him to halt after plundering Po Valley cities. It was then he received Pope Leo I, who had been sent as an emissary of the Roman Emperor. Following his own maxim of never revealing secret negotiations with the enemy, Attila never revealed the agreement he reached with Leo I. However, he shortly returned across the Alps.

In 453, he took Ildico, the daughter of a Germanic chief whom he had executed for revolting against Hunnic rule, for a wife. Attila indulged himself in wives. He had 300.

The next morning he was found dead in a pool of blood. The story the Huns passed about was that he had burst a blood vessel. The rumor persisted that Ildico, to revenge her shame of being taken by a stranger, killed him.⁵

⁴ Leadership Secrets of Attila The Hun, p. 73, Wess Roberts, Peregrine Pub. Co., Rohnert Park, CA 94928, 1985.

To allow the world to believe that Attila had been killed by a woman was something that the Huns could not allow - which may account for the burst blood vessel story. History does not tell us what was the subsequent fate of Ildico. It does say that she may have accomplished what the combined armies of the West could not.

When word was received that Attila was dead, the coalition of Germanic tribes subject to the Huns revolted. After a succession of battles, they defeated the Huns in Pannonia at a major battle at the Nedao River in which 30,000 Huns were slain, including Attila's oldest son.

While the German tribes revolted against Hunnic overlords, others took service in Roman armies. The Ostrogoths left and took service with the Eastern Roman Empire, thereby depriving the Huns of their long-term services and reducing them to just another despised warring tribe of outlaw strangers.

Germans now openly speak of the 1 million Germans starved to death by the Americans after WWII was over. ENGLAND depends on its fishing fleet and has always kept its coastal waters to itself. The EC was asked to rule on a request by the Spanish fleet to use that area. The EC ruled that there is no such thing as English waters. The Spanish fishing fleet is the world's largest and has fished out the Mediterranean. English waters won't support two fishing fleets. SCOTLAND nearly kicked the traces, as you no doubt heard. A question of time. In Munich, GERMANY, 10,000 natives can find no place to live. The government has taken all available rental property for immigrants. Continuation of the Oktoberfest, held in Munich for the past 150 years, is in doubt. The 200-acre ground is occupied by hundreds of immigrants. In FRANCE, immigration and racial integration are becoming stubborn public issues. Media attacks don't work any more. An intelligence chap here reports that American prep school Jews send their sons to WISCONSIN camps to be trained in handling mortars, grenades and automatic weapons. What have you heard?"

O. D. - Paris

ED: Rabbi Meir Kahane in his book The Jewish Defense League, stated that there had been a training camp in New York. This is the first I've heard about camps in Wisconsin.

NAZI PARTY & LAND: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I've noted from your writings that you have reservations about the Hitler party of Germany. Why? I've read their platform and it beats both the American Democratic and Republican platforms. Germany was also first out of the 1930s depression. Their roads, ships, and planes were the best in the world." O. K. - Arkansas.

ED: The party of Adolph Hitler criticized the Jewish banking monopoly but did little to break it up because it was defended by the world media and by Christian evangelicals who profited from being boosted by the media.

Neither did he address the LAND monopoly of the Catholic Church nor the land monopoly of the German Protestant nobility protected by the Lutheran Church. To this day this monopoly ties up giant tracts of German land promised by God to his people. THAT is the key question - and we are talking about most of the land area of Germany. The question of who will own the land has caused Europe almost 1,000 years of wars and millions of dead. The strife won't go away until it is resolved. How can the land be divided as ordered by God if it is tied up in monopolies organizations who give lip service but refuse to obey the Word which is God. Religious politicians continue to stir the pot hoping to get Church land back.⁶

It wasn't an accident that Protestant East Germany was given over to the tender mercies of the Soviet Slavs after WWII - a la "St. Bartholomew's Day" and Catholic W. Germany wasn't. It wasn't an accident that the communists confiscated the protestant estates that they had earlier taken from the Catholic Church, who had first taken them from the people. It isn't an accident that the present Catholic Pope is a Polish Slav able to make deals with Polish Catholic politicians. It isn't an accident that there is a truce of long standing between the Catholic Church and communism.

Today, the German Protestant princes fight to retrieve land their ancestors confiscated from the Roman Catholic Church during the Reformation. The Catholic Church got this land from the people in exchange for praying land owners out of "purgatory". The new Polish state confiscated the German Protestant land and holds it in escrow for concessions from the Catholic Church. The Catholic Church has made some sort of deal with them to get partial or entire possession of the land they consider theirs.

When the smoke clears, the only ones who will be shafted once again will be the people - regardless of religion - whose land it is. The Shepherd says the monopoly of these religious and political leaders is wrong. The land is to be divided among God's people and never ever to be sold.

VIGILANTES IN ENGLAND: "Dear Richard: Just finished reading your excellent book Vigilantes of Christendom.⁷ I must say you gave me a history lesson that I never learned in school. I'm beginning to see things as they are. Every once in a while a book makes you tingle and Vigilantes is such a book, even though it says nothing the Bible doesn't say. The foreigners pouring into Britain are making things difficult. I see incidences of people beginning to defend themselves against outrages protected by the government." M. J. - London, England clear! The media came down on your book *Vigilantes Of all of which have later been proved to be lies." D.S. - New U.S. ARMY IN GERMANY: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: The American army appears to be doing everything possible to make the Germans dislike them. The Soviet menace has disappeared, but the American army holds maneuvers including tanks and heavy weapons which go crashing through fields and forests, up village streets, and they do it without informing the Germans or asking their permission.

Jet planes fly low at high speed over villages, stampeding livestock and smashing windows and dishes. The Americans are acting as if this were 1945 and they were the newly-arrived conquerors.

"Even the American-selected German politicians and judges have started being polite to the German people, something they have not done since 1945. They must wonder what will happen to them when the American army goes home and will no longer be there to protect them." A. M. -

L.A. RIOTS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: You haven't given an explanation for the L.A. riots." R. M. - California

ED: "There's profit in dissension." Guaranteed loans are being made to rebuild a billion dollars worth of property that the bank-controlled media⁸ incited the Blacks to burn down the city. While Blacks and Whites hassle each other they don't have time to sympathize with the thousands being daily foreclosed and evicted by usury contracts. Then too, in times of chaos - the organized few can control an unorganized many. Witness the wolf packs' takeover of Russia.

WHITE HORSE: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: The scriptures say: "And I saw heaven opened, and beheld a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war." Rev 19;11. The symbol of the Saxon is the white horse. It this the meaning?" R. K. - Virginia

ED: That is my belief. The traditional symbol of the Saxon has always been the white horse. Pennsylvania and German barns, sails on Dutch boats, and Danish t-shirts, bear the white horse. The scriptures continue: "And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, and with it he should smite the nations." Rev 19:14-15.

mayor ordered the non-Black storekeepers who defended themselves arrested for discharging firearms within city limits. He's also fired the White police chief and is hiring a Black one. Your December 'Black Republics' was prophetic. " O. L. - California

"MAN": "Dear Mr. Hoskins: In Genesis 1:27 'God created man in his own image ... male and female created he them.' In Chapter 2: 7 "God formed man of the dust of the ground ... and he took one of his ribs ... and made he a woman." Are these two separate distinct creations of 'man'?" G. M. - Illinois

ED: The book of Jasher is quoted in Samuel. The rest of the book was left out because of space. I believe the 1st and 2nd chapters of Genesis are different books, now treated as chapters of one book. Both tell the same story, but from different sources. The reader is supposed to go to originals for details - if he can find them. Whether Eve was made at the same time as Adam or from his rib is unimportant when compared to the fact that God (The Word) created man (Adam- he who blushes red) in his (the Word's - the laws, statutes, & judgments) image. Now, THAT's important! "Ribs", "Adam", and dust are just detail when compared with the message - which is always and forever - the "Word!"

MEDIA BIAS: Grand Wizard Thom Robb of the KKK

led 50 of his supporters to Washington Park, Iowa to again furnish copy to the media and humiliation, abuse and another defeat to Whites. Five hundred counter-demonstrators made the Robb effort look puny. A large picture in the News & Daily Advance, Lynchburg, May 31, 1992 shows a heavily outnumbered young White boy being held down while a Black jumps on his head. The News, a typical media organ, found no comparison in this with the LA King affair.

This is about the umpteenth time a Tom Robb debacle has helped the opposition and the trillionth time the media has used such antics to justify and incite increased wolf attacks on the sheep. The 1868 KKK knew better and would have had something to say to the likes of Robb.

KISSINGER'S PLANS FOR GERMANY: Henry Kissinger recently stated: "One of the greatest challenges could result from the 'new definition of Germany's role'. The US could be forced, with devastating consequences, to step in and re-establish equilibrium. Germany has become so strong that the existing European institutions cannot manage by themselves to guarantee a balance between Germany and her partners. It would be in no one's interest if Germany and Russia should see each other as the main allies. If both powers should draw too close to each other the danger of hegemony, or supremacy, arises." Kissinger continued: "Without US involvement, Great Britain and France would not be in a position to guarantee the political equilibrium in Europe. Without U.S. influence in Europe, Germany would have 'no anchor to counteract nationalistic temptations". When faced with a choice of a Western partner, "Russia would probably opt for Germany than for France. Therefore, it would be vital that France, via the EC, retain her veto power over German politics and that NATO with the US as the chief power, remain strong."

AFRICAN PROTESTANT CHURCH of S. Africa has declared itself to be fully in agreement with the stand of the leader of the Conservative Party, Dr. Andries Treurnicht. Treurnicht maintains that separate development is a biblically-based and divinely- instituted order. The director of the APK said, "separation is the only way in which different peoples can live together peacefully."

RUBY RIDGE MURDERS PART I

Marshals Ambush Mountain Family

You will find the following story hard to believe. The final acts have still to be played. For the past week I have been speaking at a church conference which had attendees from the county in Idaho where the shooting occurred. Each day, church members would report to me news from family members living nearby. These reports were almost the only news available for several days because of the almost complete news blackout. Rumors were rife. They still are. Truth is there, too - but it is difficult to find in the establishment announcements. Since people have been left alive, "damage control" press releases are now beginning to appear.

Press Release

"It's a white Rodney King case," said Red Beckman, two-time Montana gubernatorial candidate, referring to the murder of the thirteen-year-old Weaver boy in north

Idaho by federal marshals.

"We demand that the child killers be arrested - all of them - and held for murder. Whites are entitled to the same rights and considerations as Blacks in this nation. If this were a Black child that had been murdered, the federal marshals would already be in jail. We demand a federal grand jury investigation by an independent body. As it appears, Mr. Weaver was a victim of a federal set-up. The justice department's hands have been tainted in this matter." concluded Mr. Beckman.

Aug 31, 1992, 10 a.m. Monday: A week of confusing, contradictory, and shocking events. A phone call to Colorado this morning gives this latest scenario as the most probable events of the shootings on the Weaver mountain. It is information which supposedly came from Col. Bo Gritz' talk with Weaver yesterday in Gritz' effort to save Weaver's life and the lives of the remaining members of his family. Weaver and Gritz served together in Special Forces in Vietnam.

The Latest Story

The Weavers were in their cabin - Randy 44, the mother - Vicki 43, her 9- month-old baby, a daughter 16, a son Samuel 13, a daughter 10, and a visitor named Harris 24, who had stayed after having brought food.

After 18 months living on the mountain there was an ongoing shortage of food. Hunting provided much of what there was. The dog began to bark. Weaver 44, Harris 24, and the boy Sam 13, grabbed their hunting rifles thinking that the dog had started up a deer.

Sammy rushed out first and was first to run into an armed stranger sneaking up to the house in camouflage dress. The stranger shot the dog. Anyone who will shoot a dog will shoot a man. The culprit was a federal marshal destroying private property while trespassing on private property.¹ The boy shot at the stranger. Weaver, hearing the shooting, fired his shotgun as an alarm and called for everyone to run to the cabin.

The boy Sammy turned, and on his father's own property was shot in the back and killed as he ran to shelter. Harris shot the killer.

Weaver and Harris crawled out in the dark and took the boy's body to an outbuilding where they washed and wrapped it to prepare it for burial.

Unknown to them, the assailants had not gone away. They had crept even closer to the cabin. When Weaver and Harris went out to get Sammy's body to bury it, the marshals tried to kill them. Weaver was shot in the arm. The mother, having lost her son, came to the door with her baby in her arms to see the cause of the disturbance. A government sniper aimed carefully and neatly shot her between the eyes. It was a good shot. Fragments from the exploding bullet emerging from the back of her skull seriously wounded Harris.

Harris surrendered last night. His wounds were festering. He gave himself up on guarantee from Col. Bo Gritz that the marshals wouldn't kill him. Randy Weaver won't come out of the cabin. He does not trust the word of the marshals.

The cabin is surrounded by 800 marshals, two tanks, numerous armored personnel carriers, and helicopter gun-ships fly by constantly. Randy, at this writing, is in the cabin with his three daughters aged 16, 10, and 9 mos. The body of their mother is with them. In an outbuilding lies the body of Sammy, aged 13.

What's Going On

I've written this article five times. When I think it's finished - another story emerges. It is the result of the establishment- imposed news blackout. No one was allowed up the road to find out the truth. Armed guards stopped you. The FBI spokesman walked down the road once a day this past week to read a prepared statement, and then turned and walked back the way he came. He seldom said anything believable. The proof is that there are all sorts of local protesters with signs saying things like "Weaver today - you tomorrow!"

The background story heard most often is that the FBI wanted Weaver to become an informer for them. He refused. An "acquaintance", actually an FBI informant posing as a friend, dropped by with a couple of shotguns. Weaver inspected them and handed them back. The informant took them to the FBI who dusted them and found Weaver's fingerprints.

Even then, it depended on where you measured - the gun (or guns). One way they were (or was) 1/4 inch longer than the other making it legal - the other way made it an illegal shotgun. Illegal shotguns are called "sawed-off shotguns". "Sawed-off shotguns" get you 5 to 10 years in a federal prison. The person receiving such a sentence HAS to act as an informant for the "requesting" agency or he must actually serve the time in jail for the full 10 years, or however long the sentence is. It's an offer difficult to refuse.

A federal warrant was issued charging Weaver with selling an illegal weapon. Weaver bristled. He said he was being framed. He ignored it.

If the FBI wanted Weaver, they could have gotten him any Sunday when he drove down to church. Everyone knew that. The story I was told was this: One day Weaver was driving down the rocky winding road from his cabin on the mountain when he saw a pregnant woman standing by a disabled car. It had its hood up. He stopped to help, and men in hiding rushed out, caught, handcuffed, and dragged him before a federal judge. The judge released him on a $5,000 bond.

He went back up on his mountain to his family and refused to come down again because he didn't want to inform on his friends or to go to jail for 5 or 10 years either. He naively demanded an apology from the feds. His friends in the neighborhood sympathized and took him supplies so that he wouldn't have to come down more than necessary. They knew him because he had run for sheriff and was almost elected on a ticket of enforcing only those laws the people wanted to be enforced.

Media Conditioning

For the past 18 months the media has dropped a squib in the newspapers weekly about the man in the cabin in Idaho who is up there defying the government. The American public has been kept aware that he is there.

The media has also reviled him. He has constantly been described as "a potentially dangerous ex-special forces anti-government white supremacist, living on a mountain top in northern Idaho, defying the government of the United States."

Having made the point, the media now addresses him as "Supremacist" Weaver - instead of the usual "Mister" Weaver, or Randy Weaver.²

Speculation Is Rife

The establishment says that seven marshals were flown in to merely "recon" the area. That's nonsense. They meant to "get" Weaver. To recon an area you send a couple of scouts. Seven men have tremendous firepower. It is an assault team.

The media refuse to discuss the parallel between the Rodney King case and the Randy Weaver case. The inference that must be drawn is that if Randy Weaver were Black the marshals would be in jail now charged with murder, but since he is White - he doesn't count.

Stories are told of people hearing gunfire as Weaver well-wishers run into patrols of marshals in the mountains. No one I have called has confirmed this.

There are stories of helicopters dumping a thin gaseous substance on the cabin that was blown away by the wind before it reached the cabin. This story was followed by another of people being removed from their homes in a five-mile radius. When they returned they found their cats and dogs dead. Strange as it seems - this story will not die. I have heard it half a dozen times.

There is another interesting story. It is reported that a couple of enterprising newsmen climbed a tree on a nearby

2 If "mister" is to be superseded by "supremacist" as a title of address, the question arises - does this apply only to whites, or does it apply to others also? What does one call a black panther or a Zionist? or a newspaper creature? Are they "mister" or are they referred to as "supremacist"? or is it to become an optional greeting?

hill and kept the cabin under surveillance with telescopic lens. They were discovered at the same time a helicopter sprayed kerosene on the cabin. Nothing happened. The newsmen were threatened and told to leave. That's the story, but they are supposed to have the incident on video. Make of it what you will.

Another story says that Belgian paratroops training in a nearby state have been put on standby in case they are needed - although what they are doing with the 800 marshals who are presently at the site right now I can't imagine.

Still another story says that the feds have raided a "survivalist" group in Georgia and confiscated their guns.

School opening is being delayed in the nearby towns. They have been commandeered to handle the hundreds of arriving marshals.

Story Leaks Out

Someone called and told me that Peter Jennings in his nationwide broadcast said that it looked like Weaver was set up. Someone else called to say that Paul Harvey is reported to have offered to pay all Weaver's legal expenses if he will come out of his cabin and turn himself over to the federal authorities.

Why?

The question that defies an answer is WHY? Weaver was charged with a misdemeanor. You are not supposed to kill someone because of a misdemeanor. This Weaver double-murder is messy. Especially in an election year. It's going to be hard to explain. There are live witnesses. Otherwise it appears to be a repeat of the farmer Arthur Kirk incident. Kirk was shot down in his own doorway. Later witnesses noted toe dragmarks showing that his body had then been dragged into the yard where it was found in a pool of blood. A dead man's heart stops - he doesn't bleed much. Kirk bled a lot - he had been left to bleed to death - his heart slowly pumping blood onto the ground. The story the establishment gave the press was that he had charged out the door firing his weapon, but the empty shells were found at the left rear of the body. Ask a marksman how that can be.

Gordon Kahl's case was similar. He was shot in the back of the head. The story the establishment told in his case was that he and the dead sheriff had a face-to-face shoot-out. It's hard to get a bullet in the back of the head in a face-to-face shoot-out.

The Election Year Explanation

One cynic speculated that D.C. kept the "Weaver card" on ice for 18 months to try to get the Black vote - just before election. Instead of a nice quick vote-getting story of a strong government squashing a "white, anti-government racist", the "Weaver card" fouled up. This particular subject won't die. The case has been turned into a White Rodney King Case and the Bush administration really doesn't want a Black Rodney King Case and a White Rodney King Case - both at the same time this close to election. This is why the story was blacked out over most of the nation.

Politics - As Usual

Rodney King, a Black, was beaten and received the support and backing of TV, radio, and newspapers day and night from that time on. The media, Bush and Clinton, and the nation's church leaders who howled for the police hides, have nothing to say so far when the victim is White.

Monday, Aug. 31, 1992: The TV just announced that "Supremacist" Weaver has just surrendered. When asked who this Col. Bo Gritz is, the one who served with Weaver in Vietnam - instead of saying that he is America's most decorated soldier the media said that he was someone connected with the KKK.

Point of Law

1. The marshals responsible for trespass with intent to kill or kidnap with force, and the actual murderers themselves, must be brought to justice:

"If he ... spoiled by violence (mugging, armed robbery) ... he shall surely die, his blood shall be upon him." Eze 18:10-13.

"Ye shall take no satisfaction (substitute) for the life of a murderer, which is guilty of death: but he shall surely be put to death." Num 35:31

An argument that it is unknown who fired the fatal shots won't hold up either. Being at the scene and not firing a weapon is no longer a defense to the establishment. Gordon Kahl's son and his friend were at the scene when Kahl was ambushed and was forced to kill two marshals when they opened fire on him. The federals gave his son and his friend 135 years in prison when they had not drawn or fired a weapon. They cannot do less to the responsible marshals - including those who did not fire their weapons - assuming there were any who didn't.

2. Those responsible for framing Randy Weaver and those responsible for sending the marshals up on that mountain must be lawfully dealt with:

"If a false witness rise up ... Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother." Deu 19:16-19

Conclusion

The Word - IS GOD, John 1:1, John 1:14: Word violation is "anti-God" - an infidel act. The Word has been broken several times in the Weaver case. Call your representative in Congress and demand that justice be served.

Both "Bomber" Bush and "Sleeze" Clinton appear to be Black supremacists - they demand justice for Rodney King just because he is Black but are strangely silent in the case of the murders of the White Weaver mother and child.

The pronouncements of Bush and Clinton can make this a "White Rodney King Case," or their silence can tell Whites that they are second class citizens deserving no respect - from them.

As tragic as it is, the lost lives of the mother and child of the Weaver family will be not be wasted if America will repent.

The choice is clear. God's justice will be administered, or He God will administer it - to all concerned, including onlookers. Justice is everybody's business.

O.K., Mr. President. The ball is in your court. What about Vicki and Sammy? What are you going to do about it?

KIDNAPING & PRISONS

Stonewall Jackson executed a quick march to Harpers Ferry to which he lay siege and took many thousands of Union soldiers prisoner. Tables were immediately set up and Union prisoners filed by giving their names, regiments, and their word of honor not to fight again unless properly exchanged. This done, they were free to go home.

The Confederate captors on their way north and former Union captives on their way home marched together until the Confederate army turned off on the road leading to Sharpsburg, whereupon they waved "good-by" to their enemies and parted ways. That's the way it was done.

Col. John Singleton Mosby, (Mosby's Rangers), and Gen. Nathan Bedford Forrest, among others, captured thousands of union prisoners, prisoners who were immediately paroled. Parole was standard practice in the Confederate as well as the Union army. Releasing prisoners on their word of honor was an accepted part of warfare to avoid violating the charge of "kidnaping".³

"He that stealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death." Ex 21:16

"If a man ... (steal) any ... of the children of Israel, and maketh merchandise of him, or selleth him, then that thief shall die." Deut 24:7

Thousands of prisoners captured during the early part of the War Between the States were released on parole. President Abraham Lincoln instituted slavery by prohibiting the release of prisoners.

The hardships of prison life cannot be described, even when conditions are good. When conditions are bad prison life is indescribable. One must experience them first hand. Union officers in Richmond were being kept prisoner because of the Lincoln policy. Their life became increasingly difficult. They asked their Confederate captors to release them so that they might go and see President Lincoln and try to persuade him to change his mind. They gave their word to return to prison if their meeting with the president was unsuccessful.

3 Parole does not excuse breaking the law against fighting kinsman "Ye shall not ... fight against your brethren the children of Israel." 1 Kings 12:24 "Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people." Lev 19:18. One counseling war against kinsmen, unless specifically ordered by the WORD, is the one who is the enemy. The law against kidnaping is clear:

They were released and went to Washington where they saw President Lincoln. Lincoln adamantly refused to parole prisoners. Rebuffed, the Union prisoners lived up to their word and returned to Richmond to endure the living hell of prison life.

More than 50,000 men died in PW camps, North and South, as a result. Their deaths resulted from their slavery. Lincoln instituted the capital offense of kidnapping.

Kidnaping Prohibition

The scripture states that Israel was not to make slaves of Israelites. Josephus was asked about the treatment of captives taken from Syrian forces who were Israelites drafted into the Syrian army. Josephus gave historical examples and told them to release the Israelites they held prisoner and give them food and raiment for their journey home.

"Obed ... complained that they ... make captives out of their kinsmen ... to let them go home without doing them any harm ... So the ... men took the captives and let them go, and took care of them, and gave them provisions, and sent them away to their own country, without doing them any harm." Antiq. 9:7:2.

During the Boer War in S. Africa at the turn of the century the British took the wives and children of the Boer fighters and put them in concentration camps where they died like flies. The British were instituting the system of slavery. Who was to blame? It was Queen Victoria - the head of the Anglican Church - who was responsible. Every church dignitary, every church official who did not speak out against that atrocity was also responsible for the deaths of every one of those women and children. It was the CHURCH who was responsible for not ending it. It was the CHURCH who was responsible for standing by and letting this thing happen. The "Christian" churches of the world didn't even PROTEST!

In my opinion - this is the great "Whore" spoken of in scripture. It is the churches. It is the Catholic and Protestant Churches who are equally guilty. People blame the Jews for everything that happens, but it was the Christian Churches who were the false witnesses. It was the churches.

A short time ago the Soviets had Gulags all over the Soviet Union. They were full of sheep who died like flies. Millions died there. 35 million are supposed to have died. The country that has more prisoners per capita than any other country in the world today is none other than the United States. The law states that there are not to be slaves among Israelites. There are two punishments set forth in the scriptures. Restitution - and if restitution cannot be made - such as in the case of murder, rape, or kidnaping - the offender is to die.

"Let death be the punishment for stealing a man; but he that hath purloined gold or silver, let him pay double. If anyone kill a man that is stealing something out of his house, let him be esteemed guiltless, although the man were only breaking in at the wall. Let him that hath stolen cattle pay fourfold ... excepting the case of an ox, for which let the thief pay five fold. Let him that is so poor that he cannot pay ... be his servant to whom he was adjudged to pay it." Antiquities 4:8:27

They are the two punishments, and they are the only two. There is no place for a jail other than a holding tank to dry out the drunk or to hold for evidence.

Today's slavery in America is certain to bring down the curse of God. God said that he would bring down many curses including the plague and the sword. God is faithful - his Word is true. He will.

UNFILTERED NEWS

FLORIDA LAW: George Loeb and Harold Mansfield had a car accident. Mansfield (Black) is said to have come after Loeb (White) with a brick. Loeb shot Mansfield. Loeb, described by the media as a "White supremacist," was given life imprisonment. The media did not say whether or not Mansfield was a Black supremacist. (Story in The News, 8-13-92, A2.

ED: The question arises whether or not Loeb was given a life sentence simply because he was not "politically correct". Florida has a very bad record in regard to abusing the civil rights of its citizens. If you do not "think" the way you should - you are abused.

MOSCOW RACE RIOTS: The shooting of Gideon Chimusoro touched off a riot by Blacks in Moscow. Students smashed windows, overturned cars and hurled firebombs, according to witnesses. The riot was started when Chimusoro kicked a dog and was reprimanded. It is unknown from the article whether or not the Russian who shot Chimusoro was also a White supremacist, but he has been charged with abuse of authority in spite of Moscow's chief prosecutor's protest that the policeman was only doing his job. (Story on wire reports 8-13-92.

ED: It is unfortunate how ignorant people all over the world insist on discriminating against Blacks. Really, someone should speak to the authorities in Moscow, Johannesburg, London, New York, Los Angeles, Atlanta, etc., etc., etc. The human race still has so much to learn about "love" and "tolerance".

LETHAL INJECTION DEVICES: Fred Leuchter, criticized by the media since publishing the results of his investigation of the Auschwitz "gas chambers" that proved that the Auchwitz gas chambers contained no evidence of homicidal gas, is now being criticized by the media for trying to market a lethal injection device in the U.S. It sounds really wicked the way the media says it, "trying to market a lethal injection device", but that's what Fred Leuchter does - he makes electric chairs and lethal injection devices. He is considered THE authority in the U.S. No one else builds electric chairs, and few make injection devices. But, everyone knows how the media is.

RUBY RIDGE MURDERS Part II

Opening Note

The "White Rodney King Case" flashed across the sky briefly, and then plunged into the blackout of the media ocean. Many glimpsed its two-second passage. The Weaver killings shone longest in nearby Spokane, where hundreds of her citizens had journeyed to stand in picket lines in nearby Idaho. They were available to tell the true story of what really happened. Since the cat was already out of the bag there, the coverage was extensive - compared to other places, and extended into entire newspaper sections and included colored pictures, on the scene interviews. It was informative and appeared to be mostly truthful.

Except for this area, the news coverage has consisted of dis- information, misleading, sketchy, limited, or back-page stories. The media has informed everyone in the nation how White LA cops beat Black Rodney King. Most of these people still haven't been told that federal marshals ambushed and killed a White mother and her 14 year old child, and at this writing no charges have been placed against them.

The killers, unlike the LA police, were not arrested and held for investigation. The murder scene was roped off and reporters and photographs forbidden. Whatever dark deeds that were to be done on that mountain were to be kept secret.

When protesters blew their cover, the killer team were quickly flown out of state before their pictures could be taken or questions asked, and then they were released to mingle among the public. Some suspect that this hit team may have killed others in like manner in the past. If they have, the public is entitled to know that the government maintains such a group on the public payroll. It is alleged that the bodies of the slain were cremated to avoid 2nd opinions, and that the only report that will be produced will be paid for by the same ones who paid the salaries of the ones accused of killing the victims.

Quick Recap¹

The dogs picked up a scent and ran out the house. It had

1 Jack McLamb, former law officer and editor of "Aid and Abet", Law Enforcement newsletter, accompanied Bo Gritz, candidate for president, to the top of the Weaver mountain. McLamb was present and heard Randy Weaver's side of the story. Pastor Pete Peters' tape of his interview with McLamb is available from Scriptures For America, P.O. Box 766, LaPorte, CO 80535. His report of conditions there agrees in most part with the information carried in last month's HR #216.

happened on the mountain many times before. Randy Weaver 44, his son Sammy 14, and Kevin Harris 24, grabbed their rifles and followed. A chance to kill a deer was split second decision - something that had to be done right then. Randy ran down the road, and Sammy and Kevin ran through the woods to try to catch the quarry in a crossfire. The dogs were not chasing deer, they had caught the scent of men - armed intruders on the mountain.

They were a hand-picked strike team, led by a Lt. Colonel, specially trained to take out important targets. Not trusting local marshals, this special group had been secretly flown to Idaho from the east coast and were dressed in camouflage to conceal their presence. Any establishment operation led by a Lt. Colonel is a mission of first importance. There were six, not seven as reported by HR. Kevin and Sam ran into this formidable force just as they started killing the Weaver's Golden Lab, "Striker". The dog was Sam's - he was a work dog used to haul water to the cabin in the winter's 10-foot snow drifts.

The presence of intruders on the mountain was a surprise. They had come in stealth - not openly. Their identity was unknown. They were trespassing on private property. They were heavily armed, and they were killing Sam's dog. The newspaper says that they pointed a gun at Sam and Sam shot at them to protect himself. They shot him in the arm. He turned to flee, and they shot him in the back - clearly not the use of minimum force.² Sam, age 14, fell dead. Kevin returned fire and either he or Sam killed the Lt. Col. leading the strike force. If this marshal, Degan, had not been killed it is extremely doubtful if anyone would have ever known his name, or about his high rank. The presence of such high establishment brass identifies the Weaver ambush as a priority government operation.

2 "FBI regulations specify that agents can fire only if their lives or those of others are in danger, Tubbs said. "We can't shoot at fleeing felons." The Spokesman-Review, Sept. 4, 1992, Spokane WA. (This might explain the reported cremation of the bodies - no evidence.)

The Weavers stoutly maintain that the initial shots fired defending themselves in the first ambush were the only shots fired by them during the entire time. All the rest of the shooting was done by the federals in their continuing attempt to kill the Weavers.

Sam's body was retrieved, prepared for burial and placed in a nearby outbuilding. Kevin Harris and Randy were ambushed again when they went to the outbuilding where Sam's body lay. A bullet went through Randy's arm emerging from his armpit. They instantly fled to the safety of the cabin. Vicki, Randy's wife, her 9 month old daughter in her arms, held the door open for the men. Randy rushed in, followed by Kevin. While she was standing there presenting a stationary target, a federal sniper coolly shot her between the eyes. She fell dead. The bullet that passed through her head exploded and the fragments seriously wounded Kevin Harris in the arm and punctured his lung.³

In the house was Randy - wounded, Kevin - seriously wounded, Sarah 16, her sister 10, and the baby 9 months. The mother's body, Vicki, was covered by a blanket and lay under the table for 9 days. It was all they could do for her.

Bo Gritz and Jack McLamb arrived at the bottom of the mountain and asked to speak to the Weavers. Gene Glenn, the FBI agent in charge would not see them. He refused to see them for 2 1/2 days. He sent word that he was "too busy."

During this entire time neither the marshals nor the FBI had been able to make contact with anyone in the cabin. There are no "negotiations" if one cannot talk. The occupants of the cabin refused to talk. They had a reason. McLamb's interview revealed that they had sent a robot device called a "R2D2" to the cabin. It had a big red television eye and in a claw it carried a telephone. The FBI kept telling Randy to pick up the phone. McLamb said that Paul Harvey also was part of the problem, he too on his broadcasts kept asking Randy to pick up the phone - that if he would come out and pick up the phone that Harvey would pay for his lawyer.

The drawback was that the "R2D2" contained a built-in 12 guage shotgun. Whoever picked up the phone had to trust

3 An inquest by an "independent" agency will have to determine if the bullet was a dum-dum bullet - a type forbidden by the Geneva Convention. An "independent" psychiatric evaluation will have to determine the mental and emotional profile of the agents now recruited by the FBI - agents who at a 50 foot rock-throwing distance will coolly shoot a woman - one presenting a still target holding a baby in her arms - between the eyes. Does he look like everyone else? Did he have to pass a certain psychiatric evaluation before being hired? Who trained this chap? Should these types be in law enforcement or should they be in prison? Were they recruited from prisons? Are they permitted to mingle with the public without being identified with signs or bells or something? Are they uncaged just before being used, and after doing their thing, immediately whisked away to be recaged? Perhaps such information will be presented at his trial.

the people at the other end - the same people who had killed the mother and child - not to kill the one who used the phone. The Weavers chose not to trust them.

At The Road Block

Secrecy reigned on top of the mountain. News was censored. Rumor was rife. Just as it was before the Kirk and Mathews killings, family members were forbidden to try to talk to the one besieged. The daily FBI reports were ignored by growing numbers of protesters gathered at the bottom of the mountain.

The "Bo Gritz For President" News Release⁴ of Sep 1, 1992 states that "ATF Agent Ahern stood pointing his H&K MP-5 submachine gun at Col. Gritz's back. Gritz' supporter, Don Stewart of Portland, Oregon, jumped between the gun and Col. Gritz, and told the agent to take his finger off the trigger and point it elsewhere. After briefly turning the weapon away, ATF agent Ahern again pointed the loaded machine gun at Col. Gritz. Col. Gritz walked away."⁵

The same release stated that "Idaho national guardsmen now became unarmed upon demand by the FBI ... as federal authorities became seemingly concerned about guardsman sympathy turning into mutiny."

A disturbing theory has been advanced that the Weaver killings were planned - planned by the same planners who killed a half million Iraqis.

Supporters of this theory note that the Weaver thing has been slowly built up by the media for 18 months. Conservatives have become aware that something was brewing on the Weaver mountain. It is theorized that Weaver and his family were supposed to have been deliberately killed. The news of the killings would cause Weaver supporters to gather. It would then be simple to incite them to riot - giving an opportunity to shoot them down - people the media would call "right-winger", "neo- nazi", "White- supremacists", "terrorists", "racists", etc. In other words, an act of terror was planned to show the country that the new world order had arrived and that there was nothing anyone can do about it. That's why it is claimed that the marshals were whisked away before they could be questioned. That's one theory, anyway.

The FBI who replaced the marshals, smarting under charges that they murdered a mother with a child in her arms, insist that they had the right to kill her. The Spokesman-Review, Friday, Sept 4, 1992, Spokane, WA writes:

"They (the Weavers) fired at the FBI helicopter and that's when the FBI guy was given permission to open fire" at occupants of the cabin. ... As the craft buzzed over the Weaver cabin, sources said, three occupants were spotted near the front door and were believed to have fired shots at the helicopter.

"... Two sources said they believed Vicki Weaver was one of those firing at the helicopter, which apparently wasn't hit. At that point - because lives of FBI agents in the helicopter were in danger - a supervisor gave permission for the sniper to open fire from a vantage point, believed to be about 50 feet from the cabin. The agent, using a .308-caliber sniper rifle with scope, was part of the FBI's elite Hostage Rescue Team which surrounded the cabin. Team's snipers cannot fire without permission from a supervisor, according to those familiar with its operation."⁶

Citizen's Arrest

Eric Lighter of Honolulu, Hawaii and retired Lt. Col. John Salter of Missoula, Montana contacted Gritz and advised him of the technique of "Citizen's Arrest" which has been used with great effect on office holders in Hawaii who were believed to be corrupt. The information was faxed to Gritz, and Gritz was told how to use it. Gritz then invoked warrants for "citizen's arrest" on (1) FBI Director William Sessions, (2) FBI on-site over-site chief Gene Glenn, (3) Idaho Governor Cecil Andrus, and (4) Henry Hudson, D.C. director of the U.S. Marshal's service. Delivery of the arrests are being made to federal grand juries in Idaho, and at least a dozen other states.⁷

Gritz then went to the barricade and attempted to deliver the arrest warrants to the federal officers on guard there. They refused to accept them. He then placed them under a rock and walked away. They had been "served".

The Idaho county attorney pronounced them illegal. However, one half hour after being "served", the FBI SWAT operation backed off and agent Gene Glenn agreed to meet with Bo Gritz and allow him to talk to Weaver. Evidently there is much more to this "citizens arrest" than first meets the eye. It appears that it may be a weapon that both Covenanters and Constitutionalists may be able to use in the future.

It was from this meeting with Weaver that the public first learned that Vicki had been dead for about a week. When Bo released this information at the bottom of the mountain there was almost a riot at the barricades. The "macho" ATF men had been strutting their stuff, sub-machine guns hung around their necks "communist style", and they had pointed them at people, and had looked them in the eye. They had won no friends with their antics.

The crowd, learning that the feds had killed Vicki, too, now ignored Bo. The protestors were getting nasty and the situation was explosive. Many believed that the feds wouldn't stand aside as the LA police did for the rioting Blacks, but they would kill the Weaver supporters. Bo grabbed a big "skinhead" named Pat and told him to get the other skinheads and maintain order. Pat and his friends went up to the biggest men on the picket line who were standing eye to eye with the feds and told them to stand down "or else"! They did. McLamb said that all he knew about skinheads were the things the papers had said about them, but he said that these skinheads were the most helpful people there, and their actions probably saved a lot of lives.

While Bo was talking to Randy later on the mountain, the talk was evidently being transmitted in some way to the rest of the 400 feds on the hill. The FBI didn't want the Kahl subject discussed, but Weaver chose that subject and so that's what was discussed. McLamb said it was the first time that most of the feds had heard anything about the Kahl killing. It was mentioned that the operation against Weaver and his family was costing 1 million dollars a day. Weaver said that the money should be spent on investigating the Kahl case. This is the thing that seemed to make the biggest impression on the fed besiegers. McLamb said that Randy Weaver was "very very well read". He also described Weaver as "delightful", "knowledgeable", and "highly intelligent".

Kevin Harris, the only witness to the killing of the 14 year old Sam, other than the marshals who killed him, appeared to be dying. He was allowed to come down escorted by McLamb. Kevin, distrusting the FBI, insisted that McLamb go the whole way to the hospital with him. No one in the cabin trusted the feds. A couple of days later the rest of the family came down.

Details

McLamb said that the general feeling was that without the protesters at the bottom of the mountain that the Weaver family might be dead now.

The same Aug 1, 1992 "News Release" stated, "A 20- gallon blue plastic drum was filled from a diesel truck ... and then placed aboard the FBI helicopter. The FBI helicopter then took-off and flew toward the cabin when a news reporter and local separatist scout stepped out from beneath the trees and made sure the pilot saw that he was being photographed. The pilot then circled two times and landed. The film evidence of this event survived ... and is in safe hands. The diesel fuel was to have been poured on the cabin ... and ... set-off to make a fire bomb that would easily consume the cabin and all its occupants... The news reporter who photographed the attempted fire-bombing has been arrested for 'obstruction of justice'."⁸

No list of names and addresses of the out-of-state marshals has been given to the public, as was done in the case of the LA police beating. No list of the federal grand jury, with addresses, who indicted the entire family. This was also done in the case of the LA jury that found the LA police "not guilty". Complaints were heard at the roadblock that there is one standard of justice for Blacks, and another for Whites.

The shootings apparently have a history. One rumor still alive is that Randy Weaver was offered $20,000 if he would attend the Aryan Nations church and inform on them. He agreed and went - twice. Finding that Aryan Nations knew what they were talking about and were not as the FBI had painted them - he refused to cooperate further.

The fact that a Lt. Col. was leading the 6 man strike force might have a bearing on a strange 1985 document that Weaver filed at the local courthouse. In this document Weaver stated that he feared for his life, and that if he were killed it would not be an accident.

Things Learned

America has a "White Rodney King Case" that is being ignored by both the media and Washington. This is a very emotional national issue and it has the potential to sway enough votes to swing the election to the political party that makes use of it. But, it is NOT being used. The Weaver killings are being treated as a non-event. This reaction could only happen if using the case had no political value. It could have no political value if the election had already been decided. This would be an interesting conclusion - since it indicates that the up-coming election is a "media event" only, and has no real value.

A "citizens arrest" procedure made its appearance. It appears to be something feared by public officials and may offer relief from official abuse.

In the future, public protests and picket lines may be the only way proscribed people can be kept alive.

When being led from the cabin, the feds closely questioned the children about possible "booby traps" being left in the cabin. They seemed quite concerned about this.

The skin-heads appear not to be as they have been pictured by the media. They behaved admirably. This may indicate a use for them beyond what is media-taught.

The establishment refuses to define the terms "White supremacist" and "racist" that they so freely use to smear anyone not actively working for world racial integration. Their avoidance of the words "Black supremacist", "Yellow supremacist", "Latino supremacist", and "Jewish supremacist" indicates that the terms are to be used exclusively against Whites. This selection of Whites as the "common enemy" indicates that the establishment itself is "anti-White", and now feels so secure with their power that they make no effort to conceal the fact.

This too is interesting.

POLICE CHARGED: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Here in N. Jersey, 3 police officers have been charged in the June shooting of Howard Caesar suspected of stealing a car. The difference between Caesar and Weaver is that Weaver is White." N. O. - New Jersey KILLERS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: The papers here say that Randy Weaver posted a notice at the court house in 1985, which reveals that he expected the FBI to try something like this. The same Feds that he said back in 1985 would try to kill him flew a SWAT team in from another city. They didn't walk in openly like Bo Gritz did. They apparently didn't even try to send information to Weaver by one of the many visitors to the mountain.

This has more of the appearance of a Mafia assassination attempt than an attempt to handle a misdemeanor. Why secretly import a special team armed with sniper rifles from out of state? If things were above-board - there would be no hesitation NOW in revealing their identity. I'll bet that if the feds haven't already changed the names and identities of these killers of women and children we would discover that each of them has a dozen notches cut on his rifle. It would be interesting to put them on a witness stand, with liar detectors, and find out who else they have killed on their little side-trips across America - people who didn't have hundreds of friends to picket and advertise their plight to the rest of the country. It's not all that difficult to tell the difference between a man and a woman, or a child and a man. Hunters are required to distinguish between does and bucks every hunting season. To shoot a boy in the back when he is running for his life and shoot a woman in the face while she is standing still with a baby in her arms is not sporting. Bucks have horns, women have long hair, wear dresses, and often carry babies in their arms. The marshals were hunting out of season; and what they shot indicates that someone is getting paid for each scalp - man, woman or child's - dead or alive. Those guys appear to have gone in to kill and they did. Frankly, the whole thing smells to high heaven." J.C. - Montana

MIA's: "Dear Hoskins Report: News reports confirm that many people in the government have known all along about MIAs being held POW by the communists. These people who have hidden this information for all these years should be prosecuted for concealing it. It is absolutely disgraceful. It is treason." L. U. - U.S. Army.

Mr. Hoskins: What, in your opinion are the issues in the Weaver case. Nothing is said about issues in the media." - J. T. - South Carolina

ED: The basic fact is that people trespassed onto a man's property with possible intent to kill the owner, his family, and his animals.

One must look at the "intent". Apologists for the marshals will argue that the slain animal was dangerous and one is justified to kill a dangerous animal to protect his life. One must then ask other questions. Were these marshals "innocently" on another's private property?

It is admitted - they were professional gunmen. They came from afar. They trespassed. They came armed with man-killing weapons. They came in secret, disguised and camouflaged, and with concealed identities - identities which are still concealed.

They killed the dog - they killed the dog's owner - the 14 year old child. If events till now were an accident - it appears that they would have stopped right there and tried to make amends - peacefully. But, they again concealed themselves and lay in ambush once more to attempt to kill the owner and his guest - on his own property. Their weapons gave them this right. They were successful - they shot both. When the mother exposed herself with her baby in arms - they shot and killed her. Survivors were still in the cabin. They continued their efforts to kill them. Unable to kill the alerted quarry, they sent a robot armed with a shotgun - using "negotiations by telephone" as bait. This last attempt to ambush was unsuccessful because the besieged did not believe the besiegers.

Witnesses allege that a helicopter was loaded with a fuel container to burn the cabin occupants alive, and only desisted when their scheme was discovered.

Family members were forcibly prevented from speaking to the victims, and reporters were prevented from recording their several ambushes. This prevented video and eye-witness testimony from being used against them at a later date. They only desisted their assault when "citizen's arrest" papers were served, throwing the matter into the public arena of the court.

With the other evidence at hand, it appears that the dog, a family pet, was shot because it was there. The attackers subsequent behavior indicates that they shot at anything that moved. These do not appear to be ordinary law enforcement officers.

I believe the case deserves careful investigation. However, if the above observations are true - a careful investigation is exactly what the establishment will try to prevent.

We have heard from the media - after a fashion. We haven't heard from the shooters. Perhaps they had a legitimate reason for their odd behavior. A public hearing before an impartial jury must be convened to determine this.

WEAVER BABY INDICTED? "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Enclosed is an article that I clipped from the Idaho Statesman, Sep 17, 1992. It states that the Weaver 10 month old daughter has been indicted. "Those whom the gods would destroy they first make mad." Indict a 10 month old baby?!!"

Chapter 218

INTEGRATION & GOD'S LAW

The Problem Must Be Faced

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: I am pleased to see someone step forward to tackle the subject of race. I'm in somewhat of a quandary however concerning people that have Indian blood

"Before I begin defending all Indians I should tell you that I'm in agreement with most of what you say about them. My basic disagreement is that you seem to group all of us who have any amount of Indian blood. I'm 1/64 Cherokee & Creek Indian. That means I'm one part Indian and 63 parts white. A percentage that I'm more than satisfied with. I would be careful about excluding some of the best MEN in this country. And believe me we're going to need all the help we can get. Not to mention that American Indians were in fact descendants of Manasseh, one of the tribes of Israel.

"My children are bright and inventive. They are honor students and are almost unbeatable in sports. And get this- I've never murdered any one. I have brown hair and green eyes. So am I in yet?

"Well, here's more. I've spent more time and effort than any one else I know trying to get Joe six-pack off his rear. I read my Bible every day 30 minutes. When I pray I know God listens. He has helped me through some very tough times. When he does the impossible for you - it's no fluke.

"Well, I hope I've shed some light on what it's like to be 1/64th Indian. I hope you'll take the time to answer this letter. I took the time to write it.

"Time and again I have stood up for the White race when others stood back and cowered in their boots. Everyone around my business has been robbed but me. Blacks know not to mess with me. I may go down, but they know I'll take them with me. They can see it in my eyes and they leave me alone.

"Many years ago my grandfather (who was part Cherokee and also a member of the Klan) took part in some payback. A Black raped a White woman. The White people didn't trust the courts to enforce the law so they hanged him. The Blacks swore revenge. About 150 gathered at the train station. My grandfather and others got on trucks and in cars and went to the station. It was a blood bath. The Blacks called for help. Six hundred more came in on the train. Few left. I have a picture to prove it happened. So you can see that my family has stood up for White rights, and the Klan didn't seem to mind my grandfather being a small amount Indian. And we already know he did more for Whites than both of us put together.

"So, there it is. So what have you done besides write books? Yours Truly, B. M. - California "

The Problem - Blacked Out

The historical event mentioned in the letter above is blacked out of history books. I remember hearing stories about it. It happened in the '20s at a time when similar events were taking place in many parts of the country. In fact, they were happening all over the world.

The problem he mentions is real - and ancient. What is to be done with those of mixed ancestry? Accept them? Or don't? Is there a "cut-off" degree of acceptability?

What I say is unimportant. What do the scriptures say?

The Law

Starting with the earliest dates, following is the list of scriptures dealing with the integration of the races:

1857 BC "Thou shalt not take a wife ... of the Canaanites ... but thou shall go ... to my kindred, and take a wife." Gen 24:3,4

Abraham, chosen by God because of his faith, sent away even his own children of mixed ancestry:

"The lips of a strange woman drop as a honeycomb ... but her end is bitter as a two-edged sword. Her feet go down to death ... Remove thy way far from her ... lest strangers be filled with thy wealth and thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed." Pr 5:3-11

1800 BC "But unto the sons of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his son." Gen 25:6

The prohibition became even more strict as years passed:

1459 BC "If a man (Heb: adam - "man" - bluish red) lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast. And if a woman ... lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast." Leviticus 20:15- 16¹

The reason for these prohibitions was to preserve God's people, Israel,² as a creation that could perform the work that God created them to do. To accomplish this, supporting scriptures continue down through the ages:

1450 BC: "So shall we be separated, I and all of Thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth." Ex 33:16

1450 BC: "I am the Lord your God, which have separated you from other people." Lev 20:24

If strangers entered the land - or if they lived in the land - there were instructions to handle that:

1450 BC: (Thou shall) "drive them out before thee. ... They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:28,33

If Israel refused - the scriptures revealed the proscribed punishment:

1450 BC "But if ye will not ... do all these commandments; ... I

1 "Beast" wears clothing. Jonah 3:8, "Beast", "cries mightily unto God." Jonah 3:8, "Beast" has hands. Exodus 19:13, "Beast" capable of mixing with man. Jer. 31:27, "Beast" keeps the vineyard. Song of Solomon, Chap 1., Jesus called the Syro-Phoenician woman a "dog." Dogs, swine, beasts - words to describe people who eat and breed indiscriminately. Eastern religions claim their followers are either descended from beasts or will be reincarnated as beasts. Hence - "beast". The name they call themselves.

2 Israel: Heb. - "He will rule as God ... also his posterity." Strong's Concordance.

send wild beasts among you which shall rob you of your children."
Lev 26:14-35 (interracial marriage)

1450 BC "When the tabernacle is to be pitched ... the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death. No 1:51³

Other scriptures saying the same thing were given to Israel at this time:

"If there is any man in Israel who desires to give his daughter or his sister to any man who is of the seed of the Gentiles, he shall surely die ... for Israel is holy to the lord, and every man that defiles must surely die... And to this law there is no limit of days and no ceasing and no forgiveness ... because he has given of his seed to Moloch ... And thou, Moses, command the children of Israel ... that they shall not give any of their daughters to the Gentiles and that they shall not take any of the daughter of the Gentiles; for this is accursed before the Lord ... And it is disgraceful to Israel to those that give and to those that receive from the Gentiles any daughters, for it is unclean and accursed to Israel; ... for there will be plagues upon plagues, curse upon curse, and all punishment and plagues and curses will come ... and if they blind their eyes to those that commit uncleanness ... then shall the whole people together be punished." Jubilees 30:6-13⁴

1410 BC "Neither shalt thou make marriages with them: thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son." Deu 7:3

Also, circa 1410 BC, the following scripture was written. Those who would open the sheepfold to the wolves argue that it nullifies the rest of the scriptures that exclude those of mixed-race:

3 Josephus says that all strangers entering the temple in Jerusalem, including Romans, were put to death. Antebellum Virginia attempted to solve the problem by having "outside" entrances to church balconies so slaves could be taught. There were no inside stairs. Strangers in the building at all still caused controversy.

4 JUBILEES: A 1st century Christian commentary on portions of Genesis and the opening chapters of Exodus. It contends that the law existed from eternity. Contains an extensive account of the fall of the angels.

"Thou shalt not abhor an Edomite; for he is thy brother: thou shalt not abhor an Egyptian; because thou wast a stranger in his land. The children that are begotten of them shall enter into the congregation of the Lord in their third generation." Deut 23:7- 8

The Law cannot be nullified by quoting scripture. God does not change.

"For I the Lord (the Word), do not change." Mal 3:6, "The scripture cannot be broken." John 10:35..

To conform to the rest of scripture this passage must be interpreted to mean that "ISRAELITES", and ONLY Israelites, living in Edom and Egypt may rejoin their Israelite brothers, but only in the 3rd generation because they may have *"learned their ways."*⁵

Also at the same time circa 1410 BC, the following was written. It is important because even at this early time both Egypt and the Edomites were of mixed ancestry:

1410 BC: "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." De 23:2

Margin note by the reformers in Geneva Bible 1599 state: "This was to cause them to live chastely, that their posterity might not be rejected." The reformers understood the meaning.

5 "Isaac have I loved but Esau have I hated." Romans 9:13; "I loved Jacob, and I hated Esau." Malachi 1:1; "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and inveigled them ... and he came as far as the field of Seir, the same is Edom. ... And Esau there saw in the land of Seir the daughter of a man of Canaan, and her name was Jehudith ... And Esau took her for a wife." Jasher 29:20-23; The Arab world claims Esau as their father. So do Jews. "Edom is in modern Jewry." Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, 1925 edition, vol 5, p 41.;

At a later date, strangers attempting to follow God's law the best they knew how protested that they were to be cast out. This is of particular interest today since many strangers see the storm coming and wish to attach themselves to Israel to avoid it. This is the story and what God promised them - without changing one prohibition that he had written in the past:

690 BC "Neither let the son of the stranger that has joined himself to the Lord speak, saying, 'The Lord hath utterly separated me from his people. ... Even unto them will I give in mine house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters ...

"Also the sons of the stranger that join themselves to the Lord, to serve him, and to love (obey) the name of the Lord, to be his servants ... and hold fast My covenant; even those will I bring to my mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer ... for mine house shall be called a house of prayer for all people." Isaiah 56:1-8

The above order from God is to be obeyed - qualified only by the command to "love" God:

"And this is love, that we walk after his commandments." 2 John 6, "Not everyone shall enter into the kingdom of heaven but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." Math 7:21. God's will is that "A bastard (mixed-ancestry) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." De 23:2

The above prohibition applies to all non-Israelites.

The scriptures state that a stranger having great faith will not be turned away. When the Samaritan woman came to be healed, Jesus first said:

"It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs."

And she replied: "yet the dogs eat of the crumbs." Matt 15:26-27

Jesus healed her. This healing is the fulfillment and answer to the above prayer of strangers who feel that they will be cast out. Israel will help them, but Israel would also keep their distance from them. He healed the son of the centurion. This is the contact he made with strangers. The law of "love" holds true; "If you love me - obey."

Those who open the sheep-fold to wolves make much of Jesus's instructions "Go into all the world". This verse is used to justify their multi-billion dollar "foreign missions", and their disobedience:⁶

"Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." Mark 16:15-16

After being taken into captivity, Israel had been scattered into all lands. That's where Israel was when Jesus told his disciples to "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature" - "every creature", meaning every creature OF ISRAEL. Israel was in all the world.

Jesus immediately followed his "Go ye into all the world" with instructions telling his followers exactly whom to see and whom to avoid while on the way:

"These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not unto the way of the Gentiles, and unto any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 10:5,6.⁷

⁶ "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits." Math 7:15-16

The word "gentile" used in the above quote means a people other than your own. A Japanese is a gentile to a Chinese. A Jew is a gentile to a Christian.

"I was sent to the lost sheep of the house of Israel, and to them alone." Matt 15:24 N.E.B.

"As my Father hath sent me even so I send you. (The Father sent Him to the lost sheep of the house of Israel, Matt 15:24) John 20:21

"I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me, for they are thine." John 17:9.

Jesus did not pray for the world. Tell that to your prayer group. Watch your own prayer life, and let the world watch out for its own. It generally gets exactly what it has worked for, and now bewails the fact.

"Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you." Matt. 7:6

This means more than the Word. It means "machine-guns", ships, "metallurgy", and it means "medicine" - the secrets that God released to care and help his own people. In Africa the strangers take machine guns and kill ALL the animals. Indians gratefully accepted the rifle and killed ALL the buffalo. Wolves eat sheep. They aren't interested in what sheep consider "holy". They "want" - and what they want they take. Sheep-hirelings reject the Word and disregard

7 Samaritans had accepted Israel's scriptures from the first. They professed faith in the God of Israel, they had temples and holy places to worship God. But, God had not made them in his image - "man". God made sheep and he made wolves to cull the flock. Samaritans were wolves. A wolf in sheep's clothing is still a wolf. Wolves eat sheep. That's what they do. Jesus forbade his followers to go to wolves. The Word that is God passes through the Samaritan filter and emerges a Samaritan god.

God's plan for the world because the wolves pay them to. Theirs shall be the worse punishment. The wolves pay handsomely. To earn their silver, hirelings lie and insist that the Ethiopian was a stranger and not an Israelite living in Ethiopia. They lie to justify letting more wolves into the sheep-fold.

The "3-Proofs" can separate most wolves from the sheep.⁸

They stand mute while the "Word that is God" is broken, again, again, and again. When their pet-wolf is questioned - they make him a "magic-wolf". They get him to repeat magic words and sprinkle the wolf with water, and "presto" - the wolf is transformed into a "sheep"!⁹ They are "false priests" in the pay of wolves. "Cursed be he that doeth the work of the Lord deceitfully." Jer 48:10

Based on the above - this was my answer to the letter:

"Dear B.M.: I'm sorry that you think the Biblical command to separate from other races is a "put-down". It is not meant to be.

Different groups have different needs. The part-Slavs of central Europe knew that there would be no justice for them except from within themselves - so they formed the Moravians - a group that in many respects

8 Genuine Israelites bear the "3-Proofs Of Israel" "G-I- M". (1) God's name - CHRISTIANS - "They shall put my name upon the children of Israel." Num 6:27 (2) Isaac's name, SONS OF ISAAC - ISAACSONS - SAXONS, "In Isaac shall thy name be called." Romans 9:7, and (3) Adamic descent. "Man" in Strong's Concordance is the Hebrew "Adam". "Adam" means to "blush red". "Show blood in the face." Genuine Israelites can produce all three proofs. "CHRISTIAN"- "SAXON"- "MAN". Counterfeits can't.

9 "Gentiles shall ye take to wife purifying ... with an unlawful purification (baptism)." Testament of Levi 4:17 is far superior than anything Western "established Christianity" has to offer. They have their own society and their own religion. They are entitled to self-determination. Their almost single-handed armed resistance saved the entire West from being swallowed by the Catholic Church. They are deserving of "A greater place than even his sons and his daughters". God rewards ALL those who "love" him.

The Slav-Poles of Poland saved the West from Islam at Vienna. However, the Moravians don't want what the West has and the Poles want their differences. So do most of the other groups of eastern Europe.

Indians of India test higher IQ scores than Western Whites. So what? They are different. Not to recognize differences in people is to chain them with someone else's values. That cannot be allowed.

Western Whites are not the warriors that others are. They are different. We are miserable in another's society. They are miserable in ours. You say you are 1/64th Indian. You talk like a full-blooded Indian. In my experience Indians don't let anyone push them around. You don't. Full-blooded Whites often do. Indians are an admirable people in many respects. We owe your grandfather for doing for our people.

All the races of the world have things to contribute to the well-being of all. But, it is the White race instructed by their Law that makes it possible. Like it or not - with all their many failings - the White race is "just" - more than any other race. If they disappear, through assimilation of other bloodlines, or by being exterminated in wars, the other races of the world will also disappear in time. Your question "Am I in yet?" will not serve your purpose. You may not want "in". The White race that absorbs alien blood tends to revert to the blood lines it unites with. In spite of being only 1/64th Indian, in time - the blood line of your descendants will revert to being Indian - with all its strengths and weaknesses.

On more careful reflection, I believe you will come to the conclusion that God's reward of a "greater place than even his sons and daughters" has a great deal to recommend it. You are his obedient servant so you will wish to "obey". A strong White nation - a nation of adam-man made in His image - and obedient to his will - will protect your interests better than any other.

You may find it wiser to do as your grandfather did - protect the Whites like an endangered species on whose existence your own hangs. It does, you know. If it vanishes - then your only choice will be to select your next protectors from the races about you.

That thought should curl your hair and make your skin crawl. Sincerely, Richard Kelly Hoskins."

The Ruby Ridge Weaver Massacre - Update

The federal government has made no attempt to arrest, reprimand, or rein in its agents gone wild who are accused of murder, assault, trespassing, and the armed invasion of the sovereign state of Idaho. Instead, the charges filed by the government are against the private citizens of Idaho they injured.

Not trusting such people to be other than self-serving, a meeting of America's Christian leaders was held in Colorado at the end of October to interview witnesses and gather and publicize the evidence. The representatives attending the meeting represented a spectrum of Christian denominations showing concern over Washington's "unconcern" at the Weaver murders. A major benefit is the willingness of Christians to put aside differences and come together to protest injustice. A full report will be forth coming later.

Randy Weaver is reported to have retained an attorney to start "unlawful assault" charges against the government.

The "citizen's arrest" served by Col. Bo Gritz has begun its ponderous course through America's legal apparatus. This is new to the scene and it is being discussed.

Two M60 machine-guns were reportedly placed in nests behind their roadblock and in front of the hundreds of unarmed protesters on the road leading to the scene of the Ruby Ridge killings. Behind the same crowd were stationed government snipers. The lives of the peaceful pickets were apparently at risk in a potentially deadly cross-fire from government assault forces.

People who will shoot a child in the back one day, reflect on the act overnight, and return the next day to coolly shoot the child's mother between the eyes at the rock-throwing distance of 50 feet, a mother holding a baby in her arms, and then persist in their efforts to kill the remaining survivors, are not what one expects of normal law-enforcement officers. If those manning the road block at the foot of the mountain were the same type of cold-blooded killers as those on top of the mountain, then, a bad drug trip, AIDS dementia, a fight with a girl-friend, or being drunk on duty could have resulted in a massacre of unarmed crowds exercising their Constitutional right to protest the killing of women and children.

As far-fetched as it sounds - American citizens may have to be on guard against acts by government agents - acts formerly believed to be "illegal". These acts have now apparently become legal when committed by government agents - agents recognizing no law but themselves.

WEAVER MASSACRE: "Richard: HR, #217, said that in the Weaver Massacre a "Lt. Col." Degan was killed. If Degan was indeed a Lt. Col. in any capacity in the military establishment, then this is a clear violation of the POSSE COMITATUS ACT OF CONGRESS 1878. No military officers can be involved in ANY police action(s) against citizens.

"In the case of WOUNDED KNEE, many Sioux Indians were arrested. The majority of the charges against them had to be dropped because of the violation by the "feds" in using military personal against 'Citizens of the U.S.', thus, violating the POSSE COMITATUS ACT OF CONGRESS.

"About 3 years ago the act was amended to involve Federal/National Guard military officers. They can be included ONLY in some instances dealing with drugs. Degan may have been a Lt. Col. in the National Guard. If he was, I want to remind you that the Guard was never de-federalized since being federalized for Vietnam.

"Again, WHO was the helicopter pilot/co-pilot? Were they military? It may be that as in the case of Wounded Knee the charges will have to be dropped just because military officers assisted federal agents in the shoot-out, even though they were not actively shooting. This was enough to violate the POSSE COMITATUS ACT in the case of Wounded Knee." Pastor James P. Wickstom - Texas BUGGED: "Populist Presidential candidate Col "Bo" Gritz in an interview in an Idaho newspaper said Randy Weaver was an outlaw and a criminal. We have a copy of the newsprint. 'Bo' was also wired by the FBI when he went up to Weavers cabin to start negotiations. 'Friends don't wear bugs to talk to friends.'" Excalibur, Issue #final, P.O. Box 434, Catoosa, OK 74015

PEASANT REVOLTS

The Biblical Homestead Ideal

God made his people kings and priests. He decreed that the land be divided and never ever sold. Neither is it to be taxed. Taxed land can never be owned. As kings - men obey the king of kings who guides them, who gave them a part of his kingdom to rule. As priests - to rule under God's law that part of God's kingdom entrusted to them. A refuge, a shelter; kingdoms planned by God in his Holy Scripture. Kingdoms waiting for their kings to take and rule them. This is the Biblical homestead ideal.¹

Roman Conquests

When Rome made a new conquest, the ownership of the land belonged for five years to the general making the conquest. He extorted all he could in tribute and taxes, and then the conquest (ie. the title to the conquered land - all of it) reverted to Rome - meaning the emperor.

The Roman Civil Service

The extensive Roman conquests involved taxes, tribute, treaties, coinage, armies, recruitment, paymasters, land ownership papers, rents, monopolies, franchises, titles, pensions, and the arbitration, regulation, and governing of the many captured Roman gods. etc.. This was the job of the emperor who owned and was responsible for it all. It was a bit much for one emperor to keep up with, so he created a civil service to do it for him. The civil service ruled for the emperor. It was his representative.

Emperor Constantine became Christian and thought the empire should also - so it did. The emperor's wish was the empire's command, especially the civil service. In the manner of civil servants, they became more Christian than the emperor, real experts, and continued handling the zillion imperial chores which included the continuing regulation and administration of the new state religion which now contained three gods in one instead of the scores of squabbling gods that had formerly driven the service mad with their irritating demands. The names of the empire subdivisions underwent a change to cope with the new religion. "Provinces" were concentrated into "dioceses", and collections formerly called "tribute", "rent", or "tax" might be called a "tithe". Other than a change of terminology, the collections went on as they had before the names were changed. The people weren't consulted. It wasn't voluntary.

In the last days of the empire the emperors came and went in rapid succession. The civil service served each new arrival faithfully, placing in his needy hands the rents, taxes, and tribute wrung from the empire. When the emperors stopped coming, the taxes and rents continued to be collected. But, with no emperor to give them to, and neither soldiers nor emperor to keep law and order, the civil service had to hire protectors so that their task of managing could continue efficiently. After all, that is what a civil service does.

The protectors hired were given the old title of "king". They were princes whose job was to collect the tithes and keep law and order. They were paid with part of their collections from the emperor's holdings.²

Of course, this whole system broke countless rules said to be part of this new religion. The most visible broken rule was that it comprised numerous monopolies in one colossal monopoly. "Everything" belonged to a single owner - the church. There were land-monopolies, trade-monopolies, tax-monopolies, manufacturing-monopolies, shipping-monopolies, all sorts of monopolies - and the new Christian religion forbade monopolies.³ The problem about what the Christian religion allowed or didn't allow was quickly solved. The people didn't know monopolies were forbidden because they hadn't read the Bible. To keep it that way the

2 Actually, Rome "farmed" taxes. It set a figure that it wanted collected and anything wrung from the people above that figure became the king's pay. Any shortfall he had to make up himself. The system was open to abuse and tithe collectors were hated.

3 "Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, and they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth." Isaiah 5:8

church killed those who read the Bible without authorization. Simple. What people didn't know and couldn't find out wouldn't hurt either them or the church. It was plain to see that the land-monopoly was where the action was, and that land-monopoly was God's will.

Princes Claim the Land-Monopoly

England was a diocese. A king was hired to police the diocese. He appointed knights to help him. A count was appointed to police a county, a baron and his knights watched over a town. Each of these policemen was closely watched by an ecclesiastical snoop. Cathedrals and abbeys were ecclesiastical offices and monasteries housed the hordes of church employees needed to manage the vast church operations and properties. To police the German additions, the pope appointed a "Holy Roman Emperor". He was a "super-king" of that part.

But, big or small, all kings, including the "Holy Roman Emperor", had to come crawling to the pope on their hands and knees to kiss his foot. Kissing somebody's foot used to be considered the pits, it was just one cut above the absolute dregs. It was a public confession the kisser not only knew who the boss was, but confessed to the world that he knew. Everyone then knew that he knew. The pope didn't let the hired help forget for one moment that they were "hired help", that it was the church's land they were hired to police. It did not belong to the kings.

The land titles were ancient. They went back to the time of the empire. Then the emperor WAS the empire and he was "god on earth". Therefore, the pope, representing the vanished emperor's interests, was also god's representative. As double proof, theologians proclaimed the church to be

"Israel". The name "Israel" meant "God's representative" in Hebrew, or "Rule as God."⁴ Either way, the pope was looking after the property for God, and it was the pope who placed a crown on the head of each newly-hired king so that he wouldn't forget that the hand that put the crown on could take it off again. The king was "hired help" - and that was all.⁵

If one of the pope's kings were caught "skimming", he was "ex-communicated". That meant that he was going to "hell" and, while waiting to go, nobody could deal with or talk to him. If he refused to repent, the pope would send other kings and their armies after the wayward one. They were paid handsomely for the "overtime". Few kings got away with disobeying the pope.

That didn't stop the more enterprising kings from trying. After all, it was a lot of work going around strong-arming peasants and merchants - collecting rents, tithes, and taxes - just to turn around and give it to the pope. The pope didn't work to collect it. The princes did.

4 The church did not bear the 3-proofs of Israel: (1) God's name - CHRISTIANS - "They shall put my name upon the children of Israel." Num 6:27 (2) Isaac's name, SONS OF ISAAC - ISAACSONS - SAXONS, "In Isaac shall thy name be called." Romans 9:7, and (3) Adamic descent. "Man" in Strong's Concordance is the Hebrew "Adam". "Adam" means to "blush red". "Show blood in the face." Genuine Israelites can produce all three proofs. "CHRISTIAN"- "SAXON"- "MAN". The church couldn't.

5 "Innocent III believed himself to be the representative of God, and as such the supreme possessor of both spiritual and temporal power. He therefore claimed in both spheres the supreme administrative, legislative and judicial authority. The bishops described themselves as holding office 'by grace of the Apostolic See,' for they administered their dioceses as plenipotentiaries of the pope; ... And just as he considered himself entitled to appoint to all ecclesiastical offices, so also he vested the emperor with his empire and kings with their kingdoms. ... he considered himself empowered to annul civil laws. Thus he annulled the Great Charter in 1215 ... also the pope threatened disobedient princes with deposition." E/B, Church History, 14th Ed, #5, p. 682

In the 1300s, the Kingdom of England began to protest mightily about passing the plate and sending the collections to Rome. It ignored the claim that the pope was entitled to act as Israel - as "god on earth". It ignored his claim that the land titles went back into the days of the Roman Empire. The kings wanted to know exactly how the church could prove that the land was theirs - now! Today! How could they prove title?

Proving Title

In Texas, flashing a Spanish land-grant is a giant step to proving land ownership. The king of England asked to see the land-grant. "Traditions" from the Roman civil service wouldn't cut it. Everyone was "Christian" now. The church claiming to be Israel (Heb: "To rule as God") and therefore having the authority to rule wouldn't do either. The Scots in 1320 had protested to the pope that they were Israel. What proof could the church offer now? The King wanted proof that the church still owned the land they claimed they owned.

The church sat the king down and made him read the (Donatio Constantini). This paper was proof positive that emperor Constantine, in gratitude for his conversion by Pope Silvester, gave Pope Silvester and his successors for ever, the spiritual supremacy over other religions, over all matters of faith and worship, and also the temporal domination over Rome, Italy and the provinces, places and civitates of the western regions.⁶ There you have it. You want proof?

6 E/B 14th Ed., Vol 7, p. 524 (Donation Of Constantine).

You got proof! In writing, yet!!

It is now universally admitted to be a gross forgery, but then it was regarded as the genuine article both by friends and enemies of the papal claims throughout the middle ages.

In spite of all this, the English still weren't satisfied. The authority they were using was something new - The Bible. They introduced a preacher of their own named John Wycliffe. Wycliffe had read the Bible and pointed to the place where it said that monopolies were forbidden, especially land-monopolies, that the land was to be divided and never ever sold.⁷ Wycliffe had known this all along, but he couldn't speak out unless he had someone to protect him from church retaliation. The princes of England were glad to protect him. He was talking their language when he told the world that God said that land-monopolies were illegal - illegal for the Church that is.

The princes paid Wycliffe to attend all the conferences they held with the pope's representatives. He was their "expert witness", and they paid him 20 shillings a day for doing it - a royal income in that day. As their in-house ecclesiastic-lawyer he argued their case and they protected him from a Roman church irate that one of their employees had switched sides and had let the cat out of the bag on this land-monopoly thing.⁸ In 1366 he "published his Determinatio quaedam de dominio supporting parliament in refusing

7 "Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, and they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth." Isaiah 5:8, "The land shall not be sold for ever." Lev 25:13

8 "He now publicly proclaimed the doctrine that righteousness is the sole title to dominion and to property, that an unrighteous clergy has no such title, and that the decision as to whether or not the property of the ecclesiastics should be taken away rests with the civil power." E/B, 14th ed, Vol 23, p. 822

the tribute demanded by Pope Urban V.⁹ The controversy continued; "As soon as parliament met in the autumn of 1377, Wycliffe was consulted by it as to whether or not it was lawful to allow that treasure to pass out of the country in obedience to the pope's demand."¹⁰ Wycliffe quoted scripture proving that it was unlawful to do so. Wycliffe was indispensable. From being a pope's-churchman, he was acting as a Princes'-churchman. He said things that the Roman church burned people for saying - people who didn't have protection. Wycliffe, to gain support for his views then did the unforgivable - he translated Rome's Vulgate Bible into English. This really did it. With an operation manual to guide, the warts on the nose of the Roman Church became visible to all.

While he was at it he might as well be hanged for a sheep as a lamb, so he not only translated the Bible, but wrote books expounding the doctrines he had discovered, things that were eagerly read by reform-minded Catholic priests all over Europe. In rapid succession he wrote:

- De civili dominio. His argument was that the church has no concern with temporal matters; that for the clergy to hold property is sinful, and that it is lawful for statesmen - God's stewards - to take away the goods of a clergy no longer obedient to God.
- Wycliffe next began to advocate that the "king" take possession of the property claimed by Rome, including all the Church-owned monopolies in England. It was sort of a "divine right". The king liked that. Other kings in other countries liked that. Land-monopoly, the church's big prize, was getting within reach. Why should they split the peasants' tithe and the merchants' rents and taxes with the church? England was protected by an English Channel.

¹⁰ Ibid. p. 823

- He declared that the doctrine of arbitrary divine decrees of the pope was anathema (papal infallibility). The Bible was supposed to determine right and wrong. A lot of priests liked that one.
- Based on the cornerstone truth that "In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God" - the laws, statutes and judgments, and that the Pope was violating the Word, he found the Pope to be an antichrist (See vol. ii. of the Sermones. Book iii. of his Opus evangelicum) entitled De Anticristo.) Later reformers picked up on this one. The Pope didn't like being called an "antichrist" anymore than today's antichrist preachers enjoy the same tag.
- Knowing that acorns don't fall far from the oak - he pronounced that all church societies were liable to the same corruption. This put the Roman church on one side and the king and his supporters on the other.
- The argument in his last book Opus evangelicum, proclaimed his insistence on the "sufficiency of Holy Scripture." Today, this argument is accepted by all protestants, and many catholics - in theory. Back then, it was heresy. It put limits on what the Church could do. The church, (and the princes), could either submit to the Word and obey its commandments, or fight the Word, and destroy those who demanded obedience to it. Both chose to give lip service to the first and to follow the latter course.
- It was his discussions from the scripture that brought forth the doctrines of "free-will", "merit", and "predestination". (Calvin later added "grace", and Wycliffe's "merit" proved the salvation. Hard to have one without the other in spite of the thief crucified with Jesus.)

- He instructed many of his followers to go out and teach the people. The day of the itinerant preacher arrived and the Word went directly to the people, and the common people loved them. They rejoiced in the plain and homely doctrine which dwelt chiefly on the simple "law" of the gospel. The third force, those who actually ran the monopoly-machine, the people, now entered the picture.

When the Church came after Wycliffe, he appealed for protection to the king - not the pope - and got it.¹¹

The Peasant's Revolt - 1381

While kings and prelates argued over who was to get the land-monopoly with its tithes and rents, the people had been listening and learning that God said that land was not to be a church-monopoly, nor a prince-monopoly, but that it was to be divided among the people and never ever sold. The Bible said that the land was not to be taxed, that the Bible said that God had made the children of Israel "kings and priests" - not the kings, or the Roman Church. Of course, the people's- preachers had no mighty protector to protect them when they wrote books against land-monopolies, usury-monopolies, and about Christian vigilantes. The church or the king could hang them out to dry, so they "whispered". They were so quiet that neither the prince nor the priest knew that they were whispering, or what they were whispering about. Except for an occasional overheard conversation resulting in a smear in the N.Y. Times, they still 11 John Huss later raised Wycliffe's doctrine to the dignity of a national religion. Many of the works attributed to Huss were actually the works of Wycliffe. Huss, Luther and other continental reformers owed Wycliffe much, and the spirit of the English reformer permeated the reformed churches of Europe.

In 1381, Archbishop Sudbury ordered the king to collect a poll tax from every adult. Rich or poor the tax was the same. The poorest family had to provide his three goats. All hell broke loose. The people weren't going to do it. All England burst into flame from coast to coast, from city to city and town to town. Castles and manors were burned. Tax collectors, priests, and lawyers were hunted down and butchered along with proctors (overseers), unjust judges and rulers. A mob numbering seventy thousand gathered and elected Wat Tyler their leader. John Ball, a people's-preacher, was his religious advisor. They marched on London and demanded to be freed from being slaves of the manor. They demanded freedom from taxes, and the tithe, and they demanded the right to rent land at 4-pence an acre rather than being the property of the manor. These peasants were armed with long-bows and most arrived in their manorial militia companies, many of which had fought in the king's wars with France. The week before they were humble serfs. Now, united, they were the most powerful force on the island, and they were armed.

The Londoners were equally oppressed by the church monopolizing manufactures and trade. London's city aldermen opened London's gates and the rural mob joined the city mob and began hunting down unjust churchmen, judges, lawyers, foreigners, and Lombards (bankers). Whole areas were burnt. Reaction to uncontrolled lawlessness was inevitable.

The "Peasant's War" created a rift between Wycliffe and his patrons in high places. The peasants were burning property belonging to the prince as well as that belonging to the church. The king and his followers began to distance themselves.

Wat Tyler and his followers met with the royal party of Richard II, a boy aged 14. Most of the peasants' demands seem modest by today's standards - that they not be treated as villains (manor- slaves), be allowed to rent their land at 4 pence an acre, be able to move away when they liked, relief from and cessation of countless rents, dues, taxes, and tithes.

These demands were granted. Royal letters were written to local governors, and everything was put in a charter. The English love charters. During the night, more ecclesiastics were hunted down and dispatched by peasant bands. The next day when they arrived to meet with the king, Tyler expanded the peasant demands to include the division of the land among the people.

Dividing the church land-monopoly among the king's supporters was the prize the king's party wanted for themselves. But, the king's party was ready. They had negotiated with the peasants only to disarm their suspicions. It was planned that when next they met that a SWAT team composed of the mayor of London and twelve of his supporters would suddenly rush Wat Tyler and cut him down. Everything went as planned. When Tyler got close enough, the assassination party drew concealed weapons and rushed Tyler killing him. The people were left without a spokesman. Thousands of peasants drew their bows and the lives of the king's party hung by a thread, but before the arrows could be loosed, the young king boldly rode forward and said that he would be their leader. The people foolishly believed him.

The king rode back to the safety of the Tower of London and issued orders that loosed his armies on the peasants. The chivalry of England - knights in full armor - went after the peasants slaying indiscriminantly. The king quickly annulled the freedoms he had just granted and hanged the peasants by the hundreds.

Tyler's advisor, the people's-preacher John Ball, when condemned, confessed that he learned his subversive doctrines from Wycliffe. William Courtenay, who succeeded the executed Archbishop Sudbury, the author of the poll-tax that had touched off the revolt, as Archbishop of Canterbury resolved to stamp out the Wycliffe heresy including Wycliffe himself. He called a council of bishops, theologians and canonists at the Blackfriars' Convent. But the king needed Wycliffe, so he remained at large and was unmolested. After all, the king still needed a theological-lawyer to support his claim to the land-monopoly against the Catholic Church. Neither the king nor the Church needed a third claimant to step in - peasants aroused by learning Christian teachings. The prince and church disagreed on almost everything except that. They still do.

Lessons

When Lee marched into Pennsylvania he shot soldiers who looted or burned. LESSON: Northern citizens were not threatened by the South and as a consequence the North was unable to field a volunteer army and was forced to enlist Blacks and go to Europe to hire 200,000 mercenaries. The 14th-century killing of tax collectors, lawyers, judges and even nobles accused of corrupt practices did not frighten the prince or his men and cause a class reaction. LESSON: Class-action reprisals threaten everyone in that class and that class tends to react as a class against the class that is perceived to be the attacker. Foreign kings have instructed today's media to incite entire classes against other classes. The object - a massive class reaction called - "civil- war". This is encouraged by the prince and acquiesced to by the prince's churchmen. The prize is still the same - America's monopolies, including the closely held land-monopoly. LESSON: Churchmen support the church. The prince's-churchmen support the prince. The peoples'-preacher supports the people. Acorns don't fall far from the oak. Wycliffe taught that a preacher who speaks for another is liable to the same corruption. Today, many churchmen claim to speak for the people. They say they know the Word and who they are. Still, most will not offend the king. They collect the peoples' silver, speak for the prince, and save themselves by sending their flocks to the slaughter house. The people can count only the "kings and priests" appointed by God. Those confusing churchmen with Christians preaching the Word will in time pay the penalty for doing so. The prince's churchman provides a one-way ticket to visit the home of Lady Marion. The Biblical homestead ideal will come to pass as promised, as written, and in no other way.

The Peasants Revolt of 1525

Back in Rome the pope had been having money troubles.¹² To raise cash he put entire bishoprics up for sale. A prince with a bag of gold could buy the church's claim and combine the office of bishop with that of prince. A single warrior-prince received double pay in rents, tribute, taxes and tithes and replaced both warrior and a cleric. He appointed his own cronies to double- offices of count-abbot and knight-priest. A fighting monk had much to recommend him. It did simplify the organization. This German church reorganization displaced many knights. An unemployed warrior can become a problem.

In Aug 1522, the knights (the Ritterschaft) who had been fired went after the church and besieged Trier, the city of a prince- archbishop and elector of the empire. The church called for other of its Kings and knights to come to its aid and the unemployed knights were defeated. The year was 1523.

This left a number of trained and still unemployed knights wandering around the countryside looking for jobs. All the while an explosion had been building up among the peasants.

The church did not like for its workers to walk off the job to go elsewhere - so they forbade it. As a consequence, the land assigned the peasants had to be divided with their children, and grandchildren, again and again so that families were actually starving on their assigned acreages.¹³ All the while the Catholic Church, the monasteries, and the priests waxed fat on the sweat of the peasants.

Into this explosive mixture was thrust the teachings of Martin Luther. The Peasants' War was precipitated by the Lutheran Revolt. Luther had gotten the backing and protection of the princes by preaching the same things Wycliffe had taught more than a century before. In exchange for their protection to preach, he taught that the princes were entitled to the church lands and the income from them. He also taught that the church was corrupt, which it was. Luther's message was democratic. Its force and directness added fuel to the discontent smoldering for generations alongside anti-clericalism.

Seven years after Luther's attack on the indulgence system,¹⁴ the peasants' revolt broke out. It was sudden. The Standard - a peasant's clog (a wooden shoe) on a pole. In June 1524, encouraged by the successful bid for freedom made by the Swiss, many cities, knights, and even princes came to terms with the insurgents and many joined their ranks. The rebels put forward a religious and social program. A basic demand was that each village be allowed to elect its own pastor who was neither a church-preacher nor a king-preacher. They made another demand - that the church land be divided among the peasants.

Many of the prince-ecclesiastics felt that they would rather lose their church land to rebel peasants than to greedy princes, so, many were agreeable.

"Amongst the peace-makers being the elector-palatine, the Bishops of Bamberg and Speyer and the Abbots of Fulda and Hersfeld."¹⁵

They could negotiate, save their heads, and maybe retain some income by being agreeable. Being disagreeable put them in double jeopardy with the covetous Lutheran princes poised to seize their land, and the peasants who already had it.

Much of Europe went up in flames as the peasants wreaked havoc on their ancient oppressors.

"There was much secularization of church property, suppression of monasteries and introduction of the Lutheran service in many churches."¹⁶

However, this revolt was playing hob with the agreement that Luther had made with Philip of Hess. Philip was a major figure in Germany at that time and he had agreed to protect Luther and his movement in exchange for Philip obtaining the Church's land. The deal became dependent on the suppression of the peasant's revolt.

Luther was now between a rock and a hard place. His teachings had triggered the insurgents. He at first sympathized with them and wrote a pamphlet protesting the harsh measures used against them. But, the threat of losing Philip's protection and being turned over to the tender mercies of the Catholic Church with the consequent wrecking of the whole reformation movement caused him to back up. Rethinking the matter, he found that the peasants' excesses angered him, so he wrote another tract Against the murdering, thieving hordes of Peasants. This latest tract breathed fire and slaughter down on the peasants. It was either that or disaster for his own revolution, more so, since the rebels had in nearly all cases claimed religious sanctions for their movement.¹⁷

The main revolt was subdued before the end of 1525. It ended in disaster. Outrages had united the princes and when they had the upper hand they wreaked outrages of their own in a ferocious vengeance on the people. The protestant princes had captured the land-monopoly from the church and they meant to keep it.

"A notable event of 1525 was the action of Albert of Hohenzollern, grandmaster of the Teutonic Order who, supported by most of his knights, declared for Luther, secularized the property of the order and made himself the personal ruler of its territory between Poland and the Baltic."¹⁸

This defection was stunning. The Teutonic Order was a principal warrior priesthood of the Roman Catholic Church. The reformation was under way. To justify their own seizure of Church land - the princes were forced to leave the Word open for the people, and they continued reading it.

Mountain People

Many years ago, while tramping through the mountains of Virginia I met mountaineers who had never been to the big city of Lynchburg, or any other city, for that matter. Many had heard all about cities and chose not to go. They were the remnant who had not been destroyed like their kinsmen in the lowlands after the war. They were gracious and hospitable. Whatever they had was yours.

They had animals, and raised their own food. They made their own clothing with their own wool. They made their own shoes, or traded for them. Peddlers brought nails and salt, altho there used to be an iron furnace 15 miles away, and salt mines were 40 miles down the valley. Some grew tobacco for a money crop. Others trapped. Cottage manufacturers found a ready market in the cities. Some had gone to the city and started businesses and stayed to watch their investments. They returned home when they chose. Often their children returned. Home was where their people were buried.

Among those people there was no fear of losing a job, of starving, of being thrown out on the street. They were the closest things to kings and priests that I have seen. There was the eagle look about them - the "king" look. Not the slack faces of the cities' wage-slaves. They were home. Their home was their kingdom on earth. A Biblical homestead promised by God. Taxes and bank manipulation of international commodity prices have since allowed a new prince to take their lands.

Roman law permitted sodomy, adultery, abortion, usury, and monopoly. Churchmen found nothing wrong in it. Christian law condemns it. Most of today's churchmen covet the name "Christian" but worship Caesar. Caesar's churchmen serve Caesar. "By their acts ye shall know them." Matt 7:20 But, because of the Word we know what God has planned. Some day, in a time chosen ages ago, after all have been freely permitted to make his choice - a single spark - and the tree enriched by the bones of our fathers, will once more grow. "Thy will be done - ON EARTH!"

QUEEN VICTORIA: "Gentlemen: Your comments on the Queen of England, Victoria, and the Boer War cannot go unchallenged. The Queen was not responsible for the war nor the evil of the politicians who planned, conducted and managed this evil act. Her Majesty fought desperately to defy the politicians.

"The citizens of the U.S. are trained from infancy to denounce the Royal family of Britain due to jealousy and the fact that they were unjustly led into a war of rebellion against the Mother Country by rebels and tyrants. The politicians will continue to spread propaganda to clear themselves of their errors. The ignorant citizens will continue to believe any kind of political propaganda to suit their vanity, and will not hesitate to make unjust statements about the innocent Royal family. Do not forget that many Americans were not willing to fight in that war of rebellion. The greatest and the best of your nation fled to Canada and built a new nation under the Royal Standard and King.

"Your nation may be arrogant and aggressive, but you do not own all the world yet. I beg you, do not blame the head of the true Israel Nations for that which she was not responsible." B. D. - Canada

ED: Bravo! Spoken like a true Israelite bearing the proofs of Israel! You sound very much like my mother who was a great fan of the royal family.

However, my family, for one, are done dying for kings - Scottish, Irish, English, German, American, banker, or communist - or whoever falsely claims a right to rule over us. We recognize ONE king to rule over us. The king of kings who made us all "kings and priests" (Rev 1:6). We recognize the sovereignty of those whom God appointed king to rule their own kingdoms when they prove their loyalty to the king of kings by their love¹⁹. It is by this alone that all are judged.

IF genealogical right alone determines who sits on the British throne, Virginia alone can produce 5,000 who have as much right as the present banker-installed royal family. More right since the Mountbattens have added their blood-line. Canada can too, for that matter.

If Victoria cannot be blamed - who can? (1) She was briefed weekly on the conduct of the South African war. I find no objections made by her to British scorched-earth policies nor their concentration camps - subjects discussed at length in the papers. She was head of the Church of England - the English Pope, if you will. Her silence lent consent just as the silence of today's anti-Christ priests lends their consent to today's Sodom and Gomorrah. What more can be expected if those who lead will not speak for fear of offending? (2) She said nothing about Israel raising a hand against Israel (I Kings 12:24). (3) She found no fault with her own and her church's vast holdings of British land, industry, transportation, and usury banks - a virtual "monopoly". Nor did she speak against others forming monopolies which deprived her "subjects" of their birthright (Isaiah 5:8). (4) She said nothing about "dividing" crown land and church owned land. (Num 26:53-55). (5) She found no fault in crown ownership of "usury banks" that preyed on her own people (Deu 23:20). (6) She certainly found no fault with taxing lands that in time would guarantee that the lands would revert to crown ownership (Matt 17:25-26). (7) I do not find where Victoria protested against enlisting Blacks in the war against the South Africans whom she insisted were "her" own subjects (Deu 17:15). For that matter, in Virginia the British Crown found no fault in arming and leading Indians against women and children on our frontiers and having them sacrificed to "Okee" (see Vigilantes). Also, the "Crown" forbade Virginia's banning the Black slave trade (Jer 2:25).

True, many of our people did refugee to Canada and go back to Britain rather than fight the invading British armies. Several of my ancestors did. Agreed, the Constitution turned out to be no substitute for the Bible. Agreed, the banker-led U.S. is arrogant and oppressive.

But, in America for a brief period there was a Camelot. For a brief time, men were kings and priests ruling their own land by His law. All we need now is for those he made kings and priests to know who they are. From now on - we look to ONE King. We look to what HIS promises.

STUDENT SPEAKS: "Mr. Hoskins: I want to thank you for telling the stories about the history of our people. I am 18 and have never heard them before. It fills me with excitement and pride." F. L. - California

BALAK: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: 'By their acts ye shall know them.' The story of Balak in your "Vigilantes", p. 27, is the reason they tried to smear your book. You exposed their plan! The Story of Balak describes today's conditions exactly, and both the government and the churches are working in collusion to bring it about." A. C. - Kansas
